STILL TIGHT LOCKED.

But an Agreement Probable This Afternoon,

BY WHICH ALLIANCE WILL WIN.

Bills Introduced in the Senate and a Possibility of Lively Music.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 8.—The deadlock in the lower house of the legislature continues. Three ballots were taken this morning for speaker, Searle, republican, receiving 41 votes; Stivers, democrat, 41 and Champlin, alliance, 32. The house took a recess until 3:30 p. m. The senate is in session and the introduction of bills is being proceeded with.

Deadlock Undrawn.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 8.—[Special to The Herald]—The deadlock remains unbroken. The house reassembled at 10 o'clock this morning and unsuccessfully endeavored to effect an organization. A vote was called for on the speakership and the ballot resulted about the same as yesterday. Two additional ballots were taken with the same result. The hitch is on the division of committees, the railroad committee being the big bone of contention it is known. It is rumored that there is a large sized Ethiopian in the fence. If he is smoked out, some big fun is in store, with music by the full band.

At the democratic-alliance caucus held at noon, it is thought an agreement was reached and that Champlin will be elected speaker upon reassembling at 3:30 o'clock.

In the State Senate.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 8.—[Special to The Herald]—In the senate, Dean, of Ramsey, introduced a bill making the use of force or money at the polls a felony, punishable by imprisonment. It also provides that officers, including United States senators, must submit a statement of campaign expenses. The election of committees was set for 10:30 a. m. Friday. Senator Grisel, of North Prairie, introduced a bill requiring the governor to file a copy of all pardons with the secretary of state as soon as made. There was a spirited discussion over the appointment of additional doorkeepers, etc.

THE INDIANS STARVING.

World Correspondent Says the Department is Misanmanaged.
NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—The World's Pine Ridge correspondent telegraphs his paper as follows: The World should investigate the Indian department at Washington. All the present trouble is caused by mismanagement there. The Indians are positively half starved. They get plenty on the books, but little food. The country is almost a desert and they cannot support themselves.

Iowa Indians Rampant.

WATERLOO, Iowa, Jan. 8.—It is reported here that the Musquakie Indians, located in the southern part of Tama county, have an attack of the measles, and there is said to be an outbreak at any time. There are about 300 of them. The Governor Greys, the Muscatine Rifles and two companies have been ordered in readiness, and it is expected that the company here will receive orders very soon.

Hostile Recruits.

SPRINGVIEW, Neb., Jan. 8.—Chief Yellow Horse, formerly of Indian agency, passed through here Tuesday with a considerable following. When asked if he was not afraid to meet the warring element of his tribe he replied: "No, we are all hostile now." Yellow horse was supposed to be a friendly. Swift Bear and his band, formerly of the same agency, have also declared for war. Both chiefs are supposed to be bearing for the hostile camp near Pine Ridge.

Quiet Down Again.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 8.—Advices from Nebraska order towns indicate a more quiet feeling since the arrival of the state militia. Settlers of the adjacent towns returned to their farms yesterday. Those of the isolated district still remain in the town. Bodies of troops patrol the town roundabout.

Red Cloud Comes In.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. D., Jan. 8.—Red Cloud came in this morning from the hostile camp, bringing along with him a few of his followers. He reports much dissatisfaction existing among the Indians in the hostile camp, and that before he left a row of large proportions had taken place there. He states that all of the Pine Ridge Sioux will be in within a few days. Gen. Miles says that everything will be settled amicably within a fortnight.

Situation at Pine Ridge.

PINE RIDGE, Jan. 8.—The hostile Indians fought among themselves last evening, resulting in a number of deaths of the fighting men. Buffalo Bill arrived here today. Many Indians are coming in. Lieut. Casey, who was murdered by a squaw, has been brought in and his body will be sent to Woonsocket. R. I. Col. Sanford's men last night had an encounter with Indians, killing four and wounding three. Sixty ponies were captured.

A Point for Boyd.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 8.—The supreme court has issued a writ of mandamus compelling the speaker to convene the returns. This is a point in favor of Governor Elect Boyd.

A REVOLUTION.

Now it is Chili's Turn to Have a Warm Time.

BUENOS AYRES, Jan. 8.—A revolution has broken out in Chili. No particulars have as yet come to hand, probably because none can be got through the government censors.

Speaking of troublesome times in Chili, Mr. Joffrey, of the firm of Flint & Co., said: "Yes, we have had several letters and also later dispatches which give the difficulty pretty fully. The whole trouble is between the president, Mr. Balmaceda and the congress. The people through the congress want some laws made which will be concessions to the lower classes. The president refuses to call the congress together and does not desire the laws made. I suppose the overbearing and tyrannical action of the president has exasperated the public and led to the rumors of an outbreak which you have heard. The exchange is down to 22 pence which is the lowest it has been for years."

IN CONGRESS.

Proceedings in the National Legislature Today: Some Appropriations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—In the senate today Mr. Platt gave notice that he would at the earliest possible moment call up the copyright bill for consideration. Mr. Allison said that if the chairman of the committee on agriculture (who was necessarily absent) did not at an early day call up the Conger land bill he (Allison) would himself do so.

House bills were passed as follows: increasing by $300,000 the limit of cost of the public building at Charleston, S. C.; appropriating $75,000 for a public building at Akron, O. (with amendment); appropriating $400,000 for enlarging the proposed public building at Savannah, Ga.; appropriating $100,000 for a public building at Davenport, Ia.; also senate bill to provide for a patrol steamer for replacing of buoys in the St. Mary's river, Michigan. The finance bill was then taken up and Mr. Stewart asked unanimous consent that a vote be taken on the bill and amendments at 4 o'clock Saturday.

Mr. Gorman said he was surprised at the proposition, and argued in favor of it. He alluded to the fact that there had been not more than eight or ten hours' discussion of the bill. Mr. Sherman said the responsibility of the bill rested with those who had taken it out of the control of the finance committee. He expected to stand in opposition to free coinage.

After a long discussion, unanimous consent was given to a proposition by Mr. Ingalls to the effect that general debate should close and the final vote shall be taken Wednesday.

Mr. Comstock was before the house committee on public buildings and grounds yesterday trying to get a report upon his bill for a building at Fergus Falls. It is highly improbable that the committee will take any action of this kind.

Both Minnesota senators are against free coinage. Four members of the lower house of congress, Dunnell, Hall, Snyder and Comstock, will vote against free coinage. Lind will vote for free coinage.

Prisoners Escape.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 8.—Three prisoners escaped from the Ohio penitentiary this morning by scaling the wall with a ladder. They are M. Harding, sentenced for four years, shooting to kill, Cuyahoga county; Hurl Porter, three years, forgery, Belmont county; Henry Post, two years, assault, Summit county. Harding is a one-armed man. They have not been apprehended.

Offering Bismarck a Job.

BERLIN, Jan. 8.—The Frankfurter Zeitung declares that the grand duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Frederick Francis III, has tendered to Prince Bismarck the presidency of the ministry of grand duchy of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, an offer which, the paper says, was declined by the ex-chancellor. The Zeitung further asserts that on hearing of the matter the kaiser abandoned his proposed visit to Cannes.

The Favored Isles of Greece.

BERLIN, Jan. 8.—While recently addressing a number of Greek physicians, Dr. Koch said he was glad to know that intelligent and skillful Greeks were using his cure. The Grecian islands, he added, met his views of a proper location for a consumptive sanitarium.

Kinglake Cremated.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—According to the expressed wish of the late Alexander William Kinglake, the historian, who died on Jan. 2, his body was today cremated.

DISTRICT COURT.

The Proceedings of the Day; Several Indicted Plead.

In Judge Stearns' court today, the jury returned a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $500 in case 38. D. Holston was excused as foreman of the grand jury and J. P. Dodge appointed in his place. Horn, against whom an indictment was returned for receiving stolen goods, was arraigned and given one day to plead. Thomas Frazier pleaded guilty to burglary in the third degree and to grand larceny. A writ of attachment was issued for Reuben Moss for failing to appear to give a testimony before the grand jury and he is now in jail. Case 123, John J. Moran vs. Eastern Railway company is being tried.

In Judge Start's court room, case 44, Rollin R. Smith vs. Howe Lumber company, struck jury, is on trial. Case 121 was given to the jury early this forenoon.

A Distinct Difference.

City Attorney Allen expresses himself as not satisfied with the decision in the gas and water case. He claims that Manager Craig admitted on the witness stand that his household used less than 100 gallons of water a day and that at regular water rates it would only cost him $18 a year whereas now it costs him $40 per year.

LIVELY IN LINCOLN.

The Legislature, Under Alliance Control, is Warm.

INTO THE HALL BY A SIDE WINDOW.

Lieutenant Governor Gets There Over the Wall; Is it a Sample Scene?

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 8.—All the doors of the representative hall were closely guarded this morning, and none but members of the legislature, state officers and persons having business inside, were admitted. All members were on hand promptly, although they found great difficulty in pushing their way through the crowds that filled the corridors and besieged the capitol at all points.

The alliance members had taken possession at 5 o'clock in the morning. They placed the speaker in the chair. The lieutenant governor got in through the cloak room and was served with an order of ejection, but he defied the officer and was not taken into custody. Both sides had a force of sergeant-at-arms within call and any attempt on either side to proceed with the caucus would have precipitated a row. To avoid this a committee from each party was sent with a statement of the case to the supreme court, and at 10:30 a. m. the house is waiting in suspense for a decision as to which officer has the constitutional right to preside.

Sheriff McCloy served a writ on the speaker only after a pitched battle. He was guarded by a squad of police and Capt. Carder's clothes were torn off, but after smashing hats and heads with their clubs secured entrance and served the writ. Lieutenant Governor Meikeljohn declared the session adjourned and republicans and democrats fled out of the house. Elder then called the alliance members to order and directed the roll to be called.

When the democrats and republicans attempted to leave the floor the alliance sergeant-at-arms closed the door and attempted to keep them in. He got a punch in the eye and a bloody nose was the result and the doors were speedily opened and they escaped. Free fights occurred every few minutes. Nat Brown of Omaha had an altercation at the door of the house with an alliance man; result, alliance man drove to the hospital for repairs. Elder called the eighteen senators and fifty-five representatives of the alliance to order at joint session. Attorney General Leese advised them to submit to the orders of the court. Nevertheless Elder was declared presiding officer of the joint session and the alliance men started to begin work. Gov. Thayer tried to quiet the crowd but to no result. Militia have cleared the state house grounds, but the people crowd by them every time they can and a howling mob surrounds the capitol. It now begins to look as if Boyd will be assisted by force if the grangers do not proceed according to law.

The democrats and republican members later agreed to return to the afternoon session, and if Elder will publish the returns Meikeljohn will not insist on presiding at the joint session. Lieutenant Governor-elect Majors is waiting to get a chance at the gavel. Tonight will be a great red one in Lincoln.

Crowds are coming on every train to attend the inauguration of Governor-elect Boyd, and considerable impatience is shown over the delay in counting the votes.

When the militia was called out the crowd hooted and yelled at them in such a manner that the "tin soldiers" became frightened, and it was only when a squad of forty police arrived that any kind of order prevailed. The crowd outside the grounds kept up a sullen roar while the frightened militia men patrol the borders.

At 12 o'clock the alliance men began filing out for dinner. They were received with howls of derision, hisses and other uncomplimentary receptions.

Speaker Elder now announces that at 2 o'clock he will open and publish the result of the election, as Attorney General Leese has advised him to do. One hundred members of the Lamson association of Omaha are on hand and will see that he is inaugurated.

Mr. Meikeljohn went out in the corridor at 2 o'clock and the doorkeepers refused to readmit him. Governor Thayer has ordered the militia to escort Mr. Kellogg back if necessary. Boyd was sworn in as governor at noon by Chief Justice Maxwell of the supreme court.

Fifty sergeants-at-arms have been appointed and thousands of people besiege the doors. Mr. Boyd's inauguration today is very doubtful. Governor Thayer called out the militia to suppress the disturbance at the state house.

THE MAJOR GONE.

E. A. McNair Gives Major Quinn a Farewell Banquet.

This noon Major Quinn was given a banquet by E. A. McNair, a large number being present. Among them Judge Ensign, Judge Morris, Capt. Sharpe, Capt. Durage, Major Upham, Major Dean, Lieut. Fitch, W. W. Spalding, James Paine, A. C. Weiss, Major McCormick, A. B. Robert, Eugene McNair and James Goss.

The dinner came to an end with the presentation of a pair of opera glasses for Mrs. Quinn and a microscope to the major.

PRESERVE CONFEDERATE RELICS.

Confederate "White House" to be Turned Into a Museum.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 8.—It is stated that the old-fashioned brick structure here, known during the war as the confederate white house, is to be used in future for the preservation of confederate relics.

A movement was started more than a year ago by the Ladies Hollywood Memorial association to get the building for this purpose, but some legal objections were raised. This, however, was overcome by making it a museum as well as a place for the preservation of war relics. The city council recently passed an ordinance carrying into effect the purposes of the ladies, and last night Mayor Ellison approved that action.

NORTH DAKOTA LEGISLATURE.

Waving Hair Will Weld the Gavel in the House.

BISMARCK, N. D., Jan. 8.—In the organization of the senate Pinkham was elected president pro tem; Hoggewald, clerk; Valley, assistant clerk; McFadden, engrossing and enrolling clerk; Warner, assistant; McClintock, bill clerk; Tuttle, stenographer; Koscott, doorkeeper; Brandt, postmaster; Ryan, chaplain. In the house, Allen was elected speaker; Hamilton, chief clerk; Sanford, assistant; Kelly, engrossing and enrolling clerk; L. A. Vager, bill clerk; Gunder Olson, sergeant-at-arms; Miss Aggie Knapp, stenographer; Bratton, clerk of the judiciary committee, and Cline, chaplain.

AGAINST MACHINE METHODS.

Senator Elliston Sits Down Very Heavily on Ingalls.

ATCHISON, Kas., Jan. 8.—Henry Elliston, state senator from Atchison county, a life long republican, created a sensation in political circles yesterday by making the following statement: "Believing, as I do, that John J. Ingalls has in spite of a most powerful and corrupt machine been rejected by the people of Kansas, and that he can only succeed by wholesale corruption, such as would endanger republican institutions, destroy our party and disgrace the state, and being anxious to avert such outrage and calamity and to see the will of the people made effective, I shall in all honorable ways lift up my humble protest against his re-election to the United States senate."

ALUMINUM AND GLASS.

A Discovery That Will Greatly Reduce Cost of Kinds of Electricity.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 8.—Bradford McGregor, a mechanical expert of the city, has succeeded after numerous experiments in uniting aluminum with glass, and he claims to be the first to have done so. A large piece of aluminum with a glass tube in the center was turned in his lathe and it was impossible to detect the slightest flaw or joint where they came together.

Heretofore no metal could be made to unite with glass in which the contraction and expansion were the same and it is claimed this will create a revolution in the way of reducing the cost of incandescent light, as it will take the place of platinum, which costs $330 a pound, while the new discovery will not cost $10.

BURNING POCATELLO.

Bannock Indians Claimed to be Burning an Idaho Town.

POCATELLO, Idaho, Jan. 8.—Indians on the Fort Hall reserve have been dancing and 200 in war paint have taken to the mountains. Governor Wiles has been asked to order the militia here, and probably a company of United States cavalry at Boise barracks will be sent. The Indians on the reserve number 1200 or 1500, more than half of whom are Bannocks, who caused the prolonged war twelve years ago. The Indians are burning the town.

Portland—Meagre advices received here do not confirm the report that the Indians are burning Pocatella. Citizens of that place fear such an event might occur and are preparing themselves to meet it.

Poisoned a Family.

SAGINAW, Mich., Jan. 8.—A girl in the family of Samuel Ward inadvertently mixed a quantity of rough on rats with flour with which she was rolling fish in order for supper. The accident resulted in making Mr. Ward his wife and two children deathly sick. None of them are dead yet, but their condition is very precarious.

Another Fool Museum.

DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 8.—Arthur W. Millmeu today signed papers with a local museum to fast for thirty days. If he is successful he is to receive $1000; if he prolongs the fast sixteen days he gets $1500. He will begin Jan. 12.

A Muskrat, Possibly.

BAY CITY, Mich., Jan. 8.—Today the police were notified that there was a lot of blood on the dock and ice at the foot of Eighth street. It was found that there were drops of blood for about thirty feet on the dock and then on the ice as far as a large hole.

Leland Stanford.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 8.—At a caucus held last night of republican members of both branches of the legislature Leland Stanford was unanimously renominated for United States senator. The democrats decided to give their complimentary vote to Stephen M. White.

A Texan Cyclone.

SHERMAN, Texas, Jan. 8.—A cyclone passed east of this town yesterday afternoon, several houses were blown down. An infant was killed and four adults seriously injured.

OF MATTERS POLITICAL.

Candidates Coming Out in Several of the Wards.

ALLIANCE CENTRAL MEETING.

Men Mentioned in Some Districts for Place on the Board.

In looks as though the aldermanic campaign in the Fourth ward has narrowed down to A. C. Weiss and Joseph Mannheim. Other candidates, among them, Neil McLachlan, Robert Loudon and E. L. Fisher, have been spoken of and Mr. McLachlan, at least, has until lately intended to run. Both Weiss and Mannheim have many friends. Among business men Weiss is well and favorably known, and he will also make a strong canvass among the rank and file of Fourth ward voters. Mannheim stands well with the alliance, and from this party will draw the majority of his votes. But several alliance leaders are outspoken in favor of Weiss.

The Fourth ward democrats will hold a meeting at Jacques & Hudson's office Saturday night to talk over their plans for the municipal campaign.

At the alliance meeting last evening Professor Parsons presided and J. H. Baker was secretary. The following were chosen delegates to the central alliance meeting: A. C. Parsons, J. A. Mannheim, J. H. Baker, Anton Ringsted and A. G. Olson. No nomination for alderman was made. This evening a central committee will be appointed, whose duty it will be to issue a call for a convention. After that caucuses will be held.

The matter of city sanitation was pretty freely discussed last evening. Professor Parsons saying that an employee of the Duluth Gas and Water company told him that the intake pipe of that company brings in cinders from its own smokestack and dead fishes besides. He also asserted that the sewer pipe is much nearer the intake pipe than most people think. Alderman Mannheim said that the intake pipe does not extend over 200 feet into the water.

In the First ward the only candidate yet heard from is James Dingwall, who hopes to succeed himself.

In the Third ward Capt. Morris is frequently spoken of as good timber for aldermanic honors.

In the Second ward John H. La Vague and R. N. Marble are talked of as candidates for aldermen. Charles A. Long is also a candidate for re-election.

NOBODY AHEAD.

The Result of the Allen Water Suit Pleases Neither.

The test case of City Attorney Allen vs the Duluth Gas and Water company was decided yesterday. Judgment for 35 cents and costs is given in favor of the plaintiff. As to whether Mr. Allen had paid his assessment voluntarily or not and whether he was entitled to recover at all, was decided in his favor, but his rating which he desired to have reduced from $40 to $12 per year is placed at $36.18. The company claimed $5 per year for water for a hot water heater, but the jury in the case fixed the charge at 29½ cents per quarter.

In his memorandum the judge says: I am of the opinion that the true interpretation thereof is that the defendant has a right to charge for a residence of five rooms or less occupied by one family for the use of water for all ordinary domestic purposes, $3; and for a residence of more than five rooms, $9 for the first five rooms and $1 additional for each additional room. In the term "water for all ordinary domestic purposes" I include water for kitchen, water for laundry and such water as, in the absence of water works, is generally carried by hand to and about the house. And that in such residence, in addition to the above charge, defendant is entitled to charge for water closets, tubs, sinks, urinals and other enumerated items, according to the schedule in said ordinance; and for any other use of water, such as in heating apparatus or in elevators or of that kind, reasonable special rates.

Commissioners' Proceedings.

The county commissioners adjourned late yesterday afternoon. Chairman Merritt announced the committees as follows: Highways and bridges—Merritt, Bonham, Butchart, Jefferson and Poirier; poor and poor farm—Butchart, Poirier and Jefferson; court house and jail—Jefferson, Butchart and Poirier; claims and accounts—Poirier, Bonham and Butchart; assessment and taxes—Bonham, Butchart and Poirier; supplies and purchasing—Jefferson, Poirier and Bonham. The county printing was awarded the Tribune at seventy-five cents per folio; the financial statement for thirty cents a line for double and fifteen cents for single lines; twelve cents per description for the delinquent tax list; notice of the delinquent tax list twenty cents per line, double column.

THE BIG CHAPIN.

The Second Mine in Lake Superior Ranges Sold to Carnegie.

The big Chapin iron mine at Iron Mountain, Mich., has changed hands. The new owners are Andrew Carnegie of Pittsburgh, M. A. Hanna & Co. of Cleveland, and J. A. Vanduyke of Milwaukee. The Chapin was sold last winter to the Schlesinger syndicate for $2,000,000, and produced 750,000 tons of ore in 1890. The terms of the recent sale are private, but the figure is supposed to exceed $3,000,000.

GERARD TONNING.

WAR OF WORDS.

Railroad Presidents in Animated Session; Plain Talk to Jay.

New York, Jan. 8.—The presidents of the western roads are again in session today, and the rotunda and corridors of the Windsor, in an upper room of which the magnates are closeted, are thronged with railroad brokers and Wall street men. No representatives are present from the Chicago & Alton, the Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City or the Kansas City, Fort Scott & Memphis.

The situation is complicated by the difficulties pending between the Milwaukee and Rock Island and the Union Pacific at Omaha, and it was promised last night that Jay Gould would hear some of the plainest talking that has ever been indulged in. It is certain to be a decidedly lively meeting.

Some people agree with THE SUN's opinions about men and things, and some people don't; but everybody likes to get hold of the newspaper which is never dull and never afraid to speak its mind.

Democrats know that for twenty years THE SUN has fought in the front line for Democratic principles, never wavering or weakening in its loyalty to the true interests of the party it serves with fearless intelligence and disinterested vigor. At times opinions have differed as to the best means of accomplishing the common purpose; it is not THE SUN's fault if it has seen further into the millstone.

IMPORTANT IRON NEWS.

Valuable Discoveries on the Northern Ranges.

ROADS IN MINERAL DISTRICTS.

The Port Arthur Will Reach Duluth Itself if Not Over the Iron Range.

F. S. Wiley, of Port Arthur, was in Duluth yesterday and gave The Herald some pointers on the country in the vicinity of Port Arthur and also regarding the new railroads projected and being built in that vicinity. The Port Arthur, Duluth & Western road has been built as far as Sand lake and grading is now progressing to the boundary line and will be completed this winter.

"It is the intention of the company to build ten miles of the road into Minnesota. At that point they have been assured time and again by the officials of the Duluth & Iron Range road that they would meet them with a road from Ely. If the Iron Range road refuses to build, the Port Arthur road will be pushed right through the richest iron country on to Duluth, and will become a competitor of the Iron Range road in the iron fields."

"From Sand lake the Ontario & Rainy Lake road will be pushed right through one of the richest mining countries in the world. It will top the celebrated gold township in the Huronian formation, and will lay open all the treasure of the Atikokan range. The Ontario government has set off a bonus of $3000 a mile for the construction of this road, and the work will commence upon it in the spring. The engineers are also locating a line beginning at Savanne, a point on the Canadian Pacific road, ninety miles west of Port Arthur, and running through to the line of the Port Arthur, Duluth & Western. The engineers returned to Port Arthur a few days ago for supplies, and report an excellent route on this new line as far as they had gone. The Dominion government bonuses this road to the extent of $350 per mile. This new branch will tap a very rich mineral country."

"The American syndicate, in which Messrs. Van Hise, Pumpelly, Smythe and Merriam are interested, and who lately purchased a tract of 15,000 acres of iron lands twenty-five miles west of Port Arthur, as has been noted in The Herald, held a meeting last week and decided to commence developing the property at once. The whole tract is adjacent to the Canadian Pacific road, and shipments can be made just as soon as the ore can be gotten out."

Mr. Wiley said that nearly all of the richest mineral lands had been gobbled up by speculators in the Port Arthur district, and the Ontario legislature had come to the conclusion that something must be done. They are at present contemplating a bill something after the fashion of our state mineral land's lease bill by virtue of which a royalty is charged and the party renting is obliged to do so much development each year. Port Arthur has been aroused to the fact that she must bestir herself to become a great iron center, and has voted a bonus of $15,000 for the building of ore docks, $20,000 for the building of a blast furnace and a free site for the building of a silver smelter. A new city election has just been held in which a mayor and council were elected willing to give any reasonable bonus to legitimate manufacturing and other enterprises.

Another Mine to be Opened.
The Union Iron company, in which the large vessel builder Quayle, the Cleveland Wilsons, and Mr. Megins, of Duluth, are interested, at their late meeting in Cleveland decided to put crews to work at once in developing their property in section 30-31-11 known as the McDonald claim. It is very rich in iron and one of the leading mines on the range will, it is expected, be developed.

Will Develop a Mesabi Mine.
M. A. Bradley, of Cleveland and Capt. Ward, of Iron Mountain, Mich., have been in the city several days looking after good iron properties for themselves and other Cleveland parties. They made a trip to the Mesabi a few days ago and were busy yesterday negotiating with John McKinley and Horace Williston for lands adjoining the Stone mine on the west in section 18-50-14. They will either purchase or lease this property and in either event will develop it at once.

Excellent Ore on the West Range.
N. B. Merritt and son, who own the iron land known as the Pauley property consisting of the ne. 1/4, sec. 4-58-18, have discovered an excellent quality of ore on their property. They have sunk a shaft about fourteen feet and four feet of it is now in clean ore of the granular kind and of a very rich quality which will yield as high as 62 per cent of metallic iron. A force of men will be kept at work developing the property all winter. This shaft will be sunk many more feet and other test pits will be sunk to discover the extent of the ore body.

A Movement Expected.
Iron men are very sanguine of a movement in iron properties this spring which has been unequalled heretofore in the history of either the Mesabi or Vermilion ranges. A large number of rich Cleveland men and Pennsylvania men are becoming interested in the Mesabi range, and there is more inquiry for iron properties than there has been for several years. There have also been more developments made in Mesabi property owing to the public attention which has been lately called to its richness than there has ever been before.

FOUR MYSTERIOUS MURDERS.

North Carolina Plantation the Scene of Terrible Crimes.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Jan. 8.—Four mysterious murders have occurred in Granville county since Saturday night. Dick Page, a colored laborer, was the first victim. His body was found on Saturday night in an old field on Col. Roger's plantation with the breech pin of a gun buried in his skull. On the same night W. T. Parker and Brock Bailey were seen drinking together and shortly afterwards the dead bodies of both were found lying near where Page's body was found.

Monday the coroner was called to the same plantation to view the body of a colored woman who, it was said, was beaten to death. It is thought the murders were all committed by the same person.

Found Murdered.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Jan. 8.—A young man named D. E. Bowman was found murdered last night in a vacant lot near the tracks of the International road. The murder was committed with a pistol and by blows of a coupling pin. Bowman's cries for help were heard by people living near, but when they reached the scene the murderer had fled and Bowman was dead. There is no clue.

An Effective Settlement.

LEADVILLE, Col., Jan. 8.—John Morris and Frank Chatham, two well-known ranchmen of Carbondale, met in this city yesterday and renewed an old quarrel. Both drew revolvers and several shots were exchanged. Both men are fatally wounded.

Oil and Lead Trust Meeting.

BUFFALO, Jan. 8.—The National Linseed Oil association and White Lead trust will hold a secret meeting at the Hotel Iroquois. The object of the meeting is to control competition. Among those here to attend the meeting are Alex. Fuston, of St. Louis; A. C. Abbott, of Chicago, president and secretary of the oil men; R. E. Colgate, George A. Thayer, J. A. Dean and W. P. Thompson, president of the lead trust.

Kentucky Thoroughbreds Sick.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Jan. 8.—Over 100 thoroughbreds are sick at the association course here, being afflicted with colds, distemper and pneumonia. Six belonging to Ed Corrigan are sick, and one, Siberia, 3-year-old bay colt, by Tenbrook dam Ventura, is about to die, while Mike Dwyer, the 2-year-old broiler to Semper Fidelia, is seriously ill.

Sentence Commuted.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Jan. 8.—The board of pardons last night recommended that the death sentence of Sidney Ware, of this county, be commuted to imprisonment for life.

A RELIABLE FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

That is the Character Almost Universally Given to

THE WEEKLY INTER OCEAN.

So great is its popularity that for years it has had the LARGEST CIRCULATION of any Chicago weekly newspaper. It is able and carefully edited in every department with a special view to its usefulness in THE HOME, THE OFFICE, and THE BUSINESS OFFICE.

It is a Consistent Republican Newspaper.

But discusses all public questions candidly and ably. While it gives fair treatment to political opponents, it is utterly opposed to TRUSTS AND MONOPOLIES as antagonistic to both public and private interests.

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT of the paper is excellent, and has among its contributors some of the MOST POPULAR AUTHORS of the day. THE FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC CORRESPONDENCE, SERIAL AND SHORT STORIES are the equal of those of any similar publication in the country.

The Youth's Department, * Curiosity Shop, * Woman's Kingdom, * and * The Home ARE IN THEMSELVES EQUAL TO A MAGAZINE.

In addition to all this the NEWS OF THE WORLD is given in its columns every week. In all departments it is carefully edited by competent men employed for that purpose.

THE PRICE OF THE WEEKLY INTER OCEAN IS $1.00 PER YEAR.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY INTER OCEAN is published each Monday and Thursday morning, and is an excellent publication for those who can not secure a daily paper regularly and are not satisfied with a weekly.

AN "IDIOTIC PRACTICE."

Some lively and rasping comments on a custom of this country are made in the latest circular of Henry Clews and company, which is well worth reproduction in the public press. With the rapid increase of population in this country there are unmistakable signs to the eye of Henry Clews that "a large number of this great mass of people are idiots. An evidence of this is the hoarding of money during the last few months. No sane man or woman certainly can take a retrospective view of the country and be guilty of the narrowmindedness and meanness which hoarding implies."

To attest this judgment, Mr. Clews crisply summarizes the extraordinary reduction of our national debt from $2,800,000,000 at the close of the war, at the rate of $100,000,000 annually to its present amount of $700,000,000, and points out what a demonstration this is of the surpassing credit of the government and the vast resources of the nation. The United States has found it an easy task to pay off $2,000,000,000 of its obligations in less than one generation, and still to have left stored up in this country more gold than all of Europe put together. Yet in the face of this amazing showing, the hoarding of gold has largely come, as he says, from holders of 4½ per cent bonds, which mature next September. "Under the secretary's liberal offer to redeem the same, both principal and interest, they have obtained payment therefor and locked it up simply because the government has issued money backed by a corresponding amount of silver, and they profess to be scared about the government credit in connection therewith and make that a pretext for hoarding."

Another class of hoarders he sees in the army of pensioners. The aggregate of money paid out to them is $120,000,000 annually, and as this money is received there are unmistakable signs that it is hidden away under the roofs of the recipients until required for actual use. Savings banks do not tempt deposits of this store, as they pay interest only on funds remaining in deposit for from six to twelve months, and he suggests that if a scaled rate of interest was allowed for deposits of thirty days and onward, much of this hoarding might be prevented. How vast an amount is held out of use in the aggregate may be comprehended by a simple assumption that everybody in the country is hoarding $2. This alone would amount to over $130,000,000, and if some have no stockings in which to drop a dollar, there are vastly many more who have stockings full of dollars today.

PROTECTING YELLOWSTONE PARK.

The scenic effects of the Yellowstone park are mainly dependent upon the water supply. The geysers, springs and cascades will lose their interest as natural phenomena if the forests of the park and of the adjacent territory are not protected. This picturesque district is a coniferous forest possessing unrivalled advantages as a system of natural reservoirs for the storage of water. Let the forest be destroyed and the wonders of the Yellowstone would become commonplace scenery, and the adjacent arid regions would be deprived of facilities for irrigation, which are essential to successful agriculture.

The necessity for rectifying the boundaries of the national park and of enlarging it by reserving portions of the outlying forest has been recognized by three successive secretaries of the interior. In response to their recommendations a bill for including in a park a large forest area to the west and south has been before congress for eight years, and has passed the senate eight times only to be strangled in the house. The explanation of this singular neglect is the existence of a small but very active lobby in the interest of a mining railway company, which demands the exclusive privilege of crossing a portion of the territory in order to reach a mining camp named Cooke. With a rider sanctioning this demand the bill could easily be passed, but until this concession be made there will be active opposition. A railway outside fails to satisfy the company, because competition would arise. It wants an exclusive franchise covering the edge of the national reserve.

An admirable compilation of the general statutes of Minnesota has just been made by Judge John F. Kelly, of the St. Paul bar. The first volume presents the police and fiscal powers, and may properly be designated the political code or division. Then follow the civil or remedial laws, the probate and penal codes and the code of criminal proceedings in the order named. The secretary of state certifies that the laws as printed in this compilation have been compared and verified with the originals and found correct, and the state librarian, upon personal and careful examination, confirms the certificate of the secretary of state with the hearty endorsement that the compilation is, in his judgment, the most satisfactory, the best arranged and the most accurate work of the kind that the state has ever had. It is a work for which there is an urgent call, and the state may count itself fortunate that this call has been so adequately met.

BRAVE LOVE.

He'd nothing but his violin;
I'd nothing but my song—
But we were well when skies were blue
And summer days were long;
And when we rested by the hedge
The robins came and told
How they had dared to woo and win
When early spring was cold.
We sometimes supped on dewberries,
Or slept among the hay—
But oft the farmer's wife at eve
Came out to hear us play.
The rare old tunes—the dear old tunes—
We could not stave for long
While my man had his violin
And I my sweet love song.

The world has gone well with us;
Old man, since we were one—
Our homeless wanderings down the lanes—
It long ago was done.
But those who wait for gold or gear—
For houses and for kine,
Till youth's swart spring grows brown and aere
And love and beauty fine,
Will never know the joys of hearts
That met without a fear
When you had but your violin
And I a song, my dear.

DULUTH, Jan. 8.—Local forecast until 8 a. m. tomorrow: Colder; fair weather.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Forecast till 8 a. m. tomorrow: For Minnesota: Light snow; colder in western, stormy; temperature in eastern portion; winds shifting to northerly.

A Storm Brewing.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—A storm of considerable energy has developed in the southwest attended by heavy rains in the West Gulf states and by heavy snows in Kansas, Colorado and western Missouri. It is 10° to 20° colder in Montana, slightly colder in Missouri and eastern Kansas, but warmer in Colorado. The storm that is central in the southwest will probably extend over the central valleys and lake region during Thursday night or Friday, attended by snow or rain.

Castles in the Air.

Tomorrow evening the De Wolf Hopper Opera company begins an engagement of three performances at Temple Opera, including a Saturday matinee. Charles Alfred Byrne, Esq., who wrote the libretto for the play, based the incidents upon personal observation while on a visit to the Island of Martinique, and tells an interesting story, blended with genuine humor, of the life of the natives. De Wolf Hopper's role of Filandrea, the judge, is said to be the funniest of his many impersonations. The company has eighty names on its books, chief among the principals being Anna O'Keefe, Della Fox, Elvia Crox, Florence Wiley, Thomas G. Seabrooke, Alfred Klein, Edmund Stanley, Lindsey Morrison.

The Inspection District.

Inspector Sloan has prepared his annual report of the inspection of steam vessels and boilers for this district. Number of steamships inspected, 227; gross tonnage, 25,496; number of vessels built in 1890 19, whose gross tonnage was 1860. Eleven were put out of the service, of which the gross tonnage was 570. Local offices issued 1261 licenses, which is 191 less than the number in 1890. This is due to the fact that the examination of applicants is becoming more strict. Boilers inspected, 200 steel, 123 iron, 7 defective steel, 6 defective iron. Passengers carried, 649,790. Losses, by fire, $35,650; by collision, $1860.50; by snags, $575; by wrecks, $106.45. The expenses of the office were $7864.

The adulteration and cheapening of articles of food in this country are becoming alarming, and we therefore point with pride to the record of Walter Baker & Co.'s preparations, which have for over 100 years maintained their integrity of manufacture and absolute purity of product. It is a distinctive characteristic of W. Baker & Co.'s Breakfast Cocoa that no chemicals are used in its preparation, it being produced from the finest cocoa seeds by scientific mechanical processes only, and for this reason it is unequalled in purity, as well as solubility by any other cocoa in the market. It is healthful, nourishing, agreeable and economical, and the best drink in the world for young and old, rich and poor, the invalid and the robust.

GOSSIP ABOUT EMMA ABBOTT.

Emma Abbott was a Chicago girl. On a certain eventful day in her existence she first saw the light in West Kinzie street, not far from the river. This was thirty years ago, for Miss Abbott, at the time of her unlooked-for demise was nearly one year past the fair and forty period. Her early life was not burdened with a single luxury. But if she was born poor, she was also born with an enthusiasm that nothing could abate and an ambition that would never brook an obstacle. This diminutive and honest girl, who by her voice helped to swell the family income, was the opera prima donna in embryo; only waiting for more favorable circumstances to be symmetrically and artistically incubated.

To Eugene Wetherell's business tact and foresight Emma Abbott, his wife, owes the largest part of her material prosperity. True, she has made money by her art ever since she began her operatic career, excepting the first year or two. But she was well advertised and well managed by her husband. Again, Eugene Wetherell was one of the most fortunate of men, and every dollar he invested doubled and quadrupled. He bought property in Denver, Kansas City, St. Louis and Minneapolis, improved it, and it has so increased in value that at the time of her husband's death Miss Abbott was the richest woman on the American stage. During a chat with her when last in Chicago Miss Abbott was unfolding to a Post reporter some of her plans for next year. "I'll tell you what the public would like to know as much as anything else," he said to the singer. "What is that?" she replied. "The exact amount of your riches from your own lips." "Oh, that is something I never tell anybody, but I am very rich," was the response given in her usual jolly manner. It is safe to say that in solid possessions she was worth fully $3,000,000. Reliable authority fixes her net worth at that sum.

No prima donna took better care of herself than Miss Abbott or resorted to more ingenious and unreasonable methods to protect her voice. If she had been less particular she might have been alive now, for she enjoyed robust health and was strong and hearty. Her ears amounted to a mania. She would virtually seal herself in her room before and after every performance and as far as possible keep the house. The doors were hung inside with quilt or blanket, so that not a bit of air could come into the room, a grate fire was always burning, unless the weather was actually hot, but the coldest and bluest air was conscientiously prevented from entering at the windows. Under such conditions she became more delicate and susceptible to cold than if she had used more reason.

In 1878 Miss Abbott began her career in this country as a professional. She first sang in concert. Her beginning was not so auspicious as she and her husband desired, and finding that there was little money in concert singing she gave up the concert hall after a season or two for the operatic stage. Here she met with more success after a while, for she had the prudence to select good artists to support her, such well known singers as William Castle, Ed Seguin, Zella Seguin, Gus Hall and Harry Peakes. They aided her in making the march to triumph as short as possible. These people were with her so long as she needed propping. But with money and fame, Miss Abbott soon learned that her own name was the best title-man. Then she became independent and organized her companies accordingly.

In the last year she has been much interested in the building of a fine tomb at Gloucester, Mass., in which were to be placed the remains of her husband and all. It is an elaborate affair, and when finished will cost over $85,000. She showed these plans to the Saunterer and remarked, when spreading them out on the table: "There is a place there for me also, for when I die I shall be laid to rest by his side," and then she added in a laughing way: "I'm not going to leave this world for a while yet." Miss Abbott was devoted to the memory of her husband, and ever since his departure she has been subject to attacks of melancholy and hysteria, which left her in a very depressed condition. There were times when she was hardly able to undertake the evening's performance, she was especially susceptible to adverse criticism, and if it was harsh she would give way to her emotions like a child. She felt that she did her level best in her art, and that because she tried so hard she should be treated with kind consideration, and if criticised, such criticism should be gentle. And she was right too. It almost broke her heart to be treated with contumely or injustice.

WEST DULUTH.

The Masons are making preparations for a ball and banquet to be given soon. The general committee on arrangements have appointed a number of subordinate committees, the principal ones of which are committee on finance Robert Cronin, George H. Wright and J. O. Hancock. The committee on reception consists of all the married Masons and their wives. On invitations, G. J. Mallory, H. P. Smith and J. M. Home.

Richardson & Gilmore, recent arrivals from Vermont, have opened a blacksmith shop on First avenue west.

J. E. Morrison and John Gilchrist returned this morning from St. Cloud, where they made filings in homesteads in Innes county.

Miss Lottie Wheeler is confined to the house with quinsy.

Jon Varley is on the sick list, threatened with typhoid fever.

Born to Mrs. and John Turek yesterday a boy.

Mrs. W. K. Ogden is confined to her bed with pneumonia.

At the Marinette plant work is being delayed by the non-arrival of machinery that was contracted to be delivered in December. A small force of men are at work, the steam fixtures are all in place and the buildings are heated throughout with steam.

Mrs. J. W. Phillips is on the sick list. F. C. Stamm's dancing school opened last night with about twenty-five couples in attendance. Mr. Stamm will have two classes, the advanced class meeting every Wednesday evening and the beginners' class on Friday evenings. The classes will give a social every week.

Mrs. Fred McDonald returned yesterday from a two weeks' visit with relatives at Aitkin.

There are several cases of scarlet fever in town and the board of health is taking active steps to prevent the spread of the disease.

C. W. Hoyt is fitting up the second story of his brick block with stage and settings, and will open the hall about Jan. 25 with flowers orchestra. This is something the town has needed and Mr. Hoyt will no doubt be a gainer thereby as there has been no place in town heretofore for holding entertainments.

H. P. Smith was elected trustee of the Presbyterian church at the meeting last evening.

W. C. Sherwood will build a two story brick business block on the corner of Central avenue and Second street, north. Work will be commenced at once.

A meeting of the chamber of commerce is called for Saturday evening to elect officers for the ensuing year. All members are requested to be in attendance.

WEST END.

W. F. Schnukle of the broom factory, will be married Sunday to Miss Mattie Acker of Hermantown, at that place.

J. Kocelen was arrested yesterday for leaving his horse unhitched. Sentence was suspended, it being his first offence.

The Point of Rocks Lyceum is no more having adjourned since die at its last regular meeting.

Frank Johnson died yesterday from injuries received at elevator B on Monday.

Miss Florence Van Buskirk is ill with typhoid fever.

A. Giesch has sold his meat market to Fred Borengesser and Charles Ganberg.

AYERS ANNUAL.

The Newspaper Directory for 1890, a Valuable Publication.

N. W. Ayer & Son's American Newspaper Annual for 1890, contains a carefully prepared list of all papers in America. Under this head is given the name of the paper, the issue, general characteristics, year of establishment, size, subscription price and circulation.

It contains a list of all newspapers in setting advertisements, arranged in states by counties, with the distinctive features and circulation of each; also complete lists of all the religious, agricultural or other class papers. I gives a description of every place where a newspaper is published, compares location, distance from some prominent point, communication and other facilities, advantage of location, nature of the surrounding district, and its productions, agricultural, or otherwise, leading manufactures, educational, and other public institutions. Also a carefully prepared description of every county in the United States and Canada, setting forth its location, area, adjoining navigable streams, the character of its surface, the nature of its soil, whether an agricultural, manufacturing, or mining county, and if agricultural its leading crops, its county seat and population. A much more elaborate descriptive heading, is appended to each state, territory, and Canadian province.

It contains many of the most valuable features of a political almanac, and has census returns up to date. It is, in all, a most valuable book for the advertiser and business man generally.

THAT BOOKMAKING CASE.

New Jersey Jockey Club Guilty; To be Appealed.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Jan. 8.—The jury in the trial against the New Jersey Jockey club for permitting bookmaking on its grounds yesterday returned a verdict of guilty. The case will be appealed.

The state moved the trial of the second indictment against the club, and a jury was promptly procured, and the prosecution began the taking of testimony. Matthew Corbett, a bookmaker, appeared and pleaded guilty to two indictments against him. He was fined $1000 and costs, which he promptly paid.

A Human Sacrifice.

WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 8.—The editor of the Bulletin tells of finding a skeleton of an Indian boy 8 years of age, who last June went with his father, Blue Horn, on a hunting expedition to Beaver Hills, near Fort Saskatchewan. The skeleton was in a standing position, with arms stretched out and wrists tied to two trees. It is supposed he had been offered up as a sacrifice to secure good luck in hunting by some Indians in the locality.

Rev. Campbell's new Trial.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Jan. 8.—The Rev. James Campbell, who was found guilty of criminal malpractice and sentenced to three years in prison, was yesterday granted a new trial on the ground of newly-discovered evidence.

WEST SUPERIOR.

The city is made defendant in a suit for damages brought by S. A. Kean & Co. and W. J. Hayes & Sons. The plaintiffs sue to recover $30,000 damages. Mayor Pattison arrived in Chicago this morning to be present at the hearing of the case. The city has not yet secured a disclaimer from Kean for the $14,000 worth of bonds sold upon the evening of the failure.

Manager Wemyss has been elected vice president and William B. Fanning general manager of the Land and River Improvement company. Mr. Fanning has already assumed the duties of his position.

The committee on the revision of the charter will meet Saturday afternoon. At that time they desire to meet the representatives of the chambers of commerce of the east and west cities in the charter, as revised, will be presented to the legislature this winter.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of Commerce has been called for Jan. 13. There will be a thorough canvass of the situation and the matter of resumption.

Little & Hopkins, of the Columbia restaurant, have assigned to J. P. Polin as a principal creditor. The affairs of the firm are in bad shape.

Superior expects a Union station soon, but does not yet know where it will be located.

Superior's Big Bonus.

President Smith, in his prospectus of the Wisconsin, Bee Line & Superior railway, says the line will be 300 miles between Milwaukee and Superior, costing $8000 per mile. Bonuses to the amount of $100,000 will be given by various cities. Superior heading the list with $200,000, Merrill next with $75,000.

DEVOTEES OF JACKSON.

Honor to Old Hickory in the City of Brotherly Love.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 8.—Today is "Old Hickory's day," the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans. It is seventy-seven years this noon since Andrew Jackson put to flight the British forces at New Orleans and leaving Gen. Pakenham, their commander, dead upon the field. In recognition of the event, the democracy of the principal cities in the country will meet around the banqueting table and drink to the departed memory of Andrew Jackson.

In this city the celebration, which is under the auspices of the Young Men's Democratic association, is impressed with more than usual interest from the fact that the last democratic president of the United States is here to do honor to the memory of the fifth of those of his own political faith, to occupy the executive chair.

The association is keeping open house and 600 people will sit down to the banquet tonight. Mrs. Cleveland will listen to the speeches in the gallery, while the ex-president and Governor-elect Pattison will sit on the right and left of the chair. Among the guests will also be Gen. John B. Gordon, United States senator-elect from Georgia; ex-Congressman John E. Russell, of Massachusetts; ex-Postmaster General Don M. Dickinson, of Michigan; Henry Watterson, of Kentucky; ex-Secretary of State Thomas F. Bayard, ex-Secretary of the Treasury Charles S. Fairchild, Col. Daniel S. Lamont, Governor Leon Abbott, of New Jersey; Congressman W. C. P. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, and others.

PRIVATELY MARRIED.

Wealth and Beauty Represented in a Quiet Wedding.

New York, Jan. 8.—Archbishop Corrigan officiated today at the wedding of Miss Josephine Quan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Quan, of Chicago, and Thomas O'Donoghue, a millionaire and prominent catholic of this city. The ceremony was performed this morning during a nuptial high mass in the private chapel of Mr. O'Donoghue, only members of the family of the bride and groom being present.

The bride was costumed in a robe of heavy white satin made with full train, which fell from the shoulders in long unbroken folds. The seams were exquisitely embroidered with pearls, and over the high puffed sleeves were pearl epaulettes.

A Natural Sanitarium.

The myriad-minded Shakespeare says: "Throw physic to the dogs." A great many people have an idea that Mother Nature has provided remedies for all the ills that flesh is heir to, and that they can be found without the intervention of medical colleges or drug compounders. In support of this they point to thousands of people who have regained health at the various medicinal springs that send forth their healing waters in various parts of the United States. In the West, the most celebrated of these natural sanitariums is Hot Springs of Arkansas. In curative power it outranks all others of the world. The average number of visitors is over one hundred thousand a year, coming not only from all states of the Union, but Europe and South America. The best route to the Hot Springs from the Northwest is "The Burlington," which has its own track from St. Paul and Minneapolis to St. Louis, making close connections with trains for the Springs. It also runs every Saturday evening a through sleeping car from the Twin Cities to Hot Springs without change. Any agent of "The Burlington" or connecting lines can supply you with tickets, or you can write to W. J. C. Kenyon, Gen. Pass. Agent, C. B. & N. R. R., St. Paul, Minn.

FIGHT BETWEEN LIGHTWEIGHTS.

Coming Sporting Event at Duluth Looked for With Interest.

A sporting event of unusual interest is being quietly arranged among Duluth sports. It is a 12-round fight between George Franklin, a clever colored lightweight of Duluth and Jimmy Porter, a Twin City Athletic club protege. The scrap will probably be for $100 a side and will take place in Wisconsin.

Franklin is a very clever young boxer. He is a Chicago favorite, and papers say has knocked out some good men. He is said to be able to stand great punishment. Should Franklin knock Porter out, he will be put against Jimmy Van Heest, the champion St. Paul man.

Plucky Woman Pedestrian.

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., Jan. 8.—Miss Zoe Clayton, a California actress, arrived in this city Tuesday night en route to New York, having undertaken on a wager of $2000 to walk the entire distance from San Francisco to New York at a rate that will exceed fifteen miles a day. Thus far her progress has been twenty miles, and she reports that she not only feels no bad effects but is in better condition than when she began.

Against Pauper Labor.

DETROIT, Jan. 8.—The second day's session of the National Seamen convention is in progress. The most important subject to be considered today is the steps which should be taken to fight the companies who are importing pauper sailors to this country to take the places of union men. Four Cleveland companies are charged with this practice, and it is claimed that all their vessels are manned by scab sailors.

An Equivalent for Suicide.

If we allow our bodily infirmities to make way with us through neglect, have we such an immense moral advantage over the deliberate suicide? Scarcely. For example, the deadly progress of Bright's disease, diabetes, acute nephritis and gravel is sure—often terribly swift in the catastrophe. Most people of average information know that this is the simple, unvarnished truth in regard to those widely prevalent maladies. To delay judicious medication is specially suicidal in such cases. The means of restraint is to be found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Give an impetus to the action of the kidneys with this safe and reliable diuretic, and the infant complaint is shorn at its birth of the power for evil. Allow it to grow and anticipate the worst. The Bitters which annihilates these growing troubles also cures dyspepsia, rheumatism, malaria and liver complaints. Appetite, sleep and vigor are also promoted by it.

Market News of the Leading Grain Centers.

WHEAT PRICES HERE IN DULUTH.

Board of Trade and Stock Exchange News; Money in New York.

The wheat market opened easier today at yesterday's closing prices and ruled advancing up to noon. Considerable car lot wheat changed hands for milling purposes at a much better price than the corresponding grades in the elevators. Spot wheat was held firmly abroad and fluctuated considerably in American markets owing to a good deal of bullish news that was scarcely credited. In the afternoon session May wheat fell off ½¢. The dealing of the session was confined to May and cash wheat, with the principal activity in the latter, selling on sample for milling purposes.

Cash No. 1 hard wheat sold early at 90½¢, in store, and ruled firmly active closing at 90½¢ bid. Cash wheat in store, No. 1 northern, sold early at 87¢ and closed at 87½¢ bid. Cash in store, No. 2 northern, closed at 82½¢ bid. Cash No. 1 hard sold on track for milling purposes ruled firm, 1¢2½¢ in advance of the regular cash wheat. Good No. 1 northern wheat in car lots sold at 88½¢@90¢ with a good demand. Our lots No. 2 northern sold steadily 85¢. May wheat ruled fairly strong on an advancing market. May No. 1 hard sold first in a lot of 30,000 bu at 98½¢, and advanced selling in the forenoon as high as 99½¢ for a 10,000 bu lot. Before the close it fell off ½¢ closing at 99½¢ bid for No. 1 hard and 94½¢ bid for No. 1 northern. The closing prices today were as follows:

	Cash	Jan. 1	May
No. 1 hard	90½	91	99½
No. 1 northern	87½	87½	94½
No. 2 northern	82½

Cash on track: Wheat, 57; flax, 1; last year wheat, 15. Receipts: Wheat, 19,852 bu; shipments, 7890 bu. Inspection: Cars No. 1 hard, 5; No. 1 northern, 14; No. 2 northern, 5; no grade, 1; No. 1 white winter, 3; total, 28.

Canadian Grain Rates. A notice has been issued from the Canadian traffic department that there would be no increase in export rates on Manitoba wheat to the seaboard. Under existing circumstances the Canadian Pacific officials did not deem it advisable to raise the rates at the present time, as proposed by the Northern Pacific. The grain dealers feel very much relieved and are delighted at the outcome of the negotiations.

Chicago Live Stock. UNION STOCK YARDS, Ill., Jan. 8.—Cattle: Receipts, 13,000; firm. Hogs: Receipts, 42,000; weak; heavy, $3.00@3.30; mixed and medium, $3.60@3.75; light, $3.35@3.65. Sheep: Receipts, 9,000; unchanged.

Chicago Market. CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Following is the close: Wheat: January, 90½¢; May, 97½¢. Corn: May, 53½¢. Oats: May, 46½¢. Pork: January, $10.70; May, $11.30. Lard: January, $5.90; May, $6.40. Ribs: January, $5.20; May, $5.70.

New York Money and Stocks. New York, Jan. 8.—Money on call was easy this morning, loaning at 3@4 per cent. Exchange quiet; posted rates, 48½¢@49½¢; actual rates, 48½¢@49½¢ for sixty days, and 48½¢@49½¢ for demand. Government's steady; currency, 68, $1.09 bid; 4s, coupon, $1.20 bid; 4½s, do, $1.09½ bid.

The stock market was a little more active, 133,400 shares changing hands. Prices opened firm and ½¢@¾¢ per cent higher. Lake Shore was an exception, declining ½¢. The sugar trusts and Lackawanna were the features of the early trading. The former advanced 2 per cent to 61, and the latter 1½¢@136½. The best prices of the morning were current at noon.

Foreign Grain.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—The grain markets opened this morning firm for wheat and steady for corn. At Liverpool wheat was firmly held. Corn was quiet but steady at ½d advance. Wheat off coast firm. Wheat on passage very firm. California wheat nearly due 3d higher, and for shipment 6d higher.

At the weekly meeting of the directors of the Bank of England today the rate of discount was reduced to 4 per cent.

Early Market Gossip.

CHICAGO, Jan. 8.—Nearly all of the markets on change opened dull and a trifle easier. Wheat was the only exception. It started unchanged at 96½¢, sold to 97½¢ and off to 97½¢ in the first ten minutes and then steadied around 96½¢ to 97¢. May corn started at 52½¢ and sold to 52½¢. May oats started at 45½¢. May pork started at $11.32½ and sold to $11.37½@11.40. May lard opened at $6.40 and May ribs at $5.70 bid. Receipts of hogs were 6000 head more than the trade looked for. Receipts of corn exceeded the estimates by 79 cars; oats were 8 cars over, wheat 2 cars over.

AND THE WAR IS OVER.

What is to Become of the Versatile Omaha Bee Man.

MILES HAS THE TROUBLE SETTLED.

So Think Authorities at Washington, Though There is Some Fuss Out West Yet.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Officials of the war department believe there will be peace in a few days and that the Indian trouble is virtually over.

Correspondents are sending in to Secretary of War Proctor a large number of letters from private correspondents, making suggestions as to the conduct of the campaign. One correspondent proposed to exterminate the entire Sioux nation or a large part of it, by establishing an electric plant at Pine Ridge and stretching a wire around the hostile camp. Then, turning on the current, the Indians are to be driven down to the wire which is to be drawn closer and closer. Contact with the live wire or rather death wire would cause general death.

He is also constantly in receipt of requisitions from various sources, mostly from the governors of states adjacent to the scene of the trouble, asking for government stores with which to provide the local troops raised for defense. These requests have generally been complied with.

The End Not Yet.
RUSHVILLE, Jan. 9.—Notwithstanding the report that the government troops are preparing to force the Indian troubles to a crisis by making them either fight or surrender, there are other indications that the present condition of affairs may be prolonged all winter. The lines are being strengthened at the scene of hostilities, and both parties are improving their position by throwing up breastworks. The Indians are having no doubt of blankets and have not drawn clothing for a year, so they are in bad shape to endure a spell of severe winter weather.

Precautions in Oklahoma.
GUTHRIE, I. T., Jan. 9.—Much fear is felt over the menacing attitude of the Indians of this territory. At Kingfisher militia men and minute men have been perfected. The inland towns are at last on the alert, and will put themselves in readiness to aid border settlers. C. H. Leasing, secretary of the militia company at Kingfisher, was in the city yesterday to consult with United States Marshal Grimes, and in his report he stated that within ten days every town in Oklahoma would be under picket guard. The Indians are becoming very bold.

Arms for Idaho.
SALT LAKE, Utah, Jan. 9.—Acting Governor Sells yesterday secured from the commander at Fort Douglas 200 rifles and 5000 rounds of ammunition to be sent up the railroad for the protection of its employees at Pocatello.

Nevada Indians Dancing.
WELLS, Nev., Jan. 9.—About 200 Snake Indians have left this vicinity to attend the ghost dance in Star valley at the head of Humboldt river. The chiefs assert that there is no danger of an outbreak unless the government attempts to stop the dance and force the Indians to remain on the reservation.

Indians Coming In.
PINE RIDGE, S. D., Jan. 9.—At the suggestion of Buffalo Bill, Gen. Miles sent out scouts to ascertain who the Indians are that have been seen at the head of Snake river. Late last night it was reported that 300 Indians, said to be coming, are reported in camp three miles from the agency. The report has been verified.

Indian Runners by Rail.
PENDLETON, Ore., Jan. 9.—Two strange Indians arrived yesterday on a train from Montana. It is thought they are runners from disaffected tribes sent here to lead away the young hot-headed bucks on the Umatilla reservation.

The Pocostello Trouble.
BOISE CITY, Jan. 9.—As a result of a conference between Governor Willey and Maj. Noyes, commander of the Boise barracks, a cavalry company and an infantry company here are held in readiness to move on a moment's notice. Adj. Gen. Curtis, of the Idaho National guard has been sent to Pocostello station to confer with the citizens.

Extensive Wheat Stealing.
CLARK, S. D., Jan. 9.—A sensation was created yesterday by the discovery of extensive wheat stealing from the elevators. Frank Russell, Fred Bradley and Wilson Diehl, all prominent commission men, were arrested and more arrests are to follow.

Missouri Town Singed.
AURORA, Mo., Jan. 9.—News reached here last night that Mount Vernon, county seat of Lawrence county, suffered a serious loss by fire Wednesday night. About twenty houses and several stores were destroyed. The Chieftain and the Fountain and Journal printing offices and the Mount Vernon bank building were burned. Loss estimated at $50,000.

Press Club Election.
CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—The annual election of the Press club of Chicago was held yesterday afternoon and evening, a large vote being polled. William A. Taylor, assistant managing editor of the Chicago Herald, was unanimously elected president. The body of the successful ticket was composed of the best men from two tickets in the field.

A BOSTON HOTEL.

Fire Creates a Panic Among Crawford House Guests.

BOSTON, Jan. 9.—A fire broke out in the office of the Crawford house, on Sealeys square, at 3:15 o'clock this morning. Immediately the night watchman went through the house, rousing the guests. The cry of fire created the wildest alarm. Men leaped from bed and rushed down stairs in their night clothes. The women took more time for their toilets, but some of them reached the sidewalk with only a long wrap over the robe de nuit.

Some of the guests in the upper stories experienced great difficulty in reaching the street, finding the corridor in which they turned barred at the end by an iron grating. All, however, escaped unhurt, with the exception of one, Arthur Meik of Denver, who leaped from a second story window and was picked up in an unconscious condition, and with sprained ankles, and taken to the hospital.

The flames did not seriously invade any rooms above the first floor, and were soon extinguished, after which, most of the guests returned to their rooms. The damage to the building will reach several thousand dollars.

PUT IN DOG'S BONE.

Bone Grafting Tried on a Human Being. Apparently Successful.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 9.—Six weeks ago Sammie Radu fell at his home in Germany and broke his right leg below the knee. His leg was set and the family emigrated to Pittsburgh. On arrival here it was discovered that the broken bone had decayed from a space of six and a half inches. The boy's parents would not permit amputation, but consented to have bone grafting tried.

Yesterday the operation was performed. The broken bone was replaced by a bone of a dog, which was about 5 weeks' old and was procured from a veterinarian. The operation was successful, but set up and witnessed the whole operation. One of the dogs was used, the other reserved for a second resort. The dog was administered after which the lower end of a hind leg was amputated.

FOR VOLUNTEER OFFICERS.

Naval Attaches Petition Reasonable Pay for Service Rendered.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Congressman W. C. Wallace has presented an appeal on behalf of volunteer officers of the navy containing numerous signatures. The document claims that it is unjust, that while regular officers are allowed pay for service on receiving ships rendered prior to July 16, 1890, the volunteers should be debared.

The naval register of Jan. 1, 1890, shows that the total number of regular officers on the active list was 1441, including marines the total number of volunteer officers on the same register was 6283, while the latter did not cost the government a cent to educate them for the naval service. The petition asks that an appropriation be made to pay the claims of the officers who are on the receiving ships, in obedience to orders and not by their own request, and who were not permitted promotion with other branches of the service during the war.

It is said that if any motion to comply with the petition gets before the house it will meet with strenuous opposition from the regular naval officers.

County Seat Troubles.

TOPEKA, Kas., Jan. 9.—Adjutant General Roberts started this morning for Garfield county to prevent trouble. A dispatch received here announced that Ravenna and Eminence rival towns, are both claiming the county seat, and that an armed force has been organized at Ravenna to capture the county records now at Eminence. Two years ago there was a fight between the two towns over the same matter, several men were killed.

Prominent G. A. R. Official Dead.
RUTLAND, Vt., Jan. 9.—Commander-in-Chief Vessey, in an order issued last night, announces the death of Judge Charles Evans, past commander-in-chief. He served in the army and was a department officer as possible attend the funeral at Boston Saturday. The customary badge of mourning is to be worn.

Oil Trust Methods.
NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—Manufacturers of linseed meal are holding a meeting at the Windsor today for the purpose of considering the advisability of advancing prices. The movement is initiated by the National Linseed Oil company which recently made overtures to the independent crushers looking to a combination. The argument is that the price of oil is so low that no margin is left to the producer.

Powder Pool Fulf.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—The powder pool, which was organized about eighteen months ago by the principal powder companies for the purpose of keeping up prices, has collapsed and the price of powder has gone down three cents a pound.

Of Baseball Interest.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—A. W. Thurman, of the baseball conference committee, reached here last night. He comes to settle the claims of the different aspirants of the Athletic franchise. He met representatives of the Player's league last night, and today he will meet the minority stockholders of the old Athletic club.

A Clothing House Fire.
SALEM, Mass., Jan. 9.—Fire broke out in the Numkeage Clothing company's store. The firm had a stock of $75,000 worth, and was insured for about sixty per cent. The damage will be $15,000 to $20,000.

THE HARVESTER TRUST.

The Public Will be Glad to Know it is Broken.

AT LEAST SUCH IS THE STATEMENT.

It Found the Law Too Strong; But Oatmeal Makers Com-bine.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—The American Harvester company combine, which was organized a month ago with a capital of $35,000,000, was broken late last night by the withdrawal after the conclusion of the meeting of the directory, of the McCormick Harvesting company, the Deering company, the Whitman-Barnes Manufacturing company, and the firm of Warder, Bushnell & Glessner. None of the firms interested in the combine will yet acknowledge that it is dead, but they are not over anxious to conceal the situation which confronts them.

Col. Conger, who was secretary of the combine and is a member of the Whitman-Barnes Manufacturing company, in reply to the question: "Is the American Harvester company alive?" said this afternoon: "I don't know. It is tottering and may fall, but not until we conclude the meeting this afternoon or evening can any one say definitely who or what we are."

A bookkeeper of the firm of Warder, Bushnell & Glessner was more frank. He said there was now no such company as the American Harvester company. "The company went to pieces last night," said he, "I know it. Every one knows it."

Proof of the collapse of the trust came from the lips of Cyrus H. McCormick, who was its president, this afternoon. He said: "The American Harvester company states that after securing the opinion of eminent counsel from different states, it has been brought face to face with grave legal obstacles to the consummation of the enterprise for which it was formed. These are of such a character as that after the most serious and careful consideration, the conclusion has been reached that the whole undertaking must be abandoned. In doing so it is but adopting the course which counsel have united in advising."

OATMEAL IN TRUST.

Another Combine in the Breakfast Food to be Made.

AKRON, Ohio, Jan. 9.—From information current here, and as a result of meetings held in this and other cities, a combination of oatmeal manufacturers will meet in Chicago next Tuesday to form the "American Oatmeal company," with Ferdinand Sheemaker, of this city, as president. The result of the combination will be the probable closing down of the smaller mills. The combine is to be on the plan of the harvester trust.

THE SANTA FE.

Statement That It is Bought by Gould Will Not Down.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—The World says: The story went around among the crowd of railroad presidents last night that Jay Gould had secured control of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad, one of the most extensive railroad systems in America, with 8000 miles of track. It was said that he had bought the stock held by the firm of Baring Bros. & Co. of London. The amount of stock acquired was not known, but it was reported to be in the neighborhood of 50,000 shares. If Mr. Gould paid $25 a share his investment amounted to $1,250,000. He has for some time been one of the largest owners of Atchison stock. His holding is understood to have been about 10,000 shares. Russell Sage is said to have about 5000.

For several days there have been reports in Wall street of a prospective consolidation of Gould's Southwestern system and the Atchison. They were thought last night to have their origin in the reported purchase of Atchison stock. The Atchison would afford Mr. Gould a line to Chicago from the West, which he has been seeking for some time. Its possession would also remove for all time competition between the Atchison and the Missouri Pacific. By building less than 400 miles of railroad from Los Angeles the Atchison would have a line clear through to San Francisco.

Mr. Gould is not the owner of a majority of the stock of any corporation which he controls. If he has made the purchase of Atchison as reported, he will not have a majority of the stock, but that is not necessary for control.

Boston.—The Boston news bureau says: The New York World's report that Gould has purchased 50,000 shares of Atchison from the Barings will need confirmation before it is accepted. Col. O. W. Peabody, of Kidder, Peabody & Co., says he knows nothing about it.

A Dakota Town Destroyed.
MITCHELL, S. D., Jan. 9.—A disastrous fire occurred this morning at Armour, Douglas county, destroying two entire blocks. The fire is still raging. The Mitchell fire department started by special train. Almost the entire business portion of the town has been destroyed.

Chauncey Depew Presides.
NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—At last night's annual meeting of the Union League club, the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew was elected for the sixth time president of the club by the unanimous vote of the 250 members voting.

SEVERAL COMMITTEES.

The Alliance Gets all the Snaps That Are Going.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 9.—As foreshadowed in The Herald last evening, E. T. Champlin, of the farmers alliance, was elected to the speakership of the house. When the house convened at 3:30 Frank Batley, of Ramsey, moved that the balloting for speaker be resumed. The motion was carried and Representative H. C. Stivers, the democratic candidate for speaker, arose and withdrew in favor of Mr. Champlin, of Blue Earth. The ninth and final ballot for speaker then proceeded.

Capt. Ezra T. Champlin is serving his third term as representative from Blue Earth county. He having been a member in 1875 and 1887. His postoffice is at Garden City, but his farm, which he has carried on for over twenty-five years, is in the town of Vernon.

Champlin entered military service in 1861 from Wabasha county, in Company G, Third Minnesota volunteers; served over a year, then as lieutenant and adjutant and was breveted captain at the close of the war.

The following slate of senate chairmen was given out last night. Where the name has not been decided on the name of the party is substituted: Railroads, Donnelly, Keller, Lileau, March, Leavitt, Brown, Morse; judiciary, McHale; education, Lileau; immigration, Geissel; grain and warehouse, House; elections, McMillan; finance, Severson; claims, alliance; university and lands, McMillan; drainage, alliance; illuminating oils, March; temperance, Lileau; agriculture, alliance; military affairs, republicans; insurance, Geissel; banks, Leavitt; enrollment, Kelly; retraining and reform, alliance; tree culture, alliance; normal schools, Phillips; corporations, Bell; states prison, alliance; engraving, Kelly; printing, Craven; reform school, alliance; insane, Mayo; deaf, dumb and blind, March; public buildings, Lileau.

WILL FIRE THAYER.

Governor Boyd Appears to Have the Call In Nebraska.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 9.—Last evening Governor Elect Boyd called on Governor Thayer and was informed that the latter would not give up his office on the ground that Boyd was not a citizen of the United States. Governor Thayer has barricaded the executive office and remains inside with policemen, and a company of militia on guard. It is understood that he will remain governor, if possible, until all questions affecting his successor are settled.

However, the alliance candidate, took the oath of office at 1 a. m., and said that the legislature will recognize him as governor. Ex-Governor Thayer still holds the executive office, and Governor Boyd has taken offices in another part of the building. All the new state officers have been recognized except the governor. Tom Major was installed as lieutenant governor and president of the senate under protest. Governor Boyd has the governor's seat and has been recognized by all the new officers as governor and they will report to him.

Governor Boyd will appoint and swear in a new staff and take command of the militia, when it is stated, Company D, now on duty will retire to their barracks. Ex-Governor Thayer will then be asked to retire and if he refuses it is most probable that Governor Boyd will put him out of office by force.

Governor Boyd's first official act was to approve the bonds of the newly-elected state officers. John D. Higgins, of Grand Island, was appointed private secretary.

In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The senate today passed house bill for the relief of Maj. William Ham, (crediting him with $28,345, government funds, of which he was robbed in Arizona in May, 1889).

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—The house today passed a bill authorizing Oklahoma City to issue bonds to provide a right-of-way to the Choctaw Coal & Railroad company through the city. The house then went into committee of the whole on the private calendar.

The senate bill for the incorporation of the Pan-American Transportation company was ordered to be favorably reported. The bill provides for the incorporation of the company with a capital of $10,000,000, to run a line of steamships between the United States and South and Central American ports.

The house committee on foreign affairs referred the Cummings' resolution, concerning Jewish oppression in Russia to a sub-committee. There was general expression of opinion among the committee in favor of reporting the resolution or some substitute.

Against the Telegraphers Union.
MILWAUKEE, Jan. 9.—Consternation prevails among the railway telegraphers, agents and other employees of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway company, who are members of the Order of Railway Telegraphers. An order, has been issued from the St. Paul office notifying all employees that they must leave the organization.

Cool in New Mexico.
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Jan. 9.—Nearly three inches of snow fell here Thursday night. Such an unusual occurrence was a signal for a general carnival, but the snow did not last long and the opportunity to use the improvised sleighs has already passed.

Now Lock the Door.
BOWLING GREEN, Ky., Jan. 9.—A thief entered the stable of Hon. J. C. Nichols, of Woodburn, last night and stole the noted stallion, Dick Weekly. The animal was valued at $5000.

For Rent.

MATTERS OF POLITICS.

Strength of the New Party at the Coming Election.

THE FIRST PARTY CALL MADE.

Brief News of Some Political Matters; A Talk on the Alliance.

"The coming municipal election is important, in that it will show, and is intended to show, the strength of the alliance in local politics," said a well known public man last evening. "The farmers and their city fellows have pushed on the alliance movement with a whoop and hurrah, and the new party has grown to formidable proportions under the impetus given by an abnormal enthusiasm. The fusion of democrat and alliance votes in the election of Champlin for speaker was a natural result, and one that the alliance leaders have been looking for and expecting."

"The alliance movement started under good conditions and with the best and purest of intentions. The last three months have disclosed the natural fact that the alliance was becoming the tool of schemers. The hands of several would-be statesmen, whose constituents and the public at large do not seem able to appreciate have been noticeable in all the state gatherings."

"The alliance is housing a lot of men who have tried for every office under the sun, excepting the small ones, their capacities entitle them to. It is this factor that is going to put the third party boom under the ground, mark my words. The alliance will cut a big figure in the present campaign and February election, but whether enough to hold the balance of power I cannot say, although this will be the case in at least three wards."

The Central Alliance club had a meeting last evening. J. A. Mannheim presiding and A. McLean acting as secretary. A city committee of six was appointed, consisting of the chairman and secretary, one from each ward, as follows: First, John Meers; Second, A. F. Rudolph; Third, C. E. Evans; Fourth, John Krogstad; Fifth, J. W. Schweiger; Sixth, T. B. Perry. The meeting unanimously elected as delegates at large the following: T. C. Hinesbaugh, T. Eversen, A. G. Olson, John Carlson, Charles Canning, E. L. Winje, A. F. Rudolph, J. W. Schweiger, Herman Hanson and Fred J. Voss.

After adjournment the city committee decided to issue the following call to the subordinate alliances:

"A convention of the alliance party of the city of Duluth will be held at the city hall Wednesday, Jan. 14, 1891, at 2 p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the various city offices and such other business as may come before the convention. The basis of representation shall be ten delegates for the city at large and five delegates from each ward club."

Said a democratic east ender to The Herald this morning: "The Twelfth avenue ring can fix up any kind of a political deal it has a mind to regarding the successor of D. J. Sinclair in the council. But the successor of Alderman Long will be chosen from the central portion of the ward, and it won't be Mr. Long, either."

The democrats of the west end had a meeting last night and passed a motion for E. C. Bushnell for candidate for alderman in the Sixth ward, and every vote was on one side. Alderman Kennedy will run again, and in the three-cornered, or perhaps even wider fight, will likely win.

KNITTING WORKS.

A Company Starts in the Manufacture of Knit Goods in Duluth.

An addition to Duluth's jobbing and manufacturing concerns, small at present but which will probably grow to good proportions, as there is abundant field for it in this section, is a knitting works. The Novelty Knitting company starts in today at 215 East Superior street. It will make and repair all sorts of knit goods and expects to do a large trade in the city and about the adjoining lumber woods.

A Fine Lithograph.

Ashland ranks well up to the front in methods of advertising. The Ashland Press has just issued a large lithograph bird's-eye view of that city and its lake front. The names of streets, additions and divisions included in the city limits are given, and its principal business institutions are indexed and numbered. Numerous docks are represented extending out into the harbor which is covered by a fleet of ships that would do credit to almost any metropolitan city. The population is given at 16,000.

To Correct Misapprehension.

To correct a little error of the Port Arthur Sentinel, which that paper appears to be in a fair way of correcting itself, The Herald would say that it has not at any time stated that the output of Port Arthur mines had lessened, that it knows better, and that it has at all times published news matter pertaining to the Lake Superior mining districts more in quantity and better in quality than any other paper, which, we are happy to say, has been made free use of by the Sentinel and mining papers all over the country.

Another.

At the annual meeting of the Red Wing, Duluth & Sioux City Construction company held at Red Wing yesterday, the following officers were elected: President, L. H. Hubbard; vice-president, S. B. Foot; secretary, H. W. Hoyt; treasurer, T. B. Sheldon.

ITS GREATEST EVENT.

Duluth Masonry Turns a Bright Page of History.

LAST NIGHT'S CEREMONIES.

Scottish Rite Masons Organize Their Consistory and Dedicate Their Hall.

The Masonic hall was consecrated late yesterday afternoon and the consistory instituted consisting of Scottish rite Masons of the thirty-first and thirty-second degrees. This is the third and last of the ceremonies in this state and its organization was strongly opposed by the St. Paul and Minneapolis bodies. The call for the consistory was signed by thirteen Masons of the thirty-second degree as follows: T. W. Hugo, I. E. West, J. R. Carey, B. W. Barum, Walter Van Brunt, F. T. Little, S. Levy, C. G. Shipman, R. A. Gray, W. E. Tanner, G. G. Hartley, George C. Howe and Guy Wallis.

There is but one degree above the degrees of the consistory, namely, the thirty-third degree, of which there is only one active member in each state, although there are many honorary members. T. W. Hugo, of Duluth, is an honorary member of the thirty-third degree. Yesterday afternoon and evening there were thirty-two high-degree Masons who took the thirty-first and thirty-second degrees of the consistory, namely: J. E. Cooley, W. G. T. D. H. Graves, George A. Flack, C. A. Holgate, J. W. Miller, B. Silberstein, W. E. Richardson, S. L. Frazier, H. Van Brunt, W. J. Bates, W. P. Strickland, A. J. Miller, William Hay, R. E. Denfeld, Donald D. McLean, J. H. Langton, F. H. Frisbee, Rev. W. M. Barker, S. L. Selden, M. J. Davis, A. Snyder, R. C. Ray, J. B. Cotton, P. W. Jacobus and S. C. McQuade.

The degrees were worked by S. E. Adams, inspector general of Minnesota, assisted by A. Z. Levering, of the Minneapolis consistory. There were present besides the gentlemen who signed the call and the candidates the following high degree Masons: G. R. Maxwell, of the Wisconsin consistory; C. M. Pickands, of the Ohio consistory; and Charles Loomis, of the Ohio consistory. Notwithstanding the fact that the organization of a consistory at Duluth has been strongly opposed by the Twin Cities, it was found that Duluth had all the paraphernalia necessary and a much better organization than either St. Paul or Minneapolis. After the ceremonies a banquet was held and the following toasts were drunk and responded to: "The Supreme Council, Southern Jurisdiction and Grand Commander Albert Pike in Connection with our guest S. E. Adams," responded to by S. E. Adams; "The New York Rite," responded to by J. R. Carey; "The Political Creed of Scottish Masonry," responded to by I. E. West; "The Religious Creed of Scottish Masonry," responded to by Rev. W. M. Barker; "The Liberalizing Influence of the Principles of Scottish Masonry," responded to by R. E. Denfeld; "Duluth and Scottish Masonry in the Future," responded to by Hon. C. H. Graves; "Our Visitors," responded to by A. Z. Levering; "New Members," responded to by S. L. Selden.

Y. P. S. C. E. Officers.
The Young Peoples Society of Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church held an annual meeting last evening, the following officers being chosen: D. A. Dunlap, president; A. G. McGregor, vice-president; Margaret Taylor, secretary; S. W. Gorton, treasurer. The society is in a very prosperous condition, its roster containing 120 names.

A Hundred Members.
The Retail Clerk's union met last evening and installed the new officers. Charles Freimuth was elected as financial secretary. All branches of the business was reported to be in good working order. An invitation to visit the West Superior clerks was accepted. There are now eighty-six members in the union and fourteen more will be admitted next week.

THE INCLINE
Waiting for the Iron; No Transfer Fare to be Charged.

Members of the Highland Improvement company are watching the movements of the Keystone Bridge company of Pittsburgh, with a good deal of concern. So are the Duluth Street railway people. The Keystone company has guaranteed to have the incline road up Seventh avenue west completed by March 1 next, and to do this it will have to build the incline railway company also has a guarantee to have the incline ready for work by May 1 next, and is now ready for the steel nearly all the way up the hill.

Advices were received from Pittsburgh that the iron was ready to ship some time ago, but none is yet on the way, so far as known. Up to Fifth street the foundation work is all done and but little remains to complete it. The incline will be operated by the street railway company, and it is understood that it will issue transfers and charge but one fare to the top of the hill from any part of town.

It has been decided also to begin an electric railway system in Highland very soon, and most of the surveys lately made back of the city have been for that line. This line will connect at Eighth avenue with the incline and run through Highland. Just how soon work will begin on this is not yet known, but it is expected, if all goes well, to make a start this year.

A TALK ON MONEY.

T. B. Casey Gives His Ideas as to the Future.

T. B. Casey of Minneapolis, one of the wealthiest men in the state, and regarded in New York as the best financier in Minnesota, was in Duluth yesterday on business. To a Herald reporter he said: "The money situation in New York"—Mr. Casey had just returned from that city—"is getting better all the time, though the improvement is gradual. The shock of a month or two ago was a sharp one and came from so close to the financial center of the world that it takes time to recover. I do not believe we will see any but rather dull times for several months, at least until spring is well advanced. It may take well into summer to get business into a fully restored condition and, on the contrary, I may be utterly mistaken and it take but a few weeks.

The lowering of the rate of interest in the Bank of England and the Bank of Austria, announced yesterday, will have a good effect and the marketing of the produce of this country will also do much. Congress and the legislatures of the several states, especially those dominated by alliance interests, may have a contrary tendency and keep the business situation mixed and unsettled."

RESERVATIONS TO OPEN.

Surveyors of the Minnesota Indian Lands

Red Lake Falls is expecting a boom when the Red Lake, White Earth and Leech Lake reservations are opened to settlement, which will be very soon. Owing to the fine weather the surveying crews have been able to finish their work much sooner than was anticipated, and several have already come in.

Flings on land in Beltrami county have already been made. In these reservations are to be found some of the finest white pine timber, best meadow and richest agricultural lands in the world. Fifty miles west of Red Lake and north of the Red Lake river extends a fine agricultural region, thousands of acres in extent, principally prairie but dotted with beautiful oak groves. It is here the Indians will select their allotments, but there will be thousands of sections left after they have been sold. About forty miles west of Red Lake is the commencement of the Vermilion iron range.

CHRISTIAN CLEMENCY.

Embezzler Smith is Still a Member of Plymouth Church

BROOKLYN, Jan. 5.—Albert H. Smith, the stock broker, who recently caused the failure of one of the oldest Wall street firms in New York by raising stock certificates, has been placed in the laundry department of Sing Sing prison. It is said that Smith has recently written to Dr. Lyman Abbott, of Plymouth congregational church, of which organization Smith was a prominent member. In this he confessed his guilt, protested his sincere and absolute repentance, asked forgiveness to the end that he might once more unite with the congregation when the fifteen years of imprisonment had expired. Extraordinary as it may seem, it was almost unanimously voted to retain his name on the roll of church membership and his quarterly bill for pew rent will be addressed to him at Sing Sing.

UNLIKE TEA & COFFEE—GOOD FOR THE NERVES.

The claims of cocoa as a useful article of diet are steadily winning recognition. Unlike tea and coffee, it is not only a stimulant but a nourisher; and it has the great advantage of leaving no narcotic effects. Hence it is adapted to general use. The strong may take it with pleasure, and the weak with impunity.

Van Houten's Cocoa

"BEST & GOES FARTHEST."

Van Houten's Cocoa ("once tried, always used") leaves no injurious effects on the nervous system. It is no wonder, therefore, that in all parts of the world, this cocoa is recommended by medical men instead of tea and coffee or other cocoas or chocolates for daily use by children or adults, hale and sick, rich and poor. "Largest sale in the world." Ask for VAN HOUTEN'S and take no other.

The De Wolf Hopper company arrived in the city this morning by special train from Omaha. "Castles in the Air" will be played by people who have never before appeared in Duluth, but whose names are familiar to the theater-going public. Hopper is one of the three great opera-bouffe comedians of the country, and he divides with Wilson and Bell the favoritism of New York.

WE LEAD THE WORLD.

The American pig iron producer can pride himself this year of grace 1891 that he leads the world. For the first time he has passed England in the race and in 1890, so say the returns compiled by the Engineering and Mining Journal, he made 10,200,000 tons, while his English brother made, probably, no more than 9,200,000 tons, though as the figures are not yet made out, no exact comparisons can be made. It is undoubtedly correct enough to say that the stride by which England was passed was a tremendous one, of over a million tons.

It is not probable that England will ever again rank with the United States in pig iron production. While 1891 may see no increase, looking further ahead one sees a constantly growing consumption of iron and a necessity for building, in two or three years, at the most, additional blast furnaces and greater capacity for steel and iron in finished forms.

This, we might say at the risk of apparent triteness, is Duluth's opportunity.

The earlier part of the past year saw a good deal of a boom in Lake Superior ores, caused by an idea among steel makers that there would not be enough to go round, but this fear was proved unfounded and prices will probably keep low for a long time to come. So long as the Lake Superior region can increase its production 40 per cent a year, and so long as pig iron makers can increase their output 40 per cent in two years there need be no fear of any great advance.

While the total steel product of the United States in 1890 was 4,900,000 tons, according to the same excellent authority, the rail production was only 2,200,000 tons, leaving the enormous quantity of 2,700,000 tons of steel for other uses. This is a three-fold increase in the total consumed outside of rails in five years, and strongly indicates the rapid substitution of steel for iron and wood in the industries.

THE GRANGER ON TOP.

All flesh is grass or is likely to be in the present legislature. Head Farmer Donnelly is bossing the senate and Sub-head Champlin will sit on the house. The democrats expect to get in their fine work in the meshes of the committees, but their nets may be tossed and ripped on the horns of the alliance bulls. The alliance inspection committee is on hand to whip the alliance members into line and any breaks in the ranks will be scourged as treachery and charged to bribery account. The democrats will be allowed to glean what ears they can after the alliance has reaped the harvest, in consideration of the use of their reaping hooks, but republicans will have only the chaff of the grain and the smell of new mown hay.

Already a forerunner of the new dispensation is given in resolutions that limit the rate of interest that can be charged on loans and encourage the production of beet sugar. To make the first effective there will doubtless follow a resolution compelling anybody who has money to lend to supply the wants of the grangers or directing the state treasurer to cash farmers' orders on demand, when endorsed by Head Farmer Donnelly without recourse and accompanied by alliance notes bearing interest at 2 per cent from date to the millennium when the notes shall mature. If South Carolina in the halcyon days of Chamberlain, Moses and Parker beheld this state treasurer cashing the drafts of the speaker of the house in favor of needy members on application, why should not a Minnesota house profit by the example? It is the evident conviction that the turn of the farmers has come and that nobody shall be allowed to plunder the state in future except the alliance.

In Des Moines yesterday a decision was made by the Iowa state railway commissioners that is of great value to Duluth and we hope to see our board of works and city government act upon it. The decision was in reference to the expense of building a viaduct over railway tracks. Citizens of Cedar Rapids petitioned the commissioners to have four railways, including the Burlington, Northwestern and Milwaukee build a viaduct over their roads. The roads resisted, and the commissioners began hearing the case Dec. 20. Yesterday the board approved the plan submitted by Cedar Rapids, and ordered the viaduct built.

Great interest is being taken by physicians throughout the state, and especially at Duluth, over the experiments now being conducted at Minneapolis and St. Paul with the lymph of Dr. Koch, small cases of which have been received in both cities. At the St. Paul city hospital several patients are under treatment, and though the attending medical authorities absolutely refuse to divulge any word as to the progress of the tests, they do say that all are doing well. Several more patients will be operated upon tomorrow. While the extravagant claims lately made for this lymph are probably much exaggerated and unauthorized, there is enough known regarding it to show that it is a boon to the race, such, probably, as Dr. Brown-Sequard's elixir of life will prove to be.

SEEN AND HEARD.

On the 10th of this month Saturday, the Ontario legislature convenes. Among the most important measures to be presented is one to amend the present land laws to read the same as those of this state in reference to mining leases, and in anticipation of this it is estimated that 75,000 acres have been filed upon in the last two months, much of it by American syndicates. There is a great activity in Ontario lands, not only in mineral properties, but in lots and acreage at Port Arthur and Fort William. Large sales have been recently made to New York parties, and Minnesota purchasers have been numerous.

"New York is becoming a greater place of amusement than London," said a Manhattanite last evening at the Spaulding. "A friend writes me that they have begun the construction of a new scheme. A syndicate has purchased fifteen acres on top of the Palisades at Weehawken, and it is proposed to lay out the grandest amusement park in the world. The enterprise embodies an open air amphitheater, with a grand stand capable of seating 15,000 people. A great music hall, with accommodations for 4500 persons, has been already contracted for. It will cover a space 150 by 125 feet, and will be several stories high. In this building will be a cafe, rooms for all kinds of sport, and the concert hall will be also a dining hall, where people can eat and listen to music at the same time. The structure will be dominated by a tower 110 feet in height, giving a view of the entire city. A stage large enough to hold 2000 performers will be erected."

An army officer now in town from a far Western fort said the other day, "I'm a veteran in everything involving physical effort and exposure. I have fought Indians, ridden horseback for a dozen days at a stretch, tramped miles in the wilderness without food or rest, slept in the snow and undergone every sort of hardship. But with all this, I do not know a single day in my life when I've been so tired out physically as I have been at the end of every day I have spent in this city. There's electricity or something in the atmosphere of Duluth which I have never found in any other city I've ever been in, not even Chicago. The spirit of flurry, rush, enterprise, accomplishment, seems to pervade the whole town, and attacks everybody that comes into it. I no sooner strike Duluth than I find myself hustling. When I enter the street I step into a six-mile-an-hour gait. Down in the office I write at railroad speed. When supper time comes I'm tired out. There's something in the air."

The cashier of a local bank said yesterday when the public learned which end of the check they should sign their names on it would be a great and glorious day for bank employees. "When the public has been taught this little detail," the cashier said, "it would be well to give the banks a lesson in printing their checks. The latest fashion in checks is by far the most convenient one. All of the information on the check which is of value to the banker is placed on the right hand. The other end of the check is filled in with the name of the bank and so on. The advantages of this form of check are many. Nearly all of the larger Eastern banking houses and big corporations have adopted the check and it will eventually find its way down to the smaller concerns."

EXCELSIOR.

The shades of night were falling fast, As crowded horsemen homeward passed, And o'er the passengers on high Was heard the crushed conductor's cry: "Move up in front!"

The straps were filled, the aisle was packed, The sides bulged out, the windows cracked, But drowning oath and kick and prayer, And loud the words resounded there, "Move up in front!"

FLAGS OVER SCHOOLS.

St. Louis County Schools Rank Ahead in An But One Respect.

To the Editor of The Herald: It is not a matter of very great consequence, but a line in The Herald, reporting the proceedings of the county commissioners, conveys an erroneous idea. The Herald says that "Superintendent Stultz did not present a detailed report." The truth is, that I did present my monthly report. After an account of the schools visited I stated that according to the reports made at the meeting of county superintendents at St. Paul, St. Louis county ranks among the first in the essentials—as to qualifications of teachers, wages paid to teachers, and numbers of libraries supplied.

In one respect we are behind the times. Superintendent Chapin, of Decker county, reported that you might ride through that county and see the American flag floating from every school house. So far only two districts in this county—Pike Lake and Soudan—have provided flags for their school houses. While I do not attach very much importance to the fact that a school house has a flag, yet that our youth should be taught to reverence and to love that flag and that lessons of patriotism should be inculcated I do consider worthy of attention.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY.

Mark G. Lewis: The Hopper company comes direct to Duluth from Omaha, using a special train.

A New Yorker: We are having much more snow than last year, and there has been fine sleighing in the city.

Rev. E. M. Noyes: The number of young people in Duluth churches is astonishing in comparison with other places. There has been in my audience alone in the last year over 4000 children hearers, an average of eighty a Sunday.

H. A. Smith: The newspapers, some of them at least, make me weary. Now they have been saying that all the houses in Chester terrace were rented. The fact is on only about half have we closed with tenants and such statements tend to keep us from renting the rest. We have some fine houses and a fine lot of tenants so far.

H. P. Haskell: The annual meeting of the North Star Construction company, building the Duluth & Winnipeg, was held Tuesday at Baltimore. Manager Fisher was in attendance, but I do not know when he will return. The correspondent who telegraphed over the country that the company was building a line to open up the Michigan copper country is a bright man.

NEWS FROM OVERSEA.

Destitution Rife Among the Scottish Strikers.

JEWISH LAW IN A RUSSIAN PROVINCE.

An Open Blow at the Emperor of the Germans; Brief Foreign Notes.

LONDON, Jan. 9.—The North British Railway company has formed a committee to receive public donations for the reward of men who have remained loyal to the company and added to the comfort of the public by continuing at work. John Burns, addressing a meeting of strikers at Burns Island yesterday, reproached the men as faint hearted for proposing to resume work. The meeting adopted a motion of regret at the necessity for continuing the strike. The company rejected a proposal by the strikers for a compromise, one feature of which was that the men offered to leave the question of the recognition of their union in abeyance.

An order has been issued at St. Petersburg directing the expulsion from the Terek regions of the Caucasus of all Jews.

Berlin advises that a bomb shell in the imperial cabinet could have caused more consternation than the report that the grand duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin has offered to Prince Bismarck the presidency of the grand ducal ministry. Attached by ancestry to the Slavs, he made that attachment strong by marriage to a member of the Russian imperial family. His family is older than the Hohenzollerns, and he considers himself the equal of the equal with the Kaiser's policy, both in its anti-Russian features and its contempt of ancient feudal privileges, has long been apparent, and if the statement of the Frankfurter Zeitung proves true, it will be taken for granted that he has now struck the first open blow against the ruler of the new German empire.

The German labor colonies are overcrowded with application from the poor and many have to be turned away. Berlin deaths from starvation are reported almost daily.

The Spanish wine grower have addressed an earnest protest to the Spanish tariff commission against any increase of duties that would tend to bring down retaliations upon the wine trade.

The statistics of the Paris morgue show that during the year 1890, 901 bodies found their way to the ghastly receptacle. The cost to the city of maintaining the morgue was $239,000.

An agreement has been reached between the Servian regency, ex-King Milan and ex-Queen Natalia, whereby the ex-queen consents to reside permanently outside of Servia.

The Italian government is preparing for an aggressive step in resentment for the pope's persistent attitude of hostility toward the Italian monarchy.

The government of Buenos Ayres has summoned several battalions of troops to the capital in fear of a conspiracy. Disclosures made by conspirators under arrest show that the movement was more widespread than at first suspected.

EMMA ABBOTT'S FUNERAL.
Imposing ceremonies at Central Music Hall, Chicago.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—The city of her birth has bade a sad farewell to Emma Abbott, and this afternoon all that is mortal of the lovely singer reposes in a vault in Graceland cemetery.

The vast throng which filled every nook and corner of the spacious Central Music hall this morning, and the equally large crowd on the outside which strove to gain admittance, was a popular tribute to a typical American girl who from a lowly position had by energy and determination carved out her path to fame and fortune.

In its personnel the gathering was a tribute to the absolute purity of life which had always characterized Miss Abbott. The remains, clad in a magnificent white and encased in a magnificent casket, rested at the foot of the platform. The religious services were conducted by Professor Swing and Rev. Dr. H. W. Thomas, while a mixed quartet, rendered "Nearer, My God, to Thee" and other sacred selections.

In the audience the theatrical and newspaper professions were largely represented, and the local lodge of Elks attended in a body, while in the balcony and galleries the very rich and the very poor were indiscriminately mingled, and there were few dry eyes in the vast assemblage when Professor Swing dilated on the characteristics of the deceased.

At the conclusion of the services those present were afforded an opportunity of taking a final farewell, and the casket was then closed and sealed. The procession of carriages which formed the cortege to Graceland cemetery was over half a mile in length.

LACROSSE TOURNAMENT.
Leading Clubs of America in Madison Square Garden Today.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—A big lacrosse tournament opened today in Madison Square Garden. The participants are the Montreal Lacrosse team, champions of Canada; the Oshkosh Indians, professional champions of Canada; the St. John's Island Athletic Club team, champions of the United States; the Druid Lacrosse team of Baltimore, last year's champions; the Brooklyn Lacrosse club, champions of 1888, and the representatives of the Manhattan Athletic club.

The Indian team, eight in number, is a magnificent one and comprises such expert players as Dominique, Cross-the-River and Strong Arm. This team was invited to play before Queen Victoria some years ago, and each man wears a Victoria medal presented by her majesty on that occasion.

Pennsylvania Mine on Fire.
ASHLAND, Pa., Jan. 9.—A few months ago a fire broke out in the Big Mine Run culm banks. Water was turned upon it with the hope of extinguishing it. Yesterday while a gang of workmen were running a stream into a mine breach which had been filled with rock and was exposed by the washing away of the culm from the surface, steam arose and was shortly followed by flames. This indicates that a fire is raging in the workings and the officials have become alarmed, as the Big Mine Run and East Collieries are in danger.

Texas Floods.
DENISON, Texas, Jan. 9.—The incessant rain for the past forty-eight hours has raised the Red river out of its banks. The new steel bridge of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad is in danger of being swept away. No trains have crossed in the past thirty-six hours.

A Massachusetts Mob.
LYNN, Mass., Jan. 9.—An angry crowd of several hundred persons gathered about the Morocco factory of John E. Donahoe where a large force of non-union men is employed, yesterday afternoon and gave vent to their anger by throwing missiles through the windows and insulting the men. The police had to be called. It was expected that the scene of the afternoon would be repeated in the evening, and a large force of police was on hand, but no demonstration occurred.

New Philadelphia Exchange.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—The joint committee of the exchanges of this city met at the board of trade rooms yesterday for the purpose of considering the advisability of building a general exchange. So general was the response that the projectors will at once proceed to raise the necessary money. It is proposed to have a structure 150 by 400 feet, in a central location, which will cost $2,000,000.

Fatal Explosion.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 9.—A report reached here that an explosion had occurred at the California Powder works at Pinole, a few miles east of Oakland. Three men are reported as having been killed.

WEST DULUTH. WEST SUPERIOR

The annual meeting of the Scandinavian union was held Wednesday night and the following officers elected: President, J. W. Peterson; vice-president, A. Lindbald; recording secretary, Otto Nelson; financial secretary, Martin Solberg; assistant secretary, John Onstad; treasurer, Martin Gilbertson; chaplain, Ole Walsted; assistant chaplain, Mark Nelson; marshal, John Peterson; assistant marshal, A. Casper; trustees, E. E. Burley, A. F. Swanson and John Gulbranson.

The episcopal society intends to put up a church building. Nothing definite has been decided upon, but the site will be selected soon, and when it is the work of building will be commenced.

Samuel Creethers and family of Saginaw, Mich., arrived yesterday. Mr. Creethers is in the employ of Mitchell & McClure.

Considerable friendly rivalry exists among West Duluth skaters as to who is the fastest skater, and by request Messrs. McNevin and Sickles will have a contest at their rink Saturday evening, to the winner of which they will present a fine pair of club skates. The lists are open to all West Duluth skaters.

John Varley, driver of hook and ladder team No. 1, was taken to St. Mary's hospital yesterday to be treated for typhoid.

A number of the unity congregation of this place will attend Rev. Maxom's lecture on "Socialism" in the unitarian church at Duluth this evening.

Miss Annie Luce of St. Paul, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. Rhodes of this place.

The Knights of Pythias have rented the third story of the Hoyt block and are fitting it up for a lodge room.

Mrs. C. C. Conant who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. L. McMinn for the past few weeks, returned to her home at Princeton today.

William O. Hearn has let the contract for the building of a fine residence on Third avenue west, opposite the presbyterian church.

W. E. Korth of Henderson, Minn., is visiting his sister, Mrs. C. Bonpe.

Mr. McGuire of Marquette, is spending a few days with his old friend, W. C. Finney.

F. J. Lynch returned yesterday from a several days' visit to Chicago, accompanied by his mother, who will visit here until spring.

L. H. Piper of Macomb, Ill., is stopping at the Phillips.

The new proprietors of the West Duluth Steam laundry respectfully ask the patronage of all the people and guarantee satisfactory work and prompt attention. The bath rooms will be in order next week.

G. F. DANFORTH.

WEST END.

S. A. Siverts has changed his office from the Peoples Investment office to room 15, Clarendon block, occupying a part of Dr. G. W. Davis' office. His business will be insurance, investments, loans, real estate and steamship tickets. Mr. Siverts is well known at the west end and will do a good business.

W. E. Richardson and wife return to Rumsey, Mont. tonight. They have been visiting Mr. H. Gujer and family.

John Gujer left last evening for Kiltur City, Wis. to visit his mother.

The young people connected with the Sunday schools of the Second presbyterian church are to meet at the church Saturday evening for practice on the cantata, "Building the Temple." These meetings will be held on Saturdays throughout the month.

APPEAL TO CREDITORS.

Old Philadelphia Firm Finds Itself Temporarily Embarrassed.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 9.—A meeting of the creditors of George D. B. Keim & Co., one of the oldest manufacturing firms of this country, is being held today at their big warehouse on Market street. Owing to the recent failure of Welsh & Lea the firm finds itself temporarily embarrassed having had nearly $100,000 locked up in the failure in question. The liabilities are nearly $250,000, but outstanding accounts amount to one-half that amount, and the stock in trade brings the total assets up to nearly $400,000.

Today's meeting will decide whether an assignment shall be made, but the members of the firm are so old and popular that it is more than likely that unlimited extension will be granted.

Train Robbers Foiled.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Jan. 9.—The officials of the Southern Pacific railroad learned yesterday that an attempt was to be made to rob the west bound passenger last night between Plattsburg and Welder stations. The train crew, passengers and express messengers were provided with rifles and pistols. At the point designated a man signalled to the engineer to stop. The train slowed up and a number of shots from the train men caused the man to flee. It is thought he had confederates concealed in the underbrush.

He Deserves Lynching.

DAYTON, Ohio, Jan. 9.—At Greenville last night, a few miles north of here, Chris Oelschlager went to the residence of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Charlotte Reese, and upon her refusal to sign a deed he began stabbing her. He stabbed the woman twenty-six times, three times through the heart. She died immediately. Oelschlager was arrested and may be lynched.

Dago Didn't Dare.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 9.—Signor Baracchini, editor of the Caprera, and an Italian named Filippini, have just returned from Canada, where they went to fight a duel. Neither was hurt. The duel grew out of attacks in Baracchini's paper upon Filippini.

Doctor Mary Well Again.

OSWEGO, N. Y., Jan. 9.—Dr. Mary Walker, who was recently reported as dying on her farm near this city, has recovered. She declares that she will not die before she gets her pension of $10,000. She says that she is not asking for a pension, but an appropriation to pay for services rendered and money expended as a surgeon in the army, for which she has never been reimbursed.

Robert Crockett Dead.

STUGGART, Ark., Jan. 9.—Col. Robert H. Crockett, one of the leading politicians of Arkansas, and only surviving grandson of the famous Davy Crockett, died here yesterday. Col. Crockett was about 40 years of age.

The railroad business of Superior is found in the following: Receipts and shipments—Receipts, lbs., 1,286,472; earnings, $843,000.45; forwarded, lbs., 1,230,187,033; earnings, $704,645.43. This is nearly double the traffic of 1889 and is a splendid showing.

The Y. M. C. A. has decided to put $800 in gymnasium appliances in a building on Hammond avenue. A gymnasium is something that Superior needs.

D. M. Farson, of the firm of Farson, Leach & Co., of Chicago, Ill., arrived in the city yesterday morning and entered into negotiations for the purchase of city bonds. He has made an offer.

Among other matters in reference to charter amendment, the legislature will be asked to merge the two Superior school districts into one and provide for a board of education.

An Equivalent for Suicide.

If we allow our bodily infirmities to make away with us through neglect, have we such an immense moral advantage over the deliberate suicide? Scarcely. For example, the deadly progress of Bright's disease, diabetes, acute nephritis and gravel is sure—often terribly swift in the catastrophe. Most people of average information know that this is the simple, unvarnished truth in regard to those widely prevalent maladies. To delay judicious medication is specially suicidal in such cases. The means of restraint is to be found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Give an impetus to the action of the kidneys with this safe and reliable diuretic, and the infant complaint is shorn at its birth of the power for evil. Allow it to grow and anticipate the worst. The Bitters which annihilates these growing troubles also eradicates dyspepsia, rheumatism, malarial and liver complaints. Appetite, sleep and vigor are also promoted by it.

Piles are being driven for an extension of the south track of the Omaha's city yard.

The Hopper company arrived from Omaha this morning without accident. The ladies of the First Methodist church and congregation will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the church in the interests of the new church enterprise.

A Union, N. Y., blacksmith has written the chamber of commerce, asking if there is an opening here for a good shop.

S. A. Thompson is expected back to the secretary's desk of the chamber of commerce next week. He did good work before the Hudson River convention.

Rev. E. O. Sharpe, the new pastor of the Christian church, will speak at the Y. M. C. A. Sunday at 4 p. m. His subject will be on Daniel. All young men cordially invited to attend.

PERSONAL

H. H. Cossett is again able to be out after a slight illness.

Charles and Thomas Canning, of this city, were called to Hendon yesterday to attend the funeral of a cousin.

Mrs. R. P. Boyington, general agent of the Childrens Endowment society, has returned to the city after spending the holidays with relatives at Clear Water, Minn.

H. J. Pineo has returned from the southern part of the state, where he has been spending some time with his family.

Mrs. Taylor and children have returned to the Spaulding after a month's visit in the East.

Miss Brown, who has been the guest of Mrs. J. N. McKindley for some days, returns to St. Paul tomorrow.

City Engineer Fuller leaves for Chicago this afternoon to consult with Wm. Snow Smith regarding the proposed canal tunnel.

Social Notes

The third annual ball of Duluth Typographical union, No. 136, will be held at St. Louis hotel Friday evening, Jan. 16. Duluth types are characteristic for their cordiality and hospitable ways of entertainment and will undoubtedly give a very pleasant affair.

The second of the series of Mr. Ernest Lachmund's musical lectures, will begin tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at his studio. Mr. Lachmund will give a description of some of the peculiar musical customs of the ancient Egyptians, Hindoos and Greeks. Piano solos rendered by the following pupils: Misses Grace Goodwin, Eva Willcuts, Alice Cooley, Ida May Hammond and Ellen Shubert, will close the program. Any who are interested are cordially invited.

The pleasure-loving people of Lakeside have organized a dancing club and will give a series of parties during the winter. S. L. Rice is president and C. E. Judd treasurer. The committee on arrangements consists of J. M. Smith, Charles West and W. A. Kennedy.

An impromptu skating party was held at the east end rink last evening at which a number of young society people were present.

The Cecilia Society.

The Cecilia society meets this afternoon with invited guests at the residence of Mrs. J. N. McKindley. They have a very inviting program as will be seen.

Piano solo, "Stay,".....Jules Jordan Miss Brown.

Piano duet, Mrs. May and Miss Hubbard.

Vocal solo, "Convien Parle,".....Don Izett Miss Brown.

Piano solo, "Death Scene of Triston and Isolde,".....Wagner Mrs. Dr. Day.

A SECOND SHATTUCK.

Appearances Favorable for the Establishing of a Fine School Here.

The episcopals of the state have taken up the idea of founding a military school at Duluth, similar in plan and management to the Shattuck military school. The plan of founding a military school at Lakeside of which Prof. Cohn of Chicago was to be at the head has been dropped owing to more favorable offers on the part of the episcopals. It is probable that the Lakeside Land company will grant them nearly the same terms regarding a site as was offered in the former plan.

Parties are in the city today to discuss plans with the Lakeside Land company and the prominent episcopals of this city. From all appearances the school will be established. James Dobbin, of the Fairbault military school, is the moving spirit in the new enterprise.

Two weeks from today the Cecilia society will meet at the Duluth Music company's rooms and give an entertainment for the benefit of the Bench street home.

A BOARD OF TRADE KICK.

Grain Men Object to Railroad Discrimination.

THE POST'S FINANCIAL REVIEW.

Local Market Notes; Other Grain and Money Centers of the United States.

There is justly a good deal of complaint among Duluth grain men because the Minneapolis roads make through rates for Minneapolis grain men from the wheat fields to Eastern grain markets permitting a stop over of the grain in Minneapolis.

For instance, grain is shipped from Dakota manufactured into flour and shipped East on the same transit rates. In this way where the regular rate is 12½ cents per hundred pounds it is reduced to 7½ cents on the transit plan. Not only this, but also the wheat may be detained in Minneapolis elevators and afterwards shipped under the same through transit rates. The Burlington road especially makes a specialty of issuing bogus through transit rates.

With the same system Duluth would be able to supply nearly all the milling wheat by rail during the winter season to the internally situated flour mills. Something should be done by the Duluth railroads at once in this matter. Duluth is at present shipping a small quantity of milling wheat which could be easily trebled with favorable railroad rates.

The Local Market.

The first sales in cash and January wheat were made here this morning at unchanged figures from yesterday's closing quotations, while the first sales in May were made at an advance of 3/8c. Prices remained steady in the forenoon but eased off in May wheat in the afternoon session to yesterday's figures. Receipts of wheat here were small and the shipments by rail large from interior milling demand, which would create a regular demand here for milling wheat if our railroads give the favorable rates which the Minneapolis roads persist in allowing the wheat men. The demand for May wheat here today was very good in large lots. Carrying charges from January to May were as low as 7½c.

Cash No. 1 hard regular closed easy at 90½c. Cash No. 1 northern sold in the forenoon in a lot of 10,000 bu and in car lots to arrive at 87½c and closed at the same figure easy with sellers. Cash No. 2 northern closed easy at 82½c. January wheat ruled dull, No. 1 hard closing at 91½c, an advance of 3/8c over yesterday's figure, with an easy feeling. No. 1 northern, selling at 87½c, ruled dull, closing at the same figure with sellers. May No. 1 hard wheat ruled active in the forenoon, rising steadily at 91½c in lots 15,000, 20,000, 40,000 bu. In the afternoon the price slumped off 3/8c, closing at 90½c. May No. 1 northern sold late in the forenoon at 94½c in lots of 50,000 bu, and weakening in the afternoon, closed at 94½c.

The closing prices today are as follows:

	Cash	Jan.	May
No. 1 hard	90½	90½	90½
No. 1 northern	87½	87½	87½
No. 2 northern	82½	82½	82½

Cars on track: Wheat, 26; last year, 28. Receipts: Wheat, 25,867 bu. Shipments: Wheat, 17,006 bu. Inspection: Cars, No. 1 hard, 2; No. 1 northern, 16; No. 2 northern, 3; no grade, 1; No. 1 white winter, 13; total, 35.

NEW YORK FINANCES.

The New York Post's Daily Review of the Financial Situation.

New York, Jan. 9.—The Post in its financial article says: "The most important factor is the prospect of continued ease in the money market. The general belief is that this is now pretty well assured unless congress makes some blunders in connection with silver legislation which would excite alarm of those opposed to free coinage and set people to hoarding gold again."

It is not improbable that some time within the next month or so the $5,000,000 of gold which was brought over here from London in December to restore confidence may be sent back, but if the gold which was hoarded in this country during November and December comes out freely, the $5,000,000 will not be missed and money may be expected to remain unusually easy both here and in London.

New York Money and Stocks.

New York, Jan. 9.—Money on loan at 3/4 per cent. Exchange, steady; posted rates 483½@487; actual rates, 482½@483 for sixty days, and 480@480½ for demand. Government's steady; currency, 68, $1.00 bid; 48, coupon, $1.20 bid; 41½, coupon, $1.03½ bid.

The stock market was more active than on any morning of the week, 157, 300 shares changing hands to noon. The opening prices were fractionally higher than those of last night with few exceptions. Sugar trust was especially active and displayed the greatest strength, advancing 2 per cent to 63½ in the early trading. In the hour to noon prices were stronger. Rock Island came prominently to the front and advanced to 1½ per cent. Northern Pacific came next with an advance of 1¼. St. Paul and Atchafson advanced 1 per cent respectively, and Lackawanna and Northern Pacific preferred ¾. Union Pacific also advanced 1¼. The best prices of the morning were current at noon, at which time the values were 1½ to 2¼ per cent higher than yesterday's.

Chicago Money.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—The clearings were $13,170,424. Foreign exchange was strong at 48½ for 60 day bills, and 486 for sight drafts. Exchange on New York opened at 70c premium.

Chicago Live Stock.

UNION STOCK YARDS, Ill., Jan. 9.—Cattle: Receipts, 9000; firm. Hogs: Receipts, 40,000; weak and 5c lower; heavy, $3.45@3.80; mixed and medium, $3.50@3.75; light, $3.45@3.70. Sheep: Receipts, 6000; steady.

Chicago Markets.

CHICAGO, Jan. 9.—There was a liberal fall of snow in the winter wheat country yesterday. Advances also told of heavy snow storms all over Europe. This induced heavy and general selling of wheat at the outset. May wheat, which closed yesterday at 97½@97¾, sold at 97½@97¾ at the start, and quickly declined to 97½. May corn started at 53½, against 53½ as yesterday's close. The better price was due to the fact that receipts were thirteen cars less than the trade expected. May oats were 3½c up at 40½. May pork was 5c off at $11.25, because of large receipts of hogs at the yards. May lard started at $6.40 and May ribs at $5.67½.

Following is the close: Wheat: January, 90½c. Corn: May, 53½c. Oats: May, 40½c. Pork: January, $10.75. May, $11.75. Lard: January, $5.90; May, $6.40. Ribs: January, $5.20; May, $5.70.

AN OHIO QUAKE.

The Earth Shook very perceptibly at Toledo this Noon.

TOLEDO, Jan. 9.—Just at noon a shock of earthquake was felt here, that shook houses and frightened horses. The shock came apparently from the south, and a slight rumble accompanied it. It was first supposed that it was a dynamite explosion.

Gets Damages.

Before Judge Start, the jury returned a verdict of $1437.69 in favor of Gustaf Bergquist against the Chandler Iron company for personal injuries. A stay of twenty days was granted.

Snow at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 9.—A heavy snow fell last evening and continued. It bids fair to eclipse in quantity the snow fall of Christmas. Street car traffic is greatly interrupted, and all railroad trains into the Union depot this morning were more or less behind time.

May Blow Up Gibraltar.

GIBRALTAR, Jan. 9.—A large petroleum warehouse, in dangerous proximity to one of the powder magazines, is in flames. The firemen and troops are doing everything to prevent what may prove to be a terrible disaster.

Two Important Cases.

Patrick A. O'Donnell, et al, have brought suit against Louis Sunborn for $200 for peremptory work performed in East Saginaw.

William Ball brings suit against Hall & Co. and T. O. Hall for $529.76, which he claims to have deposited with defendants, who used the money to purchase real estate, refusing to honor his checks for the amount.

AGAIN CLAIMS BATTLE.

But Gen. Miles Looks for the End of it all at Once.

THE IDAHO EXCITEMENT FALSE.

And the Props Pretty Nearly Knocked From Under the Correspondents' Jobs.

RUSHVILLE, Neb., Jan. 10.—The crisis has been reached and a general battle is looked for tomorrow and the circumstances are forcing a conclusion to the hostilities and parleying will not be longer continued by either side. The Indians said yesterday that Gen. Miles must prepare to fight or get off the reservation. Gen. Miles, it is said, has given the Indians until tonight to surrender, and if they do not come in by that time he will close in upon them. This is made necessary by the condition of his men. Those on the north side have been pretty well worn out with camp life in this bleak climate and the long cold marches from one position to another.

This is More Like Truth. PINE RIVER, Neb., Jan. 10.—Quite a number of Indians came in today in small bands and gave assurance that a large body will move in this direction tomorrow for the purpose of surrendering, and that troops have been directed to follow. The prospects at present look favorable as far as one can judge from indications. (Signed) Gen. Miles, commanding.

Even This Was Baseless. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—The following just received from Commanding Officer Boise, Bannocks, Idaho: Fears of Indian outbreak greatly exaggerated and without just foundation. First reports sent by irresponsible parties. (Signed) GIBBONS, Brigadier General, commanding.

Forsythe's Investigating Committee. PINE RIVER AGENCY, S. D., Jan. 10.—Col. Forsythe will be cleared. Upon that point there is but little doubt. The investigating committee has completed its work, and while its members have as yet made no report, it is thoroughly understood that the colonel will be exonerated. The testimony of the officers and soldiers of the Seventh cavalry leaves no other measure open. Inquiry shows conclusively that no soldier was killed by the fire of another. It seems to be the impression among all army officers that Col. Forsythe did wonders of organization in the midst of a great confusion.

The testimony of Capt. Nolan and Lieut. Nicholson went to show that the men when firing continually called to one another, saying: "Don't shoot in that direction, there are women." Non-commissioned officers swore to the same thing, and it was shown fairly and conclusively that when the sex of the enemy was known accurately, the fire of the troops was directed accordingly.

Indian Troubles in Idaho. CHARLES, Idaho, Jan. 10.—The Indians on the Lemhi reservation are dancing and trouble is feared in Custer and Lemhi counties. There are about 700 Indians of that reservation and they are well armed. The citizens of Charles ask that guns and ammunition be shipped to them.

Turtle Mountain Uprising. BISMARCK, N. D., Jan. 10.—Governor Burke has received a telegram for aid from Bottineau, N. D., an Indian uprising being on the tapis. The governor has sent a special agent to investigate and has promised help if necessary.

Arms For Nebraska. SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Jan. 10.—One thousand Springfield rifles were shipped yesterday to Governor Thayer of Nebraska, from the United States army of this city for use by the state troops in the Indian campaign. The shipment was in response to an order from the war department.

Indians Still Coming In. WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Gen. Schofield received a telegram from Gen. Miles this morning saying that the Indians are still coming in.

HARRISON FOR PRESIDENT. Given Out That he Will Run for a Second Term.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 10.—Notice has been given to the republican leaders in Indiana that President Harrison will be a candidate for renomination, and every friend of the administration is being urged to labor industriously toward getting the state in line for Harrison.

Many Injured. ROME, Jan. 10.—A terrible accident occurred this morning at Reggio, fourteen miles from Modena. A number of officers of the garrison were going through a drill in the military riding school, when the roof of the building fell in. Two were killed and sixteen injured.

THE PONAPI TROUBLE.

Where Does the Blame Lie? Spain Must Make Reparation.

BOSTON, Jan. 10.—The American board of commissioners for foreign missions, after obtaining full reports of the indignities practiced upon its missionaries by the Spaniards at Ponapi, has laid the case before Secretary Blaine, with a demand for reparation. The root of the whole trouble is the mistake of the Spaniards in supposing that the missionaries incited or connived at the revolt of the natives. The church, schools and dwellings of the missionaries at Oua have been burned by Spanish shells and finally a Spanish fortification, church and priests house have been erected on the land belonging to the American board and within a few feet of mission buildings.

The demand which will probably be made of Spain is the restoration of the property destroyed and a guarantee of full protection for the lives and labor of American citizens in all time to come. The Spanish legation at Washington was interviewed last night, but nothing is known there of any such demand. It was stated, however, that if the local officials of Spain have violated international obligations the Spanish government will apologize and pay damages in full.

FROM ABROAD.

The Gambling Hells of Europe May be Closed; British Railways in Ireland: Foreign Notes.

DUBLIN, Jan. 10.—Mr. Parnell has arrived in this city with Mr. Harrington and his supporters are making extraordinary preparations for tomorrow's demonstration in Limerick. A dozen special trains will convey the crowds to Limerick that desire to hear Mr. Parnell, and the greatest interest is felt in the demonstration as it is thought that Parnell will have something to say regarding the pending negotiations. For fear of riot the police and military forces in Limerick are being strengthened.

A Russian gentleman last night blew his brains out with a revolver at Monte Carlo. According to a letter found upon the suicide's body, the writer had lost $2000 roubles at gambling. So many suicides have occurred here within the past few months the great gambling palace at this place may be suppressed. While crossing a lake on the frontier of Poland yesterday five Russian smugglers broke through the ice and were drowned.

Last evening at Boulogne Messrs. McCarthy, Sexton and Condon had a conference with O'Brien. It was 4 o'clock this morning before the conference, which was of an animated nature, adjourned.

Glass Trust Utopia.

WHEELING, W. Va., Jan. 10.—It is stated that the present plants of the glass tabulars will be abandoned. The factories are very inconvenient to coal, gas or sand centers. The intention of the trust is said to be the purchase of a large tract of land in the natural gas field and then will sink wells, erect buildings of houses for employees and build a town with churches, school houses and stores.

Eaten by Wolves.

CLINTONVILLE, Wis., Jan. 10.—Herman Puntleef, a young wood chopper employed in a camp near here, one of his feet badly. A companion assisted him part way home and then went ahead to get assistance. When he returned only blood and pieces of clothes were to be seen. The young man had been devoured by wolves.

Big Baseball Meeting.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Big baseball managers are flocking into town today, preparatory to the business meetings which will open next week. About the only point of uncertainty in the situation is whether Spalding will permit the American association to include Chicago in its circuit this year or not.

A Broken Rail.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Jan. 10.—Passenger train No. 2 was derailed by a broken rail at Walnut station. The engine, baggage, express and one passenger car left the track. Engineer George H. Houser was killed. He lived in Michigan City.

Blown to Pieces.

OIL CITY, Pa., Jan. 10.—Eugene Rew of Franklin, a shoemaker, employed by the nitro-glycerine company of Oil City, was blown to pieces at the magazine yesterday. It is supposed that in loading he struck two cans together.

A Narrow Escape.

Miss Thompson of this city owes her life to the bravery of A. J. Williams. Last night on the bay opposite the Northern Pacific ship a party were skating. Miss Thompson and her escort went too near an air hole and were tumbled into the water. Miss Thompson had sunk the second time when rescued by Mr. Williams, who jumped into the water, holding up by clinging to the ice until rescued.

A Modern Exodus.

There has been today a generous increase in the population of West Superior. This has mainly been by the denizens of Minnesota point. Some one spread the alarm last night that indictments were out against them, and a general hieira took place to the Wisconsin side.

Davies Withdraws His Resignation. City Clerk Budden received today all the poll lists registers and necessary papers for the city election. It is now known whether there will be an election of a special judge or not. Judge Morris received a letter from Governor Merriam this morning stating that Judge Davies had tendered his resignation and afterwards withdrew it.

Committees on Annexation. President Baldwin has appointed the following chamber of commerce committee on the municipal annexation matter: G. G. Hartley, R. S. Munger, T. W. Hoopes, J. D. Ray, C. F. Johnson.

MR. HARRISON'S HOUSE

Stanford Gets Plans for White House Enlargement.

READY FOR BLAINE'S OCCUPANCY.

Surplus Piling up Again in the Treasury; McKinley Bill's Effect.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Mr. Stanford introduced in the senate, a bill, accompanied by elaborate architectural designs for the erection of an extension of the executive mansion. It provides "that the secretary of state, the secretary of the treasury and the secretary of war, constituting a commission, be authorized to cause to be erected adjacent to the present executive mansion and connecting therewith an extension of said mansion, in accordance with accompanying plan proposed by Mrs. Caroline Scott Harrison, to embrace the present mansion as a private executive mansion, enlarged by the addition of an executive office or official wing on the west and a public wing or gallery of pictures, historic relics and art treasures on the east. Both counterparts of the original structure in design and connected therewith by colonades and hallways, and on the south by a connecting range of iron and glass structures of symmetrical design, forming executive conservatories and winter gardens, the whole architectural group forming an inner park or garden, at a cost not to exceed $550,000."

TREASURY SURPLUS

Piling up Again and the Tariff Bill Will Increase It.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The treasury surplus is again fast piling up and at the close of business today was $18,000,000. Since the first of the year despite the heavy payments receipts have largely exceeded expenditures. The fact that money is easier in New York and elsewhere has much to do in swelling the surplus, as merchants are taking out goods from the custom houses. Since the beginning of the fiscal year the treasury department has purchased $22,000,000 of 4 and 4 1/2 bonds and if the surplus continues to increase more may be bought. It now appears that the tariff will increase the revenues.

The House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—The legislative appropriation bill was laid before the house today and placed on the calendar. The army appropriation bill was then taken up in committee of the whole.

SAFE ROBBERS CAUGHT.

Five Crackers Held Up; Reads Like a Dime Novel.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—A bold attempt at robbery was frustrated and a gang of desperate safe blowers captured at an early hour this morning. On the fifth floor of the building at 161 La Salle street is the office of Diamond Broker Murray. In a big safe he keeps thousands of dollars worth of diamonds.

Shortly after midnight two detectives who were walking down La Salle street, saw five men, two of whom were carrying bundles, enter the building. The officers concluded the men were safe blowers and notified the central station. The army of other remedies, said his other summonsed a number of officers and the entrances to the building were guarded.

The lieutenant with his detectives tipped up stairs. When the fifth floor was reached a noise was heard in room 31. Putting his shoulder to the door Kipley threw his weight against it and it flew open. There was a shuffling of feet, and as the eight officers sprang in, who were walking down La Salle street, saw five men, two of whom were carrying bundles, enter the building. The officers concluded the men were safe blowers and notified the central station.

Iron Furnaces Shut Down.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 10.—All the iron furnaces in the Mahoning and Chenango valleys will be indefinitely closed to night and several thousand men will be thrown out of employment. The operators claim that owing to the high railroad tariff and the prices of coke they are unable to continue operations. Last month the coke men reduced the price of their product twenty-five cents per ton, but the furnace men demanded a greater reduction.

Emma Abbott's Will.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—It is probable that the will of the late Emma Abbott will be opened today. It is thought that she has bequeathed a large sum for the establishment of an institution to assist young girls possessed of voices of promise, but who are poor, to receive tuition without cost. It is also thought that the document makes provision for the crematory of other remains, and her father has already entered into correspondence with the management of the crematory at Detroit.

Had Alliance Official.

WINDOM, Minn., Jan. 10.—[Special to The Herald]—County Auditor-elect John Brown (alliance) sold his office Wednesday to A. W. Johnson (prohibitionist) for $200. Yesterday Johnson attempted to take possession, but the old auditor, C. F. Robison (republican), locked the vault and says he will carry the question to the supreme court. County commissioners have appointed Robison to act in their interests.

OF NEBRASKA PATTERN.

Troubles in the Colorado Legislature; Complications Will Result.

DENVER, Col., Jan. 10.—There was an exciting scene in the lower house of Colorado legislature yesterday. There are two republican factions in the house, one led by H. H. Eddy and the other by James Brown. The Brown crowd numbered fourteen, and by forming a combine with the democrats, secured a working majority. When the newly-elected speaker, Hanna, attempted to announce his standing committee the Brown-democratic faction blocked legislation, and the result was that nothing could be accomplished. Brown was ordered under arrest for interrupting the speaker. The sergeant-at-arms started to arrest Brown, when four deputy sheriffs started into the aisle and defied the sergeant-at-arms to do so. A scene of the wildest confusion prevailed.

At midnight the Brown-democratic wing, numbering twenty-eight members, walked out and organized another lower house all by themselves. This will complicate legislation this winter.

ABSORBING A LOAN.

The Power of the French People to Buy Government Bonds.

PARIS, Jan. 10.—This being the opening day for the issue of the new French loan the greatest anxiety was manifested to obtain it. Crowds began assembling last evening outside the office of the ministry of finance, and waited all night to get the earliest opportunity to buy the new rents.

The weather was very cold, and many of the people, among whom were women, brought wraps and blankets in order to withstand the cold. The loan, amounting to 800,000,000 francs, is already at premium.

GOULD HAS IT NOT.

The Wily Jay Denies Flatly a Purchase of the Atchafalaya.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—There seems the best of authority for stating that Mr. Gould has not bought a controlling interest in the Atchafalaya. Gould himself denies it flatly.

A Send Off to Indoor Ball.

CHICAGO, Jan. 10.—The latest of Young America's contributions to the world of amusements—indoor baseball—will be brought to the zenith of its popularity when $25 a box and $2 for general admission, society will crowd the Auditorium to witness the championship game between picked teams from the exalted La Salle and Farragut Boat clubs, for the benefit of the news boys' home. The intention is to give indoor baseball a send off which shall whirl it taking the continent and warrant it in taking a place in the leading rank of American amusements.

Fruit of Sin.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 10.—Margaret Castine was shot and killed last night by J. J. Barnett. The woman had been living with Barnett as his wife. Barnett, after shooting the woman, attempted suicide. He claims that the woman often asked him to kill her and last night, while both were intoxicated, he shot her through the heart and then himself. Barnett was recently employed as a keeper in the house of correction.

Prize Fighters Arrested.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 10.—Ed Gorman, the pugilist, Jimmy Faulkner, the wrestler, and Al Chamberlain, the baseball pitcher, were arrested last evening on warrants issued at Mayville upon the indictment by the grand jury on the charge of taking part in a prize fight at Irving some time ago, the fight being between Gorman and Wright's "unknown," of Detroit. The three men gave bail for their appearance Feb. 9.

The Fly Knocked Out.

AMBLINE, Kan., Jan. 10.—The outlook for the wheat indications of counties of the golden belt wheat region are most promising. The Russian fly has been effectually disposed of, and it is believed that the threatened damage will not be realized.

Snow in Illinois.

MONTICELLO, Ill., Jan. 10.—The heaviest snowstorm of the season has been raging here for the last twenty-four hours, and the fall of snow throughout Central Illinois will be the largest for years. The wheat crop will be greatly benefited.

Out of its Billions.

DUBLIN, Jan. 10.—The relief fund raised in response to the recent declaration issued by the viceroy reaches a total of £14,000. Among the latest contributions to the fund is £200 sent by Queen Victoria.

Trust Glass Works Close.

ZANESVILLE, O., Jan. 10.—The window glass works here, controlled by the United Glass company, has shut down, throwing out 100 men.

Why Not Use Beer?

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Jan. 10.—Central Illinois is having the most severe winter famine ever experienced.

Already at Work.

M. A. Bradley, of Cleveland, and Capt. Wood, of Iron Mountain, Mich., who recently leased a part of section 18-50-14 and of section 15-50-15 from John McKinley and others, have already sent up a crew of men to begin developments on their property. They will begin work with a diamond drill next week.

WHY THEY BUY REALTY.

A Belief That Interest Rates
Will go Down.

INQUIRY FOR SEVERAL NEW PLATS.

But Little Buying in Duluth for the
Record.

While realty business in general has been of the slowest this week, the feeling both here and elsewhere has grown better and there has been a great deal of inquiry for St. Louis townsite lots during the week, although they do not go upon the market until Jan. 27. They are to be put on the market at about half of the price which the New Duluth lots were first sold at. There has been also a good deal of inquiry and interest taken in the new division of Lester Park, which went on the market today. Several excursions to Lester Park have been well patronized and the property has proven to be very attractive to those who desire to make investments.

It is a notable fact that there has been almost no drop in the prices at which the better class of property has been held, what drop has taken place has been in property of a purely speculative nature, which had been too high. "What inquiry there is all for a different class of property than that which was in demand a few weeks ago," said a dealer. "Now there is no one who seeks property for speculative purposes. There are four classes of buyers. One is the speculator, who is taking a rest. The second division is perhaps the largest. They buy with the expectation of holding the land a year or two until the natural appreciation in value will yield them a good profit. These people buy lots and acre tracts. Some are progressive, being willing and anxious to pay their shares in any improvements that will aid the development of their property. To the third class belong those persons who buy either residences or business property for their own use. Natu-

ally their purchases are not very large. Income property is sought by the best class. The last three classes of property are most in demand, with the preference, perhaps, for residence property. The speculator will appear when the market is in its most active season."

"Buyers of income property, especially capitalists, are speculating on the reduction of the rate of interest. That is the element which governs them in their purchases." These are the observations of a local capitalist. Capitalists can get a larger income on the money invested in rents than by investing it in other directions, or even by loaning it. Even if rents do not increase and the rate of interest grows lower, as it is doing, the property will increase in proportion to the decrease in the rate of interest. If a piece of property brings in an income of 8 per cent on a valuation of $50,000, and the prevailing rate of interest is 4 per cent, as it will be in a few years, the property is worth $100,000, although it cost only $50,000. This point is not generally realized. There is no doubt but the rate of interest is getting lower rapidly. In consideration of this movement it is not unreasonable to suppose that in a year or two the prevailing rate of interest will be 5 per cent, especially if money is plenty."

English Syndicate Buys Mines.
Dewey, Col., Jan. 10.—The Silver Belle, American Belle and Hudson group of mines in the Red Mountain district in Ouray county have been sold by George Crawford to an English syndicate for $1,750,000. The new company is to be organized under the name of the American Belle Mines company, limited, and is capitalized at $2,000,000. Mr. Crawford will act as resident manager and retains some interest in the properties.

A Game Postmaster.
PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 10.—W. J. Frazer, a prominent merchant, was shot and fatally wounded by Samuel Rattliff, postmaster at Cassville, Wayne county, last night. Frazer accused the postmaster of tampering with his mail and a quarrel ensued. Both men drew revolvers and began firing at each other, but Frazer was the only one hit. Rattliff is in jail.

Sullivan to Australia.
New York, Jan. 10.—John L. Sullivan is to go to Australia in June next. McMahon Bros., the theatrical managers, signed a contract yesterday to take the "slugger" and his partner, Duncan Harrison, to the antipodes for a theatrical tour of Australia and New Zealand.

National Curling Tournament.
ST. PAUL, Jan. 10.—Arrangements have been completed for a national curling tournament, which will be held in this city Jan. 21 to 23. Prizes have been added to medals to be contested for and fully 1000 curlers from the United States and Canada are expected.

THE APULIAN SHEPHERDS

Peasant Life in Italy Among the Mountains.

MODERN NENCIA AND RAVELLA.

A Pastoral Poem of the Roman Peninsula From Wakeman's Pencil.

ABOUT the year 1480, at the dawn of the golden age in Italy, there were daily gathered at the table of the chief citizen of Florence great men. The host, whose wealth and matchless attainments made him known as "Lorenzo, the Magnificent," wrote a pastoral poem of wonderful sweetness and power called "La Nencia Da Barbarino." I was once in a position (being an editor, worse luck!) to have this surpassing composition translated for the first time into English, in the original meter, by no less a poet and scholar than Sir Edwin Arnold. The poem, comprising 300 lines, depicts in simple though glowing words and imagery the hopeless and consuming passion of the shepherd lad, "Ravella," for a dainty peasant girl, "Nencia." One cannot read this heart cry without awakening a thrilling and commiserative tenderness for the humble lives it so plaintively reveals; and it was with this feeling that I sought to know the lives of those who tend the flocks and herds of Latium.

My first wanderings were in southern Italy, the territory of olden Apulia. Once this was part of Græcia Magna. I made my way back and forth across the infrequently-traveled, little known, weird and lonely, yet always transcendently beautiful and fascinating peninsula. Upwards of 300 castles, modern, medieval and in ruins, were counted. The few remaining relics of Canine, where the Romans met their crushing defeat of B. C. 216 were found. Bari, upon the Adriatic, as famous now for its fish as in the time of Horace, was seen. The ancient abbey and church of S.

driven northward. On this occurs the yearly spring exodus from the lower valleys and conative moors and marshes to the Apulian mountain summer pastures. In the autumn, hundreds of thousands return along these ancient ways. But in the summer time on the mountain sides is the real outdoor life of the guardian of the flocks and herds. Whether he be herdsman, goatherd or shepherd, he is usually given charge of a flock or herd of from fifty to 100 animals. Among the cattle, and herding in common with them, are large numbers of a species of buffalo.

The sheep are odd little poddy creatures. Nearly all are black. Their legs and hoofs are black and shiny as ebony drum sticks. Their eyes are exceedingly small and a brilliant yellow; while they are agile as chamois. The sons marry other shepherds' daughters; the daughters, other shepherds' sons. Himself perhaps born in the grass by the side of the "tratturo," in a cleft of some rock in the edge of a torrent's gravina, or in some low hut on hill or moor, he emerges from babyhood to childhood a nomad; he mates as a nomad; and never ceases a nomadic life. So that to every flock belongs a family.

The latter-day nomad group possesses no home but that of the daily grazing land of the flock. Their sole possessions never equal $5 in value. Their total earnings do not exceed eleven cents per day. Like Wallachian Gypsies they squat anywhere for rest and sleep, and eat anything that will sustain life. If they possess a single aspiration on earth, it is that secret one of so many other Italian field and moor laborers to "take to the hills," that is, to become outright brigands.

Tall, and straight as an arrow, the shepherd is clad from head to foot in undressed skins. A bifurcated garment of untanned hide, fashioned after the pattern of that one so well known to American dress reform ladies, forms a sort of waistcoat and trousers combined. The latter are opened at the sides, below the knees often displaying gaudy buttons ornamenting the sides of his half-gaiter, undressed skin boots. Over his waistcoat is a long, loose armless jacket of hide, provided with numerous pockets. A jaunty, brigandish hat sets perky upon his fine, curly head.

On the mountain sides the life of this shepherd family is a changeless one the whole summer long unless the terrible hail storms of Southern Italy fall upon the mountains, or the still more destructive wind storms that frequently fling both shepherds and flocks from the Niccolo where in 1098, Pope Urban II held the council which sought to reconcile the church of Greece with that of Rome, was visited. I climbed past Melit, with its glorious castle of old Norman sovereigns, to the extinct volcano, Monte Vulturno, the "Apulian Vultur" of Horace.

I tramped, too, with returning pilgrims, camping with them at night by the wayside; sat with the carrettajo as his cart and ox waited by the fountains; climbed to the shrines with reverential pilgrims; waited by the mounting blocks with roadside beggars; made countless and astounding excuses to get into the interior of cabins for draughts of butter-milk and orange water; assisted more than one shepherd in building a rude hut of stone, after the manner of the Pagan "bee-hive" cell upon wind-swept moors; and after making my home for a brief season among the shepherds of the eastern mountain range of Oranto, followed on foot the Apulian Way to the olive and vine-girt hills of Tuscany.

One of the most interesting facts regarding the shepherds of Southern Italy is that they are not only a distinct class, but, through holding themselves aloof, are almost a distinct race. In ancient times all this country was subject to depredations by the Saracens, to an extent requiring people herd in walled towns for protection. Then nearly the entire population of old Apulia were shepherds. They drove their herds from the towns to the mountains, returning for safety at night. The descendants of these in a direct line for more than two thousand years, are doing that identical thing to-day, not for safety but from traditional custom. All those who exist in southern Italy today who are not shepherds form the population of cities and towns and comprise the cotadini or field laborers; and the ancestors of all these may be said to have gradually grown away from the shepherd's life. They rarely intermarry with other classes. When they do, they instantly depart from the flocks, are absorbed in lower orders of the cities, or become the human cattle that labor in the fields. The pride of their own descent, in the exclusiveness of their class, in the long line of shepherd ancestry, amounts almost to a passion.

In every part of Southern Italy you will come upon a broad, grass-grown highway, the "tratturo." For twenty centuries it has served the same purpose. It can be nearly likened to our own west Western stock-trails leading from "grass to grass" when herds are crags to death, come whistling over peak. Then the human marmot awakens from his lethargy and accomplishes prodigious feats of strength and wondrous acts of valor. He is the one Italian who drinks water instead of wine. His field-labor, though unconscious to himself, is marvelous. When spurred by extreme hunger, all mountain moorland birds are doomed where he sets his snare. It is a wild, strange, melancholy land he looks down upon, if he have the energy for looking. His wife and children around him are as voiceless as himself and his flocks.

But there are other shepherds in Italy of whom a sunnier picture can be drawn. These are they of the peasants' lesser flocks in Piedmont, in Lombardy, in radiant Tuscany, and even in death-breeding Maremma on the Tyrrhenian sea. There are many among these who, like the Apulian shepherds, have descended from shepherd ancestors, and who all their lives solemnly follow the one vocation. But in the main they are the little folks and the youths and wives of all the peasantry. In Northern Italy the peasantry are a happier folk than those of the South. The beauty of the cities, quaintness and peacefulness of the villages and hamlets, the radiance of the valleys and the noble picturesqueness of the forests and moorlands seem to have given a reflexive peacefulness, sunniness and even virility to the people.

If a maiden has charge of the flock, she will have her spindle or knitting, and will work and sing and tend the whole day long. If a lad or strapping lad of a flock, he will let the pig or the dog tend the sheep, with an occasional moment of an executive observation, and the rest of the day he gathers mushrooms, hunts birds, snags forest fowl, or pipes on his flute in idle fantasy. Both must bring a backload of grass with the flocks at night. Some of this is for temporary use; but the winter store is chiefly thus gathered.

I have counted more than 100 of these little flocks descending from the mountains with the shepherds at eventide. The valleys are voiceful with thousands of tinkling bells, with the notes from hundreds of shepherds' flutes, with the trill of scores of shepherds' songs. Then, as the shadows fall softly upon the hamlets, comes the housing of the sheep and the pastoral yields to the prosaic while the "Ravella" and "Nencia" gain new strength for the morrow from their bowl of steaming polenta or porridge of crushed white beans.

MITCHELL AND FAUST.

"Faust Up to Date" Opens the Theatrical Week Here,

FOLLOWED BY MAGGIE MITCHELL.

A Fine Chinese Theater for New York City; Other Theatrical Matters.

HE De Wolf Hopper company has lent its delightful personality for the amusement of Duluth theatergoers this week, and the engagement of "Castles in the Air" has proven the greatest success ever at the house. Not only is the opera most entertaining in itself, but both score and libretto are interpreted by artists.

Temple Opera offers two attractions next week. "Faust up to Date" and Maggie Mitchell. Miss Mitchell will appear Friday evening in "Ray," giving "Fanchon" Saturday and at the matinee. "Faust" has never before been seen here, but on Tuesday and Wednesday the famous London Gaiety Burlesque company will make its entrance here in the play. The burlesque is a clever travesty of both Goethe's classic drama and Wagner's opera. The cast is headed by the best soubrette on the American stage, Miss Kate Castleton, who assumes the role of the modest Marguerite, and certainly something entirely new may be expected at her hands. The scenery, costumes, paraphernalia and calcium light effects, properties of the cast to make a spectacular production, and which were used in the original production in London and later in New York, will be given here.

"Faust" is full of novel stage attractions, and for one, the four gaily skirted dancers, in entirely new Terpsichorean exercises, will astonish as well as please all who have not seen the originals of the new famous skirt dances. Miss May Vokes is the soloist and her dances have created a furore. She will introduce "La Carmencita" and "La Glisouche." The company numbers some forty people, and is made up of principals, chorus singers, dancers and comedians and some of the finest burlesque actresses on the American stage. Miss Katherine McLean, the young and handsome contralto, assumes the dashing part of Faust.

On the evening of the 22d Frank Hoare will be tendered a benefit by Temple Opera orchestra, and Duluthians will doubtless fill the theater upon that occasion. No one deserves better at the hands of music lovers, and no one has done more to keep the orchestra up to a high standard in Duluth.

A CHINESE THEATER.

New York to Have a Gorgeous One; As to the Fifth Avenue.

New York, Jan. 7.—[Special correspondence to The Herald.]—The oriental residents of Mott and Pell streets are in great glee over the proposed establishing of a Chinese theater. Chen Quon, the noted Chinese theatrical manager, was here Wednesday, and a great deal of caressing went on between himself and eminent Chinese merchants. Chen Quon proposed the theater in the first instance, and the merchants agreed to help him out in his enterprise. Next day No. 19 Bowry was taken as a temporary abode for the Chinese Thespis, and No. 3 Pell street, at a rent of $5,000 a year, was engaged as the place for the new temple. Chen Quon told me yesterday that he would introduce a Chinese ballet, corps that would so attract the dudes that in two weeks he would be in a position to clear off all his outstanding debts.

Nothing has been definitely settled regarding the rebuilding of the Fifth Avenue theater burned last week, although Mr. Miner is very anxious to get it at once, notwithstanding the restrictions of the building bureau, which will take twenty feet off the width for fire escapes. This, however, can be obviated if the Gilseys are willing to give up the old homestead, which adjoins the burned theater on Twenty-eighth street. This will add thirty feet to the present width, and with ten feet on either side will give room for an auditorium seventy feet wide. Meantime Miss Davenport is in a quandary. She has a portion of her wardrobe, and could play "Cleopatra" tonight if she had the scenery. There have been three Fifth Avenue theaters, and all have been destroyed by fire.

William Young's "Gaiety" was successfully produced by Laurence Barrett at the Broadway before a large and fashionable audience of first nighters. Archibald Gunter, in dramatizing his novel, "Mr. Potter of Texas," which will receive its first production at the Star, Feb. 2, begins the play in Venice, with the arrival of Mr. Potter. While a number have suggested that the play should include the entire story, as in the book, Mr. Gunter finds that in order to place it on the stage properly the whole would take five or six hours, and as we have not yet arrived at the point when a play can be divided into two evenings, Mr. Gunter has to abandon the idea.

FRANC FORTY.

Prof. Hewes' "Black Art" At the museum next week. The management will present an exceptionally interesting program throughout, in both departments. The auditorium stage will be occupied by a new company. The chief feature will be "Black Art." This is founded upon the ancient talismanic sorcery which was practiced during the dark ages. It is a most weird spectacle. The entire stage is draped with black velvet, placing it in impenetrable gloom. First, Prof. Hewes suddenly appears as an oriental traveler, then at his command tables, chairs, vases of flowers, hands, spirits, demons and living beings appear and disappear. With these assistants at hand he does some incredible things. He cuts off a head, places it upon a pedestal where it talks and sings, and when it is returned to the body, he causes a lady to vanish and be changed to a flock of white doves. The most supernatural feats prevail throughout "Black Art."

A Worthy Effort.

For the first time since the organization of Hoares orchestra an appeal is now being made by the members for the support of music loving people in an effort to give a benefit to Frank E. Hoare. To develop a creditable orchestra is an expensive work, the burden of which Mr. Hoare has been obliged to bear alone. Duluth has need of a representative orchestra and surely Duluth people will not ignore the first and only appeal for substantial support from an organization that has shown itself worthy.

WEST DULUTH.

Church Announcements.

Baptist—morning subject, "The Value of a Soul;" evening subject, "No Difference." The gospel meetings will be continued next week. The singing will be under the leadership of David Thorman. Congregational—Morning subject, "Help Refused;" evening subject, "What an Angel Said." Unity church services in the city hall at 7:30 p. m. Rev. Henry D. Maxson, of Menominee, Wis., will preach; subject, "Sympathy." Episcopal—Services at 10:30 a. m. Lay reading at 7:30 p. m.

Owing to the prevalence of measles the board of health has decided to keep the schools closed for another week.

The gospel meetings at the congregational church will be continued Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of next week.

John Capliss has returned from a visit to Grand Forks.

All members of the chamber of commerce are urged to be present at the meeting this evening, as business of importance will come up.

At the annual meeting of the Norwegian Lutheran congregational church, the following officers were elected: Secretary, E. Kretting; treasurer, O. S. Olson; deacons for three years, John Bergman and Stephen Larson; trustees for three years, Charles Standahl and Ole Bergman; sexton, Halvor Vollen; Sunday school superintendent, Charles Loring; assistant, Halvor Vollen.

A. P. Freeburg & Co. moved their real estate office this morning from the Sun building to Second avenue west.

W. W. Browne will entertain the Presbyterian choir and friends on Bay View Heights this evening.

We have $1250 to loan on a No. 1 security. Scott & Olafson, room 1, Silvey block, West Duluth.

The new proprietors of the West Duluth Steam laundry respectfully ask the patronage of all the people and guarantee satisfactory work and prompt attention. The bath rooms will be in order next week. G. F. DARTMOUTH.

WEST END.

E. G. Swanstrom has cleaned out his grocery store and is fitting it up for a real estate office. Thus goes out of commission the first grocery store at the west end.

Services this evening at the Second Baptist church. All are invited. On the Sabbath the pastor will preach from the text "Quench not Thy Thirst." In the evening from the text "Is there no Balm in Gilead, is there no Physician there?" Young men meeting at 3 p. m. Preaching services every evening next week except Saturday.

DIVERSE FLOUR REPORTS.

Agent-Christy Finds a Discrepancy of 400,000 Barrels in the Year.

All the flour statements issued by the various papers and commercial bodies interested in the progress of the head of the lakes have been wrong, says D. A. Christy, agent of the Lake Superior Transit company. Several boat agents sent down reports to correspond with these reports, thinking them correct and not trying to verify the figures. One was returned to a local agent who has made up the following report of barrels shipped and found it to be correct:

Lake flour shipments, 2,845,476
Rail flour shipments, 100,000
The original report gave total shipments as 2,500,000 bbls, a discrepancy of nearly 400,000 bbls. Secretary Wells of the board of trade says that the figures given originally represent careful work and are according to the monthly reports made by railroad companies.

Painters and Decorators Elected.

The following officers were elected at the last regular meeting of the Painters and Decorators union No. 106, for the ensuing term: President, A. P. Johnson; vice president, W. Long; recording secretary, R. D. King; financial secretary, F. B. Patterson; treasurer, Charles Stenberg; conductor, J. E. Johnson; preceptor, W. B. Bradley; warden, John Hogan; trustees, Wm. Ellis, H. Truee, R. D. King.

Flour Receipts.

Some flour is already being received here from Minneapolis for spring shipment. Never before in the history of the trade has the movement begun so early. The two roads give free storage during the winter, in order to pave the way for traffic. The shipments already made are on the supposition that a five cent rate will be made on such flour when taken out by boat in the spring.

Well located 50-foot lots on East Sixth street. Only $1200, one-quarter cash. PETER PATTERSON & Co., 222 Chamber of Commerce.

Residence Wanted.

In trade for choice unencumbered lots at their market values. Address "H," care of letter carrier ten.

Ladies free at the west end skating rink except on special occasions, when the admission will be ten cents.

Dr. D. Rawls, of Connorsville, Ind., pronounces Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup an infallible remedy.

WEST SUPERIOR

Hydrant rental for 1891 is estimated at about $30,000, while street lighting will cost about $20,000 more. Street lights for November cost $1900, of which $1500 was for electricity. New lamps are being frequently ordered.

There are fifty dwelling houses under construction at South Superior. It is estimated that the population there will be 5000 by 1892. The industries thoroughly in operation by that time will require such a population. South Superior was a wilderness two years ago.

At the annual meeting of the First Baptist church society, the following officers were elected: Trustees, T. L. McIntosh and Ira Harris; directors, C. H. Hughes and W. E. Chandler; secretary, C. H. Hughes; treasurer, L. B. Sheehan; Sunday school superintendent, Ira Harris.

S. E. Tubbs will erect a four-story brick office building on the corner of Fifth street and Thompson avenue. It will be 75 by 100 with all the modern improvements.

Four-fifths of the Standard Oil company's total receipts of 100,000 have been shipped. In addition to the barrel shipments 60,000 cases were sent out.

Van Houten's cocoa—the original, most soluble.

A prominent physician and old army surgeon in eastern Iowa was called away from home for a few days, during his absence one of the children contracted a severe cold and his wife bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for it. They were so much pleased with the remedy that they afterwards used several bottles at various times. He said, from his experience with it, he regards it as the most reliable preparation in use for colds and that it came the nearest being a specific of any medicine he had ever seen. A SHAKE UP ACROSS THE BORDER.

To political shifts and changes here the eyes of people generally are directed without much regard to what is passing on the other side of our northern frontier. The always hopeful Ernestus Wiman is, however, if anything, more sanguine than ever of a coming shake up, in which the liberal party will be on top at the close. What the result of this triumph would be he lays down in advance in his boom for reciprocity in the current issue of the North American. The Canadian liberal party is unequivocally committed, as he declares, to the principle of unrestricted reciprocity with the United States, provided the United States is willing to enter into such an agreement. It favors a reciprocity which implies a perfect and unrestricted exchange of every natural product and every manufactured article, the effect of which would be that commerce would be unrestricted along the entire 4000 miles of border line, as it is now between the states of the Union or the provinces of the Dominion.

The consequences of this obliteration of the commercial barrier will be that the area of the trade of the United States could be doubled; while inasmuch as an enormous development would follow in Canada from the open market which would thus be afforded in this country, the volume of trade would increase in the same manner, with the same rapidity, and with the same profit as it increased with the opening of the Western states. It will rest largely with the Americans themselves to share in the profits of this development, as they already are largely in the individual possession of lands, timber limits, and mineral locations in Canada. These they could further increase for by the liberality of the laws they can possess themselves, by purchase, of any property that promises a large return under the changed circumstances. Free raw material from all parts of the Dominion, greatly needed to cheapen manufactures for export, produced at a profit largely by Americans themselves, and by the necessary development affording them a market for American manufactures, is a result the value of which surely no one can question, as growing out of a reciprocal arrangement between the two countries, at no cost of political disturbance to either.

We do not doubt that reciprocity is coming between the two countries that are separated at present by a line so clearly artificial. And the quicker that the Dominion breaks its embarrassing and antiquated ties with the mother country the quicker it will come in its fullness. The natural relations of Canada are obviously with the United States, but the confirming of these means almost inevitably the weakening and final sundering of the ties that bind her to the little island across the sea. But until Canada is really independent to form her own preferred and most profitable connections, we doubt if any shake up of parties will realize the fond hopes of Mr. Wiman.

It is a notable fact that of the receipts of the Childrens Aid society of Minnesota Duluth contributed by far the larger part, giving in the past three months $570 to $170 from St. Paul and about $200 from Minneapolis.

With a sharp knife Commissioner King cuts the knotty Indian problem. "Disarm and educate the Indian at home, put him on land in severalty, protect him in his property and the Indian problem is solved." That is the ideal to work for, no doubt, but all Indians are not lambs, and it is easier to say what should be done than to do it. Lo is an old man of the sea on the neck of the American Sinbad today.

The American Federation of Labor is taking an active part in the campaign for equal suffrage for man and woman. It has sent out, and labor organizations in Duluth as well as elsewhere, have received blank petitions, which are to be presented to the organizations in the federation, asking congress to pass the woman's suffrage laws now before it. The federation of labor is a powerful ally, but just why it should throw in its fortunes with the suffragists is a question.

The last issue of the Engineering & Mining Journal, some of the statistics of which were used in an article in this column yesterday, is one of the most remarkable productions of this month of annuals. It is remarkable, not only in the extent and volume of its statistical information, condensed into such space that a few lines may represent a large amount of labor, but in the date all this information was printed. It is hard enough to get the statistics of local business in time for a seasonable issue, but when the facts are to be gathered from the entire country and of diversified interests the task is well nigh insurmountable. The Review of Jan. 3 has full information of all the mining interests of America, with tables of prices and finances that are of great value.

The recent remarks of President Jackson, of the Chicago Real Estate exchange, before the Boston exchange, embody so tersely the Chicago idea, and what is getting to be known as the Duluth idea, as well, that they are worthy of reproduction: "Chicago has the audacity to believe in her own destiny, and that destiny is to become the metropolis of America. This will seem less visionary when you stop to think that while our foreign commerce amounts to some $1,500,000,000 our internal commerce amounts to more than ten times that sum. Fifty years ago Chicago was a hamlet; today Chicago is one of the great capitals of the world. Fifty years ago Chicago meant but little to a few people; tonight Chicago means—Chicago."

"CASTLES IN THE AIR."

The opening performance of the above opera was successfully given last night before a large audience, and the names of De Wolf Hopper, Anna O'Keefe and Della Fox must be added to the list of Duluth favorites. The music is bright and tuneful, never common place, and at times, particularly in the finales, it is really beautiful. It is not simple and there are some patter songs given the various principals that are extremely difficult. There is the merest suggestion of a plot, but such as it is it furnishes an excuse for funny situations. Some of the libretto is not in the best of taste, and the gags at times are far-fetched, but everything goes off with such a dash that one laughs in spite of himself.

De Wolf Hopper as Blacouche has an excellent chance to display his peculiar talents, which he improves to the utmost, while, best of all, he has a beautiful voice and sings well. Della Fox as Blanche was charming in appearance and action, and in the baseball scene with Hopper she was simply irresistible. Anna O'Keefe made a lovely Dul-Bul, always graceful and pretty, and sang sweetly throughout. The Angellique of Sylvester Cornish was excellent, also the Victorine of Elvira Cox and the Calabrese of T. J. Seabrooke. The minor parts were well taken without exception, especially that of Chief of Police by Lindsay Morrison, whose make up was most dreadfully severe. The large chorus was unusually good, and the scenery fine in each act. The orchestra deserves great praise for the way it performed its difficult work.

Among the pleasing and funny features were exhibitions of hypnotism, the wagon with elliptical wheels, the athletic contest and Hopper's beautiful and pathetic song in the last act about the little pigs.

A Western Feature.

New York Star. There is one feature of journalism in the West, conspicuous at the close of the year, that contributes enormously to local pride and public spirit. That is the annual review of trade, often occupying special editions and many columns. Thus they feel their progress, know the gain they are going, and can count up their gains, in which every citizen shares. Perhaps New York is too big for this sort of thing. In a way, it is done here by the trade papers.

IN RE DIRT.

A Correspondent Who Wants Some Sharper Cleaning Up.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I have taken special interest in the opinions expressed in regard to the cause of the large number of cases of typhoid fever existing in this city, and have come to the conclusion that it comes almost entirely from the polluted condition of our water, caused by the sewage emptying into the lake near the intake pipe. No one appears to know positively how far the outlet of the sewage is from the intake pipe, nor how far the intake pipe extends into the lake; some say 200 feet and some 450. If it is true that dead fish, cinders, etc., come through, most likely it is broken in several places, and in that case it would make no difference whether it extended ten or one thousand feet from the shore. All this talk about there being a constant current running southwest along the shore is nonsense. It altogether depends on the direction of the wind. If the wind is northeast the current will run southwest, and at the same time bring up the sewage and filth from Lake Superior. If the wind is anywhere from south to west the current would run northeast down the lake shore and give the intake pipe the benefit of all our own sewage as well as what comes from Superior and West Duluth. Sometimes the current will run out through the canal two or three miles per hour.

We will never have pure water until it is taken from the lake below Lester river and at least a thousand feet from the shore through a good, tight intake pipe. The time is not far distant when the people of Duluth will get tired of the frequent visits of typhoid and rise up in their might and sweep the water company into the oblivion where it belongs. Many of our citizens who have lost dear ones through causes that can be remedied will make the demand.

I believe we have the dirtiest and most filthy city in America; look at Superior street as it is today—when was it honestly cleaned or swept? We have had no snow so far this winter and with a little breeze it disgusts one to walk the street. Why do not the city authorities sweep and clean this street two or three times a week? Have they not the authority to do this? And if they have why do they neglect it? No one can deny that it ought to be done. Some physicians say the germs of typhoid may be in the dirt and dust on the streets, if that is the case there is no reason why it does not spread.

I have heard some argue that the surface sewage does not carry any material detrimental to health into the lake. If the board of health would look over the city it would very soon be convinced that there is enough filth from these sewers to poison the water for a long distance out. It would be a good thing if one of the officers of the "board of health" should go through the alleys above First, Second, Third and Fourth streets, along Second avenue. He would see enough dirt and filth. If any of these alleys have been cleaned for the last five years, no one living in their vicinity seems to remember about it. Once in a while a car of garbage may have been seen attempting in a feeble way to clean up, but the times are few and far between. Some of these alleys have sewage pipes laid, but it appears there is no law to compel the occupants to connect with sewers and they are still permitted to empty sewage into their yards and alleys and there to lay or run into the gutters and through the surface sewage into the lake or to Superior street. Another thing the officer of the board of health might see, privies perched along the alleys where there may be a few feet of earth above the rock and perhaps sewer pipes laid; the contents run into the gutters and the street.

There ought to be a law passed at once to compel everyone who has the opportunity to connect with sewers, and those who do not should be obliged to have proper receptacles and have them cleared often and not make open privies a nuisance to their neighbors. The writer once lived in a western city that made no pretensions to be a metropolis. The chief officer of the board of health every day rode through the alleys and around the place and made a record of all places that needed cleaning up. The next day the owner or occupants were notified to clean up or within twenty-four hours. If he did not it was done by the city and charged to the property.

I think the time has come for the people to take this matter up. If the city authorities have not the power to act, give it to them. The chief officer of the board of health ought to receive enough pay to enable him to devote all his time to looking after the sanitary condition of the city. There ought to be a garbage crematory built.

THE WEEK IN SOCIETY.

Quiet Has Reigned Almost Unbroken in the Time.

SKATING NOW THE SOCIAL FAD.

Notes and Personals; The Suffrage Circle; Ladies Clubs; Coming Events.

No open air sport offers such genuine amusement and health giving exercise as skating. Never before has Duluth taken so much interest in the sport as this winter, when rinks and smooth spots on bay and harbor are daily covered with gliding hundreds. Society seems to patronize the Third avenue rink which, by the way, is one of the few covered rinks in this part of the country. Society gatherings are also frequent on the splendid surface of the bay below the canal and at the West End rink. Several small and impromptu skating parties have been given this week and more are looked for.

The Cecilia Society.

The Cecilia society met Friday afternoon with invited guests at the residence of Mrs. J. N. McKinley. They had a very pleasant meeting with the following program:

Piano solo, "The Erl King,".....Listz
Mrs. Dr. Day.
Ladies quartet,.....
Mrs. Stocker, Mrs. Seagoe, Miss Hopkins, Miss Cullyford.
Piano solo, "Perpetual Motion,".....Weber
Mrs. Clague.
Vocal solo, "Stay by and Sing,".....Jules Jordan
Miss Brown.
Piano duet,.....
Mrs. Marvin and Miss Hubbard.
Vocal solo, "Cavities Part,".....Don Izzetti
Miss Brown.
Piano solo, "Death Scene of Tristan and Isolde,".....Wagner
Mrs. Dr. Day.

The Literature Club.

The Ladies' Literature club will meet with Mrs. Chapin Tuesday afternoon. After a vacation of five weeks the club expects to take up its studies with ardor. This lesson makes a special study of "Classicism and Romanticism," question, "What was the Artificial School?" "Alexander Dumas, His Early Life as a Dramatist and as a Novelist," "How Does He Compare With Victor Hugo?" "How Did the Drama of France Compare with That of England?" "How is Scribe Regarded Today?" "Brief Outline of Lamartine's Life as a Literary Man and Politician," "With What Other Lyrist is Beranger so Often Compared?"

Suffrage Circle.

The Woman Suffrage circle met yesterday afternoon with a good attendance, a determined look and several ideas. The regular business of the circle was attended to, reports read, also a letter from the state president, Mrs. Julia B. Nelson, asking co-operation in preparing a petition to be sent to the legislature asking for municipal suffrage for women. The ladies decided to do this, also to circulate a petition asking immediate consideration of the request for the appointment of a police matron, and offering to give proof of such need. Mr. Maxson, the lecturer of last evening will be asked to give a lecture here on "Political Equality."

The Eastern Star.

The installation of officers of Zenith Chapter of the Masonic order of the Eastern Star took place last evening. After the officers were installed, an informal reception was held in the chambers. The officers are: Mrs. Johns, matron; W. B. Patton, patron; Mrs. Gearhart, associate matron; Mrs. Hugo, secretary; Mrs. La Vaque, treasurer; Mrs. Van Brunt, conductor; Mrs. Higgins, associate conductor; Mrs. Ford, chaplain.

The Saturday Club.

The program for the Saturday club at its meeting today was as follows: A paper on "Politics in France Between First and Third Napoleons;" "Talks on Perier, Soult, Thiers, Mole;" "The Ministry of Guizot;" "Lamartine as a Politician;" "Political Affairs Between France and the United States from 1793-1848."

Going to Berlin.

Dr. J. M. O. Tuttle, of this city, leaves the middle of next week for Berlin to study the Koch methods. He will be absent a couple of months. The university of Norway has sent a representative to Berlin, who is an old personal friend of Dr. Tuttle.

George Kennan Coming.

It is decided that George Kennan, the Siberian traveler is coming to Duluth in the near future. Preliminary probably, to give a lecture. The particulars are not decided yet but the fact is.

Social Notes.

The St. Louis Bath Rooms Again Ready for Patronage.

During the past week the Turkish bathrooms in the Hotel St. Louis have been in the hands of decorators, and now they present a decidedly neat appearance. The plunge, one of the essential adjuncts of such an establishment, has been thoroughly cleaned and painted, and the different rooms have been thoroughly renovated, so that it is one of the finest establishments of the kind in the Northwest. Mr. Fuller, the proprietor, has decided to put in several more drawing-rooms, something which has become necessary on account of the increasing patronage. Mrs. Fuller, who has been in charge of the rooms on ladies' day, has recovered from her recent illness and will resume charge next week. Ladies will be attended to every day from 8 a. m. to 12 m., and on Wednesday until 6 p. m.

Fine double corner in block 289, West Duluth, only $1200.

PARSONS' BUSINESS COLLEGE,

Day and Evening Sessions.

Pupils can enter the Business, Short Hand or Literary Course and receive either individual or class instruction.

Special pains will be taken to advance any who may wish to study the Common English Branches.

Young and middle-aged men and women who wish to advance their prospects in life cannot do better than spend their leisure evenings at this situation. WE TEACH Bookkeeping, by single and double entry, in a thorough, scientific and practical manner, by the use of offices representing the various commercial pursuits, and by correspondence between the students of Parsons' Chain of Colleges.

WE TEACH Banking by the use of a genuine bank of real money. Students deposit and handle actual money, and thereby learn the art of transacting bona fide business.

WE TEACH Rapid Business Calculations, and our students become ready, accurate accountants.

WE TEACH Plain, Practical, Rapid Style of Business Writing.

Proof: Our Students Become Good Penmen.

We teach the Laws of Business, by means of recitations from a text book of our own, and by a thorough course of lectures. Frequent examinations and reviews are held. Students are carefully questioned on every point presented in the lectures, and no pains are spared to impart to every pupil not only an accurate knowledge of business laws, but also a thorough acquaintance with the principles which underlie the welfare of the state and the rights and duties of the citizens.

The teacher in this branch is a graduate of the Law Department of Michigan University, and numbers among the former pupils two prominent judges and a score of able lawyers.

We teach the Munson System of Shorthand and use the Remington Typewriter. Our students attain a higher degree of proficiency in these branches and secure good paying situations. At present the demand for our graduates is far greater than we have been able to supply.

Ten thousand of our graduates in the highest ranks of business, professional and political life, in all the cities from Detroit to Duluth, attest the practical values of our course of instruction.

They are found—not a few of them—among the heaviest pine dealers of Duluth, in the legislative halls and the executive councils of the State of Michigan on the staff of Gen. Alger and Governor Luce, on the judicial bench, and at the head and in the front rank of the strongest and best reforms of the nation.

Citizens of Duluth, if you wish your sons and daughters trained to habits of high thinking, and fearless, decisive action in all vocations and duties of life, send them to an institution of learning, whose graduates are among the strongest and ablest thinkers of the land. We are willing our work should be judged by results. Question any of our graduates. Examine their record. If you find that success as the result of high intellectual development is written upon the banner of every faithful, diligent student who has gone forth from our ranks, give the credit where it belongs. Send your sons and daughters to Parsons' Business College. The College is in charge of PROF. A. C. PARSONS, founder of Parsons' Michigan Chain of Business Colleges and a graduate of Oberlin College and the Law Department of Michigan University. In the State of Michigan during the past twenty years, thousands of young men have gone out from these Colleges who are today conspicuous leaders in business, professional and political life.

The past thirty days have been very productive of interrogatories by mail for this department, and I desire at this time to express thanks for the interest shown and the appetite for knowledge manifested by these frequent calls for information upon subjects so widely and so diametrically differing in character, the knowledge of which is yet so important to each writer in fitting himself or herself for the great battle of life. I trust that the somewhat bantering tone employed at times in the treatment of these subjects will not deter future correspondents from ever and again tapping this perennial font of varied, though sometimes fly blown, information.

Plainly Harris—assumed name, I judge—writes from Aspen, Colo:

"Sir—I am the author of a number of little poetic bits, some of whom have been printed, and lately I have thought that although there was very little money into it I would do well, as a matter of prestige, and in order to catch on to the drawing room element, if I would write some more ambitious pieces for the magazines. So I done so, and done it so as not to offend either publication, sending a poem to each, the Century, Scribners and Harpers, also a little oriental poem to the Atlantic Monthly.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

"Some of these magazines wrote to me by means of a job press that they liked my verse, but that it was not fitted to their columns. I wrote back for them to tell me how much the thing run over or how short it was of a page, and I would trim her up so it would fit, but to this I got no reply. I have decided from having gotten brief and rather conventional replies all around, together with the manuscript which I sent, that unless you have a pull as a poet on these magazines you might as well go to soliciting orders for fruit trees in perdition as to expect you can suit the morbid taste of these people.

"I write a great deal of verse, because I have considerable leisure whilst herding sheep here for a man who pays me a mere pittance. It is an uneventful job, but I try to do it in such a way as to make myself necessary to the owner. Some of my verse is light and effervescent, like Charlotte Rouge, whilst other is more filling and heavier, like what you might call the rump steak of rhyme.

"I wish you would tell me, as between old frontiersmen and co-workers in the literary vineyard, what in your opinion is eating the editors of the magazines. 'I give you one stanza of a little epic which I drew off and sent to the Atlantic Monthly, to show you that because I don't live in Milk street or belong to the Papyrus club of Boston the romping children of my unskilled brain it seems has got to cut their front teeth on the cactus of Colorado, whilst the maddening aroma of hot beans comes dimly across the unquenchable distance.

Soporific, bores, and in much felicitude. Lies Samoa in the vast Pacific. And her sons they are terrible. Although they are mostly nude.

Your attitude, Mr. Harris, toward the magazines is entirely unwarranted and cannot be supported at all. While your idea of obtaining a livelihood by herding sheep and writing pieces for the magazines in order to obtain social recognition shows great business foresight, you must admit that some of your verse lacks merit, and your clubfooted measures cannot possibly get there. You will excuse slang when I say that the verse you send me can hardly hope to get there, at least with both feet.

Magazine editors are engaged in editing their publications, Mr. Harris, for the use of magazine readers. I do not mean that the magazine reader is entirely different as to his anatomy or diet from the reader of the morning paper. In fact it is generally the same person, only in different moods and with different environments. When he is going to his work in the street car or ferry all the week he reads the paper, so that he may intelligently meet with and compete with others who read. On Sunday he also wishes to know where his friends are on the stage or in politics or anywhere else may be, and what they are doing. There is a kind of general reception held on Sunday morning through the papers, tendered by the readers to every man or woman of distinction in the world. You can come there and shake hands with them for five cents.

The magazine comes in at eventide each thirty days with an air of elegant deliberation. It comes with the gentle soothe which you cannot get from the clash and combat and burrah and death and destruction told by the types of the daily paper. So you must write simply with that idea in view. Your highly artistic description of the island of Samon is so soft and chastened that when you strike your lyre with a discordant clash and refer to the scandalous costume of the people there you shock every magazine writer from Maine to Mexico.

The only real good, original thing you sent me, Mr. Harris, was written by Eugene Field.

Alonso Dowd of West St. Paul writes: "I, too, would like also to do business in New York, but am deterred by the expense of living there. I can get twice as much salary there as I can here, but am told by a friend who has lived in New York eight years that he cannot, on double his St. Paul salary, keep the wolf from the door. How is that?"

Well, possibly your friend has to keep the wolf from twice as many doors as he used to. That is often the case in New York, I am told. It is quite often the case. Mr. Dowd, that a prosperous man gets into the toils of pleasing people who interest him and obtain control of him, and some day when he has eaten a hearty meal of victuals and dropped dead on receipt of the bill his neighbors are surprised to see two sets of tombstones erected by his two sets of families.

You will find, no doubt, that too often while a man in a large town is salivating the wolf at one door, another animal of the same kind is scratching the paint off his other residence. I am sorry to know that these things exist, and no one can be more pained than I am to see two sets of widows tearing up the greenward and pelting each other with immortelles at the grave of one they have loved as one man; but it sometimes occurs, and if you contemplate removing to New York, and your wife favors it rather more than you do on account of the great shopping facilities thus afforded, I advise you to show her this piece. Coming as it does from a litterateur and man about town it is of great value.

C. M. Springfield, Mass., writes:

"DEAR SIR: Praying that you will not throw this letter into the waste basket before reading it, I will endeavor to give you the reason for its being written. I am a man of 40 years, married, and a constant reader of your work, and can assure you a warm admirer of the same.

"But Mr. Nye, I have a brother who is no less so. Well, he is married for the past six months and is a very straightforward business man, but last Sunday while at church, seated in the same pew, I felt shocked to have him commence playing with his wife—taking her Bible from her, changing rings and fooling around generally to the constant annoyance of others—and the thought at once suggested to me to write to you, knowing your remarkably peculiar way of writing on such topics, and suggest that if, when thinking of a subject to write upon, you should adopt this, it would be read with great interest by a great many, and you would confer a great favor upon me, and hundreds of mankind will call you blessed."

There can be nothing more reprehensible than the custom among frivolous people of carrying the customs and etiquette of the sitting rink into the sanctuary. It is far more consistent to stay away from church entirely and read the Sunday paper on some pretext or other than to whisper and play tag through the litany. Of course young people are more difficult to manage in church, and their spirits are more buoyant than those of more elderly people, so they should not be so harshly dealt with; but a grown man with a full head of whiskers who will go to church and whisper and frolic through the service or the sermon may one day, when it is too late, turn on the fire alarm and get no response.

People who have not respect enough for whatever they are attending to keep quiet and listen, or let others at least, do more to make me doubt and distrust the wide-open policy of Col. Ingersoll than most anybody else.

There are only two kinds of more contemptible people. One is the man who baits his lobster traps with his grand-children, and the other is the man who writes you anonymously on a postal card.

Commie Ill Faw, One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street, writes: "What should I do with callers who come into my house about to go calling myself? (2) What sort of a man was Sitting Bull, personally? Did you meet him while on the frontier?"

A good way to outshoot a disagreeable caller is to come down stairs with your sealskin sash on. Some keep a winter cloak or bonnet handy for such emergencies, and do first rate without getting a reputation for rudeness. It is very painful, indeed, to have a string of callers catch and hold you all through a pleasant afternoon, when you had made calculations on going out and making forty or fifty calls, and feeling sure that with the bright weather you would find no one at home. Sometimes it takes a week in uncertain weather, with more or less people at home, to cover the ground you might on a pleasant afternoon go over in two hours.

SITTING BULL'S SIGNATURE.

2. Yes, I knew Sitting Bull, and got him to sign my album in the summer of 1876. I had a letter to him from the Prince of Wales. Sitting Bull was personally very gentle and courteous to his friends, but a most disagreeable person to invite to your house to meet a mixed company.

A friend of mine asked Mr. Bull to come to dinner and meet the pastor at his house at one time, and he said he would never do so again. The great chief was not in good form. He was ill natured, and swore at table because his luxuriant hair got in the mayonnaise dressing.

Sitting Bull was married three times, two of his wives surviving him. He was liberal in his religious views and bitterly opposed to silk underwear among his people. He scoffed at the teachings of Deists, and did not go to hear the Rev. Joseph Cook lecture, though at one time he could have done so by walking less than nine miles.

Sitting Bull, with better supplies and more encouragement from the war department, would have made a very successful commander, but socially he had no standing at Washington, and so military leaders with less ability but more pull were promoted, while he was kept in the background like a poor boy at a frolic.

A Natural Sanitarium.

The myriad-minded Shakespeare says: "Throw physic to the dogs." A great many people have an idea that Mother Nature has provided remedies for all the ills that flesh is heir to, and that they can be found without the intervention of medical colleges or drug compounds. In support of this they point to thousands of people who have regained health at the various medicinal springs that send forth their healing waters in various parts of the United States. In the West, the most celebrated of these natural sanitariums is Hot Springs of Arkansas. In curative power it outshines all others of the world. The average number of visitors is over one hundred thousand a year, coming not only from all states of the Union, but Europe and South America. The best route to the Hot Springs from the Northwest is "The Burlington," which has its own track from St. Paul and Minneapolis to St. Louis, making close connections with trains for the Springs. It also runs every Saturday evening a through sleeping car from the Twin Cities to Hot Springs without change. Any agent of "The Burlington" or connecting lines can supply you with tickets, or you can write to W. J. C. Kenyon, Gen. Pass. Agent, C. B. & N. R. R., St. Paul, Minn.

At a regular meeting of Zenith City Lodge No. 100, I. O. O. F., held Jan. 9, 1891, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted: Whereas, in view of the loss we have sustained by the decease of our friend and brother and of the still heavier loss sustained by those that were near and dear to him, therefore, be it resolved by Zenith City Lodge No. 100, I. O. O. F., that while we bow with humble submission to the will of the most high, we do not the less mourn for our brother who has been taken from us. Resolved, that in the death of Robert A. Taylor this lodge laments the loss of a brother who was ever ready to proffer the hand of aid and the voice of sympathy to the needy and distressed, an active member of this order whose utmost endeavors were exerted for the welfare and prosperity, a friend and companion who was dear to us all. A citizen whose upright and noble life was a standard of protection to his fellows.

Resolved, that the heartfelt sympathy of this lodge be extended to his family in their affliction.

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the records of this lodge; that the heartfelt testimonial of our sympathy and sorrow be forwarded to the wife of our departed brother.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the Northwestern Odd Fellow and the papers of this city for publication.

KENDALL TALKS POLITICS

Donnelly About Done up in the Senate Already.

WHAT THE DULUTH MEMBERS WILL DO

The Aldermanic Situation as it Appears in Several City Wards.

Hon. H. C. Kendall returned to Duluth this morning to remain over Sunday and to attend to a law case which came up this morning before the municipal court. He states that there is not much show among the hayseed legislators for a republican. They seem to be very bitter against the republicans, much more so than against the democrats.

"They condescended, however, to make the same offer for organization to the republicans that they did to the democrats, but the republicans refused to accept them. We believe, however, that since the alliance and democrats are running things, it is best to give them lots of rope. We do not propose to recognize the alliance at all as a party."

"How about Donnelly, is he not kind of running things down there?" "Well, yes, just at present, but he has already killed himself off. The senate is getting tired of him, and just as soon as the legislature is fairly organized, you will see that his own party will have to sit down on him. All that is necessary to do with Donnelly, with his shifting policy is to let him have his own way until everyone becomes disgusted with his antics."

"How is the Duluth contingent disposed toward the Duluth annexation policy?"

"They will do in the premises whatever the people of Duluth ask of them to do. The matter will be referred to any committee that we ask to have it referred to, and the action of the legislature will be governed by our wishes in the matter. I cannot state what the policy of the Duluth legislators will be on different measures until the subject matter is brought before us in the form of bills and petitions. Then we will be able to pass upon things just as they actually are. I have no idea yet how the different committees will be constituted."

In Ward Two.

T. W. Lemieux will be an aldermanic candidate of the east and central part of the Second ward. His friends are pushing him to run, though he doesn't appear to be falling over himself in his desire to do so. Thus far heard from the other candidates for aldermen in the Second ward are Henry Nolte, W. W. McMillen, R. N. Marble and John LaVaque.

In the First ward it looks at present as if Aldermen Sorenson and James Dingwall would succeed themselves.

In the Third ward Frank Burke is favorably mentioned as a candidate. Capt. Norris has begun an active campaign. Alderman Costello states that he has had enough of aldermanic honors.

In the Fifth ward up to present writing it would seem that A. M. Cox will have but little if any opposition.

In the Sixth ward it looks at present somewhat equally. The alliance has put up Hester Mackins, whom they claim can be easily elected. E. C. Bushnell is the democratic candidate. R. C. Kennedy is a republican and will draw a large vote, but it is likely that H. C. Helm will get a large share of the republican as well as the alliance vote if he decides to run.

GREATEST TIMBER STATE.

The Census Shows Minnesota to Lead all the Rest

AND REVISES THE TOTAL OF PINE.

Killed in the Woods; Hauling on Big Fork; Some Labor Notes.

A census bulletin on the lumber industry in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan is being prepared; the facts and figures from these three states are considered the most important that will be had on the lumber question.

The work of compilation has gone far enough to develop two or three interesting facts. Minnesota is now the chief white pine state in the Union, and the center of white pine operations for the next decade will have passed from Michigan and Wisconsin to the North Star state, most of them coming, probably, to Duluth. It will be shown that Minnesota has more standing white pine than any other state, nearly all of which is tributary to Duluth.

The quantity of pine now standing in Minnesota and the other white pine states has been arrived at by altogether different work from that of ten years ago. The results then were chiefly estimates for all except what was owned by private individuals. This year, in addition to questioning the lumbermen and pine land owners, who have responded readily, the special agents have secured from the state, the railroad companies and the United States figures which show the probable stumpage held by each.

This in Minnesota cuts a big figure from the fact that the United States is probably the largest owner, counting the Red Lake reservation pine. This Red Lake tract is the largest white pine forest in the United States, according to census showing, and the information which the government officials have given the census office relative to this tract will be new and exceedingly interesting when the census completes the bulletin. The inquiries made by the census office have covered the subject from the pine trees to the various forms of manufactured product.

The agents have met little difficulty in getting from the lumbermen the information desired. The work for Minnesota was all in, and the lumber dealers and manufacturers at St. Paul, Minneapolis, Stillwater, Winoona and Duluth had apparently been ready to co-operate with the census office in getting at such facts as would be valuable to the entire lumber interest. The states will be grouped in making the compilations according to their products, and bulletins will be issued in order of importance. This is why Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan, the white pine producers, come together, and the bulletin comes first.

Lumber Notes.

At Trout creek, on the Duluth division of the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic, the Trout Creek Lumber company is organized to put in a fine saw-mill plant and to deal almost exclusively with the eastern market, shipping lumber by rail. Work will be pushed actively. As soon as construction camps are ready a large force of men will be set at work getting out pine.

Peter Forsted was killed at Saunders' logging camp last week on the log landing. A log slipped from the sled and rolled over him, killing him instantly.

Bradley & Hanford report the usual January quiet in lumber matters. Camps are working to a disadvantage through the lack of snow in the woods, but ice roads are being made to serve present purposes.

The Huntress & Brown company is making some slight repairs to its mill. The firm is now shipping some of its fall cut to the East, also finding a large local market.

O. W. Saunders is down from his camps. He reports that hauling began about two weeks ago and is progressing very satisfactorily.

Theatrical Notes.

"Faust up to Date" plays at West Superior tonight. Maggie Mitchell is also one of Manager Condon's attractions.

Work on the detail ornamentation of the Lyceum building has begun. The interior already possesses a theatrical look. Manager Haycock will go to New York soon to book attractions.

A. M. Miller Jr., attended the matinee of "Castles" Saturday. He was warmly greeted by old friends, who were glad to see him recovered from his recent illness.

The Hopper company is practicing and will produce "The Lady of the Lake." Winoona, careless, Kate Castleton comes tomorrow evening, showing her seductive kick for the first time in Duluth in three years, when she played in "Crazy Patch" at the Grand. The London Gaiety company, with Lettie Lind, Leslie and others introduced "Faust up to Date," and since then it has been a success.

Trades and Labor Council.

At the regular meeting of the Trades council yesterday afternoon officers for the next term were elected, as follows: E. Applehagen, president; J. W. Jackson, vice president; T. Gleason, treasurer; L. K. McChesney, financial secretary; George M. Eby, recording and corresponding secretary; H. M. Harris, sergeant-at-arms; H. Sievers, trustee. The reports of the unions showed them to be all in healthy condition. The stonecutters have concluded to ask for eight hours.

Carlton County Court House.

The new court house has just been finished at Northern Pacific Junction at a cost of $9000. It is a handsome structure, brick veneered, commodious in arrangement and comfortably heated with hot water.

GOSPEL NEWS.

Continuing Week of Prayer Services; Other Matters of Interest.

Rev. E. P. Savage, of the Minnesota Children's Aid society spoke in the Endion baptist church and at the Episcopal church yesterday morning. His words were very effective and won many to his noble enterprise.

Rev. George H. Kemp held service yesterday afternoon for the first time at the school house on Myers & Whipples addition to quite a large audience.

The week of prayer services were largely attended at all city churches. Several, notably the First Methodist, First Presbyterian and one or two west end churches will continue them this week.

W. B. Patton, superintendent of Endion baptist Sunday school, was yesterday presented with a handsome lamp as a token of esteem from the teachers of Sunday school.

Preaching services will be held at the First baptist church each evening this week except Saturday. Friday evening Rev. A. W. Ringland will speak.

IN THE PACIFIC.

Forces of the United States and British Navies Now There.

The coming season will see a more powerful concentration of American war vessels in Pacific waters than has been known there for many years. This policy is justified by the growing importance of that ocean, political and commercial. Besides its routine station duties, rarely does it fail to present some special subject for naval attention. At one time the cause of solicitude is in Chili or Peru; at another in Samoa; presently in the Hawaiian Islands; or again in Central America, or in the Carolines, or in Bering sea. That the seal troubles are now nearing a critical stage is obvious.

The following are the fleets of the two nations, Great Britain and the United States, in that ocean or ordered there:

Great Britain—Warships, armored, 4 9-inch 6 6-inch guns, 470 men, 10 1/2 knots; Champion, unarmored, 12 small guns, 250 men, 12 knots; Nymphe, unarmored, 8 5-inch guns, 175 men, 14 1/2 knots; Dolphin, unarmored, 8 5-inch guns, 175 men, 14 1/2 knots; Esbly, unarmored, 10 5-inch guns, 175 men, 15 knots; Phœnix, gunboat, 6 4-inch guns, 100 men, 13 knots. While probably ordered are: Unknown, gunboat, 10 5-inch guns, 13 knots. United States—Charlestown, armored, 2 8-inch, 6 6-inch guns, 325 men, 18 knots; Mohican, armored, 8 guns, 225 men, 11 knots; Iroquois, armored, 7 guns, 200 men, 11 knots; San Francisco, armored, 12 6-inch guns, 400 men, 20 knots; Swatara, unarmored, 8 guns, 225 men, 12 knots; Marion, unarmored, 8 guns, 225 men, 12 knots; Omaha, unarmored, 12 small guns, 275 men, 13 knots; Alert, unarmored, 4 guns, 175 men; Thetis, unarmored, 2 small guns, 180 men, 9 knots; Ranger, unarmored, 1 gun, 100 tons; Pinia, unarmored, 4 howitzers; Revenue cutters, four. Nearly built in Pacific yards—Full armored coast defense vessel of great power; Protected cruiser, 20 knots, 5000 tons, 400 men.

Should we see the San Francisco, after a time, crossing the Pacific to cruise on the Asiatic coast, and the Marion and other vessels departing for distant stations, the inference could fairly be drawn that the Bering sea negotiations were progressing favorably, and also that no cause of anxiety existed at Honolulu or Apia. Meanwhile we may note what naval force there is now at hand on the Pacific station for the opening of the sealing season of 1891.

Women in the Year 2000.

As a sort of supplementary chapter to the "Looking Backward," Mr. Edw. Bellamy has written an article for the February issue of The Ladies' Home Journal under the title of "Women in the Year 2000," in which the famous nationalist will sketch woman, marriage, courtship, etc., as they will be regarded in the year 2000.

A "Specimen Brick."

The above expression was common enough a few years ago, but has now been relegated to a back seat by some of the newer slang. But few people know how much of a "chestnut" the phrase really is—supposing it to have been born in the days of their fathers. Its real age is not less than three thousand years, for an old Greek writer of fables and parables uses it in a short story. A man wished to sell a brick house. The purchaser not being able to go and look at the property, the owner dug a single brick out of the wall, and carried it to his customer, that he might judge what sort of a house he was trading for. "Specimen Bricks" from "The Burlington" are speed safely, sure connections, courteous attention, solid comfort, living up to promises, in short, all those things that make a perfect railroad. Tickets, time tables, and any information needed can be obtained from the local agents of the line or connecting lines, or by addressing W. J. C. Kenyon, general passenger agent, Chicago, Burlington & Northern railroad, St. Paul, Minn.

SECRETARY THOMPSON GETS THERE.

He Makes a Valuable Address Before the Hudson River Commission.

At the convention held in Albany last week to agitate the deepening and improvement of the Hudson river from its mouth to Albany, S. A. Thompson, secretary of the Duluth chamber of commerce, was a guest. At the meeting of Wednesday evening given by the Albany club to the delegates, Mr. Thompson made the chief speech and was most highly complimented. The address was published in full, but The Herald has room for only about half the address, leaving out those parts which are already so well known to its readers as to need no repetition.

Mr. Thompson said he was there to speak for Duluth and as representative of the people of a large portion of the West, and he spoke in favor of the improvement of the Hudson, because the cheap transportation furnished by the waterway is the corner stone of our prosperity.

It is exceedingly interesting to note the successive reductions which have been made in railway freight rates, for the average rate per ton per mile received by all railways in the United States, which in 1882 was 1.230 cents, had fallen in 1880 to .970 cents, a reduction of 22 per cent. I have here a table showing the average charges for carrying a bushel of wheat from Chicago to New York for each year, from 1808 to 1883; and by each of the three possible methods, viz., all rail, lake and rail, and lake, canal and Hudson river. From this it appears that the all-rail rate has fallen in that time from 42.6 cents to 14 cents per bushel, while the water rate had dropped from 25.3 cents to 4.53 cents per bushel. That is to say, freight rates by rail have been reduced until the last price named is only one-third that last mentioned, but during the same time the all-water rate has been reduced to less than one-fifth of the rate first named. And the water rate has always been below the rail rate by a percentage ranging from 25 to 57.5.

From the careful records kept at the St. Marys Falls canal, it appears that the average price per ton per mile received by vessels in the carrying trade of Lake Superior was, in 1880, 0.15 cent; the total amount moved was 7,516,022 tons, and it was carried an average distance of 790.4 miles. The average rate on all railways in the United States in the same year was .970 cent, or more than six times as much. In other words, to move the same amount of freight, the same distance by rail would have cost in round numbers $50,000,000 more than it did cost to move it by water. Wheat has been carried from Chicago to Buffalo for one cent per bushel, or .04 cent per ton per mile, and thousands of tons of coal have been carried from Buffalo to Duluth at twenty-five cents per ton or .025 cent per ton per mile.

A Western railway president related some time ago an incident of a conversation with a president of an Eastern railway, and added: "I might have continued to share his belief in the triumph of the railway over the steamship, if I had not occasion to build and operate a line of steamships myself. These boats carry 2700 tons of freight on the present depth of water at the Sault, and make the run from Duluth to Buffalo in three days and a half, and cost an average of $120 per day." Calling the distant from Duluth to Buffalo 1000 miles, and we find these figures are equivalent to .015 cent per ton mile, only one-twenty-sixth the cost on the Lake Shore road."

It costs $20 on the most favorably situated railroad in the United States to do what is done on the great lakes for one dollar. These apparently disconnected figures are, in reality, very closely related, and I have set them in array as a support to my first conclusion, viz., that under existing conditions it is utterly impossible for railways to carry freight as cheaply as it can be carried by water.

The Erie canal was at first built to accommodate boats of about eighty tons. Its enlargement to accommodate boats of 210 tons effected a reduction of 50 per cent in freights. The actual cost of freight movement on the Erie canal at present is about .2 cent per ton mile, only half as much as the lowest rail rate, while, as we have seen above, the cost in lake steamships is but 1.26th of that rate. Ocean freights are still less; hence my second conclusion is that the cost of water transportation decreases as the size of the carrier increases.

Supposing, then, for the moment that other things are to remain as they are, the Duluth chamber of commerce favors the proposed improvement because it will make the city of Albany an ocean port, and will increase the prosperity of her manufacturers, her mechanics, her wholesalers, her merchants and citizens generally. We favor it because it establishes lines of communication. We favor it because it strengthens the great through line of water transportation. We favor it because it will be in connection with things as they now are, a direct, positive, appreciable benefit to us. But most of all we favor it because we do not want things to remain as they are, and we believe that this improvement will help to change them. The net cost of water transportation on the great lakes has been attained on a draft of fifteen feet. The appropriation is made, and the work is now in progress which will give a depth of twenty feet. Speaking to a convention called in the interest of the waterway, James J. Hill, of the Great Northern road, said, "The government engineers proposed to give us twenty feet of water. I promise you that whenever they will guarantee me eighteen feet I will build a line of boats that will carry 6000 tons instead of 3000, which is now the limit, and cut the present cost of lake transportation square in two. Vessels carrying 5000 or 6000 tons will do well enough, and judging from the figures we have found for vessels carrying 2700 tons, one will need some kind of a financial microscope in order to be able to see the ton-mile rate for vessels twice the size. These are not wild dreams, but certainties of the near future, and do you suppose, gentlemen, when vessels of that class can come up the Hudson as far as Albany and come east on the lakes as far as Buffalo, that we shall long rest content with a six-foot ditch between? When I say "we" I speak no longer for Duluth alone, but as a representative of the mighty commerce of the lakes. Speaking, as a representative of this mighty commerce of the West, I say that a direct outlet to the sea is a necessity, and that we shall have it, sooner or later, by one route or another, is a certainty. All possible routes through United States territory converge at Albany, and the nature of the report which you gentlemen shall make will have an important bearing on the question whether that route shall lie entirely in peace or war, adding in the one case to our prosperity and making certain our protection in the other, or whether it shall lie through Canadian waters. As for the people of Duluth, whether considered in relation to the present benefits or the prospective changes it will help to bring, we are unreservedly in favor of the deepening of the Hudson river.

Andrew Jackson Memorial.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.—The Ladies' Hermitage association of Pennsylvania is holding its annual meeting today. The association was organized for the purpose of assuming possession of the house and tomb of Gen. Andrew Jackson and the twenty-five acres surrounding, with the intention of improving and beautifying the grounds and making the memory of the hero perpetual. It is also in contemplation to make it a national museum. The estimated cost is $15,000, and it is hoped that this amount will be subscribed within the next year.

Goggell for Senator.
BOSTON, Jan. 12.—The latest sensation in the senatorship contest in New Hampshire is the report that ex-Governor Goggell may possibly enter the field. Recently his friends have had interviews with him, the result of which has not been made public, but there are those who predict that ex-Governor Goggell will be in the list of aspirants.

Milneau Begins His Fast.
DETROIT, Mich., Jan. 12.—Arthur Milneau, the rival of Succi, the faster, today commenced a thirty-day fast. He will abstain from all foods and liquids except croton water. He will receive $1000 if he is successful, and $500 additional, if he prolongs the fast to forty-five days.

Burned to Death.
ELMIRA, N. Y., Jan. 12.—The dwelling of John Boyer at Big Pond, Pa., seven miles south of here, caught fire at midnight Friday. The family escaped but Mrs. Boyer, who returned to the house to rescue some money, was overcome and sank exhausted on the threshold and burned to death in sight of her husband and children.

Remarkable Recovery.
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 12.—The case of Henry Blankenship, who was struck on the head in a drunken row Saturday, is arousing interest in the medical profession here. His assailant cut a slice from Blankenship's skull, three by four inches in size, and some of the brain matter escaped. The physicians at first said the case was hopeless. He has recovered consciousness and is improving steadily. He is able to talk and says he is going to get well.

A HEALTHY STIR-UP.

Almost anything is better for a city than stagnation and apathy. The impositions, nuisances, and sickness that are now strutting Duluth up count for good therefore in one way. They are waking up the public to demand that the needs of the city shall be rightly provided for. Ideas differ, as is natural, as to the causes of our troubles, but all can unite in searching out the best ways and means of remedy. We want plain speaking and prompt relief, and nothing is to be gained for the city by covering up or slighting any just cause of complaint. The Herald proposes to do its part to keep the stir up until all such complaints are done away with, but there is no sense in wasting time or breath in mere vituperation and air-beating.

The call is imperative for a water supply, certain, pure, sufficient and reasonable in cost. We want a better and cheaper gas service and city lighting. We want better city cleaning and provision for the dumping and use of sweepings and refuse. How shall we get what we want? We do not believe that the city will get a thoroughly satisfactory water and gas service until it runs and operates its own works, and we are glad to be assured that provision will be made in the city charter revision for this acquisition. Meanwhile we urge investigation by the board of health or other competent authority by direction of the city council of the condition of the intake supply pipe and sewer discharges, and the recommendation of any needed requisition of repair, extension or precaution which the city can enforce.

Unquestionably competent analysis of the water at the intake and from house supply outlets, will determine whether it is dangerously tainted or impure, and such an analysis should be ordered at once, without relying on puttering and partial examinations. If repeated analyses under the differing conditions of the flow into the intake pipe detect no harmful impurity, this vital point will be settled to the relief of the public from apprehension, and it should be settled for this reason if for no other. But if harmful impurities are detected there should be expert determination of the fitting position of the intake opening, and the pipe should be shifted as soon as feasible. If the water company neglects or refuses to do what is required after such a determination, it should be compelled to do its duty by any legal power which the city has to enforce it. The proper protection of the city should be had, even if the city has to provide it at its own cost and sue the company to recover expenses.

Pure water we will and must have, but we presume that the city will be obliged to put up with its deficient water supply service and poor and costly gas service until it furnishes its own water and gas. We may see a surprising change of policy and transformation act before then, but we expect no better than we have been accustomed to get from the scant mercies of the company. We can, however, progress toward a better clean-up of the city, and in this direction we are glad to note some headway already. The business center of Superior street, for instance, was actually swept last Saturday at midnight, and quite smartly cleaned up without offense to anybody. Such working hours might always be chosen, and the suffering public hopes they will be. Then we note from the recent reports of the board of health a remarkable activity in removing dead cats, cleaning alleys, dumping refuse and wiping the slovenly face of the city. We are assured that a more adequate provision will be made to carry on this good work, and we hope the board will get every cent it needs to keep the city clean, and that there will be no divided responsibility for this service. Then let negligent private citizens and non-residents be ashamed or constrained in some way into cleaning up their back yards and vacant lots, and we shall have a city with a winning face.

FIRST HUDSON, THEN ERIE.

The importance attached to the projected improvement of the Hudson river waterway is clearly shown in the extended reports of the hearing before the United States commission in the Albany newspapers. Representatives of the leading commercial bodies of New York and the great lake region were present, and the address made by Secretary Thompson of our chamber of commerce, in promotion of the improvement was recognized as one of the ablest arguments before the commission. On the evening of the day of the hearing, a banquet was given to the delegates at the Albany club, and addresses made by Lieutenant Governor Jones and others. Here again the speech of Secretary Thompson was a notable feature, reported in full and with distinguished commendation by the Albany morning journals. His address is unquestionably a remarkably clear and forcible presentation of the importance and relative advantage of our internal waterway commerce. From it we make an extract in The Herald today contrasting very effectively the cost of railway and waterway transportation.

Oshkosh people flatter themselves that they will drink no more bugs. Strainers have been put on the water works reservoir. Will strainers keep out bacteria? Suppose Manager Craig try it and see.

The Marine Review says there is little in the story that the American Steel Barge company will put in a $1,000,000 ship building plant on the West coast which was first announced in The Herald. Possibly the Marine Review knows more about this matter than does Capt. McDougall, who gave The Herald its information.

The Pennsylvania Railway company after several years' trial has concluded to abandon all kinds of advertising except that in regular newspapers. For over two years past the passenger department has been experimenting to ascertain if a given sum of money expended in posters, flyers, hangers, etc., or an equal sum in newspaper advertising brought the best and most satisfactory returns for the money invested. Newspaper advertising was found to be read by more people than any other. Hereafter the Pennsylvania will confine its advertising to the newspapers through which medium it will reach the great masses of the people.

THREE THINGS

To the Editor of The Herald.
In a recent interview the health officer said he didn't care to risk a theory as to where sickness comes from, but he ventured to "predict that if the present warm, open weather continues we will have typhoid fever as never before through the rest of the winter and long into the spring." He leaves it clearly to be inferred that the prevailing typhoid results from our weather. Now can such a position be correct? If so, why do we not learn of large numbers of cases in Tower, Minneapolis and St. Paul, for the same weather has existed in those places as here? Does not the theory fall to the ground? I call attention to the statement, as it is made in such a way that persons unthinkingly may adopt such a theory and allow other, and perhaps the true theory, to escape notice.

The health officer will confer a boon on the city if he succeeds in having the city cleaned. If our board of health has not power enough to keep clean streets and alleys, let it be given without delay.

The idea of building a garbage crematory as advanced by "Citizen" in Saturday evening's Herald is a good one and can not be acted on too soon. If the city has dumping grounds near the lake, which can not fail to offend the sight, assault the nose, and scatter germs of disease, how long will it be before they are exhausted? Build now and be rid once for all of one of the debated questions. Again, as the controversy about the intake pipe the council and board of health seem to be at a loss as to the cause of the fever. Granted the sewage does not now reach the mouth of the intake pipe, as the water works management may contend, how long before it will? Where is the man who will say the moment it will so reach it. To the constantly increasing streams from the city has this summer been added Lakeside. Next will come Lakeside. Our sewage has wonderfully increased since the laying of the intake pipe. I never look at the lake after it has been storm-tossed, and it has assumed that red-earth color, suggesting a thorough rinsing of all elements in the water, without thinking of the deadly sewage. Can our city fathers place a guard with microscope in hand on the forefront of the ever-increasing accumulation of sewage in the water as it insidiously creeps to the danger point, to notify us and warn us, or will they be sleeping perhaps quietly in their beds when it shall occur? Have they ever employed any person to examine if there is any break in the pipe? If not, why not? Is there any higher services they can do for us? This city is not to take the word of the water company. The simple rules of business dictate that we should know ourselves.

I know of a city where a fever raged, caused by impure water, and though years have passed, whenever the names of the city fathers or water works managers are mentioned in connection with the epidemic there are hard words. There might be the boldest kind of an excuse for delaying the extension of the intake pipe, if the city was to grow no larger; but the pipe has got to be extended soon, and why not now? Especially when it has been so many times predicted that we are to have a city of 500,000 to 1,000,000.

Three things to do are:
Build a sewage crematory.
Extend the intake pipe.
Employ some person periodically to examine the intake pipe.

SEEN AND HEARD.

In conversation with a gentleman from Dakota, in which the present delightful weather was the theme, he said: "I believe that there is going to be a boom in farm property the next few years; for one thing, there is every indication that these open winters will bring about those climatic conditions that have been wanting, for the past four or five years, namely increased moisture. It is a generally accepted theory, and experience goes to prove that it is more a condition than a theory—that there is more precipitation following an open winter than when we have the usual intense snow and cold. The snows come later, and in consequence, when the thaw takes place, the moisture is retained to a greater extent. Then there is more rain during the growing season. It is a fact that the seasons run in cycles. But even if we do not have the moisture that is necessary, the people will see the necessity of irrigation, and that will insure good crops, under any condition of drought."

"I would like to suggest a plan that would be an excellent idea for the St. Louis townspeople to follow out in putting their First division on the market," said a friend today. Instead of drawing by lot or following the "first-come-first-served" plan, the company might have a number of tickets, numbered, and advertise a week or two before the day of sale that tickets could be had, and require each one who applied to deposit $5 or $10, which would be deducted from the earnest money when the purchase was made. On the day of sale the tickets would be drawn, first number first choice. This plan would be fair to all, as there would be no more tickets issued than were paid for; the company would have the money to show that everything was square in the conduct of the sale, and all crowding and trouble of that kind would be obviated."

Now that Charley Mitchell is back in this country there is promised another squinty and bitter war. As a writer of challenges and a master of pugilistic sarcasm, Mitchell is unquestionably the first in his class. As he is also a plucky and scientific fighter, his words are received with some degree of respect by most of the pugilists except Mr. Sullivan. The name of Mitchell still throws the Boston actor into a condition of exasperation and rage, and Mitchell is well aware of the fact. That the old series of recriminations, charges and counter charges will be taken up where it was dropped after the Mitchell Sullivan fight no one doubts.

The Hopper company is one of the few operative organizations making money this season. The company, headed by Locke and Davis, the Juch managers, for half a year, but is now entirely controlled by Hopper and others. A better balanced company never appeared in Duluth, and that the company have become acquainted with the city it will not be the last time they will book up this way. I met a number of the company Saturday night, among them Mr. Hopper, Miss Fox and Miss O'Keefe. All were charmed with the town. "I had only heard of Duluth in a second-hand sort of way," said the comedian. "I had an idea, from what I was told in other Western cities, that Duluth was a weird place with a musical, Proctor Knott name. It is the most beautiful city I have visited, and when we can draw the biggest—and very appreciative—audience in the history of Temple Opera, you may rest assured that this visit will not be our last." Miss O'Keefe and Miss Fox had both been over the boulevard Saturday morning. "The view is magnificent," they said. "We have never been West before, but like our experiences very much." Miss O'Keefe, though only two days in town, was already an enthusiastic Duluthian. She looked the situation over with an eye to business, and decided to invest some of her earnings in Duluth realty, joining in enterprise Odeth Tyler Chevalier Scovel, Arthur Miller and other theatrical people.

It is a question in my mind whether man isn't the winner of the two sexes, at least in his own estimation. This came to me last night as I sat in the Spalding and watched the crowd disport itself in front of the be mirrored clerk's counter. There were all sorts and conditions of men in the gathering, and many were the admiring glances turned towards the reflections in the glass. One real estate man was especially interesting, for he walked back and forth casting coquettish eyes at his figure as he walked. He was a well-built, well-dressed man, and he struck one to suit him; this he kept for the evening. Dignified old codgers, whose bump of vanity should have been knocked out by hard contact with the world, smooth-faced smoothies, whose whiskers into better proportions and ogle themselves. Young men, with pretence to dushness, are bold and blase. They walk right straight up to the mirror and adjust cravats, fiercely sweep their mustaches into more heart-breaking curves, then meander away, perfectly satisfied with the appearance they cut.

THEIR INNERMOST THOUGHTS.

Major Tedford: The outlook for development in iron lands this year is very good.
Rev. George H. Kemp: Instead of all the professed Christians being engaged in warfare with the common enemy, half the Christian church is in hospital. It takes the time and energy of one-half to look after the other half. The true worker is ever the healthy Christian. The weekly soul tends into more heart-breaking curves, then meander away, perfectly satisfied with the appearance they cut.

Central Avenue

Is already the principal business street in the city, with wide sidewalks, cedar block pavement and line of electric railway; it will continue the main artery to which all other streets must lead. Compare these prices and advantages with other property at the head of the lake and see if there is anything that offers such promises of a sharp advancement and at the same time containing so small an element of risk.

THE POLICE MATRON.

Council Wants an Ordinance Before Appointment.

TO OPEN THE DRY GOODS HOUSE.

Some Political Points; Registration Begins Tomorrow; General Local Matters.

The matter of appointment of a police matron has been referred to the police committee of the city council which is not inclined to make a report on the matter at a very early date. There is no authority in the charter providing for the appointment of such an official, and the city attorney is of the opinion that an ordinance should be passed creating the position, although it is possible under the charter for the council to elect a police matron. There will probably be no use for a matron until the old county jail or some other place is provided for the accommodation of female prisoners.

While there has been considerable talk about reserving the old county jail for the purpose, some of the property owners in the near vicinity of the county jail are anxious to have it torn down, and thus far seem to have the most influence with the county commissioners in the matter. Mayor Davis is of the opinion that the city will take no action until there is a suitable place provided for the incarceration of female prisoners.

AN AUSPICIOUS EVENT.

The Opening of the First Wholesale Dry Goods House in Duluth.

On the evening of the coming Saturday a formal opening of the Duluth Dry Goods company's building will take place. The occasion will be made one of enjoyment by a reception, at which refreshments will be served, and a musical program rendered. The large hall on the top floor may be used for dancing. On Saturday the great building will be thrown open for public inspection. The elevators are now running and the electric plant has illuminated the house a few days past.

There is now in stock about $150,000 worth of goods, with invoices in constant receipt. The company is already working up a trade all through Duluth's rightful territory. Manufacturing will not begin before next fall.

The Boot and Shoe House.

H. S. Parker, manager of the Duluth Boot and Shoe company, is expected to arrive in the city this week. As soon as Mr. Parker gets here work will be pushed in getting his wholesale house ready for the transaction of business.

POLITICAL TALK.

News and Rumors Connected With the Coming Election, the Registration.

In the Fourth ward besides A. C. Weiss and J. A. Mannheim, the avowed candidates for alderman, it is stated by leading republicans that a third candidate will be in the field who will get the republican support.

Alderman Sinclair has not sent in his resignation yet. He may send it in to the council tonight or he may hold office until a successor is elected. He has informed City Clerk Budden that he may declare that two aldermen are to be elected in the Second ward.

A convention of the alliance in the Fourth ward selected J. A. Mannheim as candidate to succeed himself as alderman. They selected A. McLean, J. H. Baker, Anton Ringsred, John Krogstad and E. W. Olson as delegates to the city convention, which meets Wednesday. A meeting of the leading democrats was held Saturday night in the Fourth ward, who decided to call a ward caucus to nominate an alderman. The candidate without doubt will be A. C. Weiss.

For Registration.

Tomorrow is the first day for registration. The other two days on which registration can take place are Jan. 20 and 27.—Everyone should see that his name is on the list. The registering places will be the same as those of last fall's election.

READY FOR STOCK.

The Bridge Company Gets Down to Business Quickly; Opens Stock Books.

In accordance with legal provisions, the stock books of the Wisconsin and Minnesota Bridge company are now open for subscriptions. The company issues $75,000 worth of stock, and it is considered a good investment. This particular bridge between St. Louis and New Duluth will be used by seven railroads, and among others the Duluth & Winnipeg is now negotiating for it. Other bridges will undoubtedly be built, and the St. Louis company urges the necessity of building others, but this one will be put across the river at once. It is expected that two days will see enough money subscribed to build the bridge. Official notice of the opening of stock books will be found in another column today.

The Duluth, Red Wing & Southern survey has been finished to St. Croix. Arrangements for grading will now be made.

Riparian Rights.

The findings of fact and conclusions of law by Judge Ensign in Gilbert vs. Eldridge were filed Saturday. The judge said that the relief asked violates the vested rights of the defendants. It asks for valuable property rights without compensation. It does not coincide with my convictions of what is right or just. I cannot sanction or enforce it. The supreme court will pass upon this case.

Skillful Taxidermy.

Some of the finest specimens of taxidermy ever exhibited in Duluth, can now be seen at Luschke's store on West Superior street. They are the work of John L. Davis of Little Canada, Wis., who is rapidly acquiring great proficiency in this line. Among the collection is a half deer. It is splendidly mounted and reflects great credit upon Mr. Davis' skill in this line.

IS IT STABLE?

President Blackstone Gives Reasons From the Alton Standpoint.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—The list of railroads that are parties to the Western Traffic association does not include the Chicago, St. Paul & Kansas City nor the Chicago & Alton road. The effect and permanence of the agreement may depend on the attitude of these two roads. T. B. Blackstone, president of the Alton road, said he could express no opinion whatever on the probable efficiency or permanence of the new organization because he was not sufficiently acquainted with its plan or the agreements entered into by the roads forming it. His road was in favor of anything that promised stability of rates with fairness to all parties interested, and if the new association seemed likely to produce that effect, it would not be antagonized or hindered in any way by the interests he represented. "Whether our road joins the association or not," he continued, "depends on two elements. One is our conclusion as to whether or not it seems likely to be able to effect the purposes for which it is organized. The other element is the question whether we are wanted in it or not. In short, our position now is practically the same as it was when we were invited to be represented at the first meeting held at Morgan's house. In the light of past experience, there is more to hope for than to expect from this new agreement."

Would we Could Borrow There.

BERLIN, Jan. 12.—The Imperial bank has reduced its rate of discount to 4 per cent. The government is about to issue a loan of 150,000,000 marks for railway purposes.

CITY BRIEFS.

General Manager Fisher has telegraphed that he will return from Baltimore early next week.

The $300 schoolhouse at Northern Pacific Junction was burned the other day. Work is to begin at once on a new brick building. Insurance of $2400 was on the school.

Panton & Watson have bought the Tillotson stock at 67½ cents on the dollar, the total value being $52,000. W. Neracher, the Cleveland, Ohio, fire sprinkler manufacturer, arrived in the city last evening. He is the maker of the Neracher system of water piping for protection against fire. He has secured the contract for putting his system in elevators B, C and H and that of the Imperial mill.

It is said that an offer has been made M. B. Harrison for the level piece of land west of Twenty-eighth avenue west by a local syndicate, which will use the property for a driving park.

The following variations in temperature were recorded at Pioneer Fuel company's office, Hotel St. Louis, 326 W. Superior street: 12 m. 20°; 3 p. m. 23°; 6 p. m. 28°; 9 p. m. 26°; 7 a. m. 13°; 9 a. m. 10°; 12 m. 7°. Maximum, 30°; minimum, 7°; daily range, 23°.

The chamber of commerce will hold its regular meeting tomorrow. Secretary Thompson will return to Duluth Saturday.

Two entire floors of the warehouse of the Duluth Dry Goods company are filled with goods.

A story is going the rounds that copper has been discovered in paying quantities near the headwaters of the Nemadji in Carlton county.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Of The Wisconsin and Minnesota Bridge Company, a Corporation Organized Under the Laws of Wisconsin.

To all to whom it may concern, notice is hereby given that a bill has been introduced in congress "to authorize the construction and maintenance of a bridge across the St. Louis river, at some feasible and convenient point from the townsite of St. Louis in Douglas county, Wisconsin, to the townsite of New Duluth in St. Louis county, Minnesota," and that, by the terms of said bill, The Wisconsin and Minnesota Bridge company, which proposes to build under said act, as required, upon the introduction of the bill, to give public notice as follows:

"That subscriptions to the capital stock of said company will be received at its office in Duluth, Minnesota, up to and until 4 o'clock p. m. on the 23rd day of February, 1891, at which time the books for subscription shall be closed, and, during that period the company is bound to accept the subscriptions of said stock offered by any person or corporation; and it is further bound to allot to any subscriber subscribing before said books are closed, if required, such proportion of said capital as he shall be entitled to if the whole amount were divided equally among all the applicants applying before the books are closed."

And notice is hereby given that said books of subscription are open at the headquarters of the company in the office of the St. Louis Land Improvement company, in the Phoenix block, at Duluth, Minnesota, and any person or corporation is entitled to become a subscriber to said capital stock. The capital stock of said company is $75,000, and is divided into shares of $100 each. The articles of incorporation may be seen at said office, and any further information may be obtained at the office.

Rev. Maxson of Menominee preached in the hall last evening to a large audience.

A statement from the City Committee.

An item in this morning's News intimates that the committee having in charge the matter of presenting a petition for a city charter has not used due diligence in pushing the work. It must be remembered that in a place as scattered as is West Duluth it is no easy task to secure the signatures of 700 or 800 voters. The committee has only allowed those who are actual, duly qualified voters to sign the petition, and now has over 700 names. There has been one obstacle that has made this process slow, the tactics adopted by the opposition. A petition claimed to be for a city charter was started, when in fact it was opposed to such a charter. They circulated this among a number of the foreign population and have many signers who were misled. This matter will no doubt come up in another shape before long, as we have several very intelligent witnesses who are prepared to testify to these facts, feeling very bitter at the manner in which they were deceived.

COMMITTEE.

Wanted—A good girl for general housework in small family. Apply at the Boston store, West Duluth.

WEST SUPERIOR

The Standard Iron works will put up a brick foundry building, 50 by 80 ft. New machinery will be put in. The capacity will thus be greatly enlarged.

The salvation army expects to make a beginning in West Superior as well as Duluth during the coming week, and will start with at least six members in each city. The proceedings in Duluth will be conducted in English and those in Superior in Swedish. A detachment is expected from Minneapolis to assist.

The Evening Telegram now gets the full United Press telegraph service—10,000 words a day, carefully edited—the same as that of The Herald, and the two papers now get the best report of any at the head of the lake.

A RELIABLE FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

That is the Character Almost Universally Given to

THE WEEKLY INTER OCEAN.

So great is its popularity that for years it has had the LARGEST CIRCULATION of any Chicago weekly newspaper. It is ably and carefully edited in every department with a special view to its usefulness in THE HOME, THE WORKSHOP, and THE BUSINESS OFFICE.

It is a Consistent Republican Newspaper,

but discusses all public questions candidly and ably. While it gives fair treatment to political opponents, its history OPPOSES TO TRUSTS AND MONOPOLIES as antagonistic to both public and private interests. THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT of the paper is excellent, and has among its contributors some of the MOST POPULAR AUTHORS of the day. THE FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC CORRESPONDENCE, SERIAL AND SHORT STORIES are the equal of those of any similar publication in the country.

The Youth's Department, * Curiosity Shop, * Woman's Kingdom, * and * The Home ARE IN THEMSELVES EQUAL TO A MAGAZINE.

In addition to all this the NEWS OF THE WORLD is given in its columns every week. In all departments it is carefully edited by competent men employed for that purpose.

THE PRICE OF THE WEEKLY INTER OCEAN IS $1.00 PER YEAR.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY INTER OCEAN is published each Monday and Thursday morning, and is an excellent publication for those who can not secure a daily paper regularly and are not satisfied with a weekly.

THE PRICE OF THE SEMI-WEEKLY INTER OCEAN IS $2.00 PER YEAR

By Special Arrangement with the Publishers of

SCRIBNER'S MAGAZINE

That Magazine and The Weekly Inter Ocean are Both Sent to Subscribers One Year for Two Dollars and Ninety Cents. TEN CENTS LESS THAN THE PRICE OF THE MAGAZINE ALONE.

The wife and children of Angus Gillespie and Miss Armstrong, sister of Mrs. Gillespie, arrived in Duluth Saturday from their home in Toronto. Mr. Gillespie has been here a few weeks and will take a place with the Duluth Dry Goods company. He is an expert accountant and credit man, and is temporarily helping the force of the First National bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Murdo McKenzie are happy over the advent of a 12½-pound boy at their home, 609 East Third street, on the 9th inst.

Mayor M. J. Davis will leave for Tacoma in a day or two to visit his daughter, who has been in ill health for some time.

R. L. Knebel, of the North Star Construction company, has gone to St. Paul on business.

F. J. Mathewson returned today from Ashland where he spent Sunday with his family.

F. A. Challen returned today from Toronto.

The Milwaukee Wisconsin says: Among the visitors at the Whale club rooms last evening was Capt. Sam Shannon of Duluth, who is en route to lower lake cities on a business trip. Capt. Shannon is well known through his connection with the Union Steamboat company's fleet. He retired from the command of the flyer Chesager a year ago last fall. He had then been in the employ of the corporation twenty-eight years, during twenty-one of which he commanded various steamers on the line with such uniform success that he rose to the rank of "fleet commanders," as the whalers term it.

H. S. Pickands, of the Minnesota Iron company, is at the Spaulding.

KICKING AT A COMMITTEE.

Objections to the Chamber of Commerce Committee on Annexation.

Prominent Duluthians are kicking considerable over the personnel of the committee lately appointed from the chamber of commerce to report on the advisability of the annexation of the suburbs to the city of Duluth.

They claim that certain members on that committee are strongly committed in the matter and will do all they can to prevent annexation. They state that the chamber of commerce was responsible for defeating legislation for joining the suburbs to Duluth before and it now looks as if it might be again.

Friends of the measure state that Duluth can never get money enough under the 5 per cent bond limit of taxable property to purchase the gas and water plant until they increase the limits of the city and include valuable suburban property.

DAVIS WILL RESIGN.

But Not Until After the Election is Over; Appoint a Successor.

Special Judge Davis of the municipal court was seen by a Herald reporter today. He stated that he had withdrawn his resignation and would not tender it again until after election.

"I will tender my resignation on or before March 4, and probably right after election. Then Governor Merriam will have to appoint a successor. I cannot afford to give the time required to the duties of the office."

Judge Davies would give no reasons for publication for the withdrawal of his resignation so as to defeat the election of a successor at the coming municipal election. It is known that Governor Merriam refused to appoint J. H. Brigham, recommended by the Duluth bar, after accepting Judge Davies' resignation and some of the attorneys go so far as to say that the rulers of the iron range gave the governor to understand that they did not want Brigham. Judge Davies stated today that he would not act as prosecuting attorney for the county.

The Court.

Before Judge Stearns today William Shatto plead not guilty to the charge of rape. Emil Jutila plead guilty to forgery, but not guilty to passing forged paper. Joseph Rutan plead guilty to grand larceny and Grant Fisher, after a motion to quash indictment had been denied. Wesley Gould was arraigned for assault and given a day to plead. Case 130, Quick vs. Minnesota Iron company, is on trial.

Sugar Trust Goes With a Roar on the Stock Exchange.

HENRY CLEW'S BRIGHT RESUME.

The Local Market Situation; Stock Increases; Chicago and New York Markets.

The market opened here today with a strong feeling on cash car lot wheat for milling purposes and a weaker feeling in cash regular and May. News was of a bullish nature largely. The government crop report was construed bullish on account of the fact that nearly 50,000,000 bu of wheat out of the 55,000,000 probably estimated surplus has already been shipped. The report of the visible supply showed a decrease in wheat of 335,000 bu and in oats of 10,000 bu, while corn showed an increase of 67,000 bu. In spite of this, however, Duluth followed the Chicago and New York weakness. Cash wheat sold in car lots briskly in the forenoon for milling purposes No. 1 northern selling at 80½¢ and 90¢ and No. 2 northern at 84¢ and 85¢ according to the excellence of the sample. Cash No. 1 hard closed without sale at 90¢ and the other two grades at 87¢ and 81½¢ respectively. May wheat opened at 98½¢ for the No. 1 grade, but followed the weakness of outside markets selling at 98½¢ and 98½¢. In the last hour the demand for May No. 1 hard was good and the close was firm at 98½¢ bid and 94¢ for the two grades. No trading was done in January wheat. Carrying charges were 7½¢.

The closing prices today were as follows:

	Cash	Jan.	May
No. 1 hard	90½	90½	98½
No. 1 Northern	81	81	94
No. 2 Northern	81½	81½	94

Cars on track: Wheat, 32; flax, 1; last year wheat, 20. Receipts: Wheat, 14,375 bu; shipments, 5679 bu. Inspection: Cars No. 1 hard, 4; No. 1 northern, 8; No. 2 northern, 4; No. 3, 2; No. 1 white winter, 8; total, 26.

THE MARKET.

Clews & Co. are Emphatic Bulls on the Situation.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—The improvement noted in our review of last week, says Henry Clews today, has been followed by another week of marked recovery. On the stock exchange there has been a steady rise in the price of securities, with but few and slight reactions. The "bear" element has been less aggressive and appears to concede that the market affords little inducement to attack at the current range of values. This change seems to be due to a conviction that the weak spots in the market have been probed to the bottom. The shrinkage of failures down to about their usual volume is accepted as very direct evidence that in trade circles affairs are fast returning to a normal condition. Banks are abating extreme caution, and foresee a probable early abundance of money, which is inducing them to give more encouragement to borrowers. Their attitude is more liberal, and there is no difficulty in getting money on four to eight months, upon good collateral, at 5½ to 6 per cent.

It is mainly from reasons of the above character that prices have been steadily creeping up during the two last weeks. The improvement has extended to corporate bonds as well as to stocks. A few weeks ago the prices of a large mass of railroad bonds ranged at figures that would yield about 6 per cent to the buyer; the subsequent rise has put them upon about a 5 per cent basis. It seems reasonable to regard the late recovery of prices as permanent, barring temporary reactions from "bear" attacks. The rise would probably halt at any further appreciable advance, partly from realizations and partly from "bear" influences; but we doubt whether, in such case, any large reaction would occur. There is a very decided undertone of confidence in current values. And it is not to be overlooked that we are now verging closely towards a very decided ease in the money market. The currency movement with the interior has taken a very marked turn in favor of this city. Money is flowing higher from the East, West and even the South, and the past week's net receipts of the banks from those sections have amounted to $5,000,000. The exchanges of the banks with the sub-treasury show a small balance in favor of the latter. This is conclusive that we have reached the beginnings of cheap money.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—There was quite a little boom in wheat at the opening of 'change. Small shorts were frightened at the showing made by the government report and were anxiously bidding. May wheat ran quickly up to 98½¢. Partridge & Logan unloaded an enormous quantity at the advance, and it eased to 97½¢. May corn started at 53½¢, sold to 53½¢, and to 53½¢. May oats sold to 49½¢. May pork started at $11.12½ against $11.12½ Saturday. The decline was due to the enormous receipts of hogs at the yards. Receipts for the day were 32 cars winter wheat, 105 cars spring, 185 cars corn and 150 cars oats. Shipments were 12,741 bu winter wheat, 21,660 bu spring and 8743 bu oats.

New York Money and Stocks.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Money on loan at 3½¢ per cent. Exchange, firm; posted rates 483½¢@487; actual rates, 482½¢@485 for sixty days, and 480¢@480¼ for demand. Government's steady; currency, 6s, $1.09 bid; 4s, coupon, $1.20 bid; 4½s, coupon, $1.03½ bid.

The stock market was very active this morning. Business was on a larger scale than on any morning for months, 218,000 shares having been sold up to midday. At the opening there was great activity and dealings were attended with much excitement. The sugar trust was the great feature. Its first sale was at an advance of 3½ per cent over Saturday. The dealings in it were enormous, and its price advanced at the rate of 1 per cent on each sale until it finally reached 81½¢ against 70½¢ Saturday, price reacted to 78½¢. Missouri Pacific was strong, advancing ½¢. Northern Pacific and Chicago gas were also active and strong, and each advanced 1 per cent. With the exception of the speculative market, the net result of the first hour's trading was to leave figures slightly lower for the general list.

European Markets.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—The grain markets opened this morning very firm in tone, but the only change in prices is in corn at Liverpool, which shows an advance of ¼d. The weather in the United Kingdom is very cold.

SOME REDS BREAK AWAY.

Miles Better Stop Talking and Get These Fellows In.

A PICTURESQUE SCENE YESTERDAY.

Confidence Appears to be Most Needed to Restore Peace in the Tribes.

St. Louis, Jan. 13.—The Post Dispatch has the following special from Pine Ridge. Between 400 and 500 Indians broke away from the hostile camp this morning and have started for the Bad Lands. They are crazy and fanatic and are committing depredations as they go. Four companies each of cavalry and infantry are after them.

THOSE POOR HOSTILES.

Friendly Indians Throw up Rifle Pits Against Them.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. D., Jan. 13.—The friendlies had a council last night and decided that they wanted none of the hostiles in their camp. They have dug rifle pits and say that if even a solitary warrior comes among them and causes any trouble they will arrest him and if he resists they will kill him. The friendly camp is between the agency and retreat, and if a fight takes place no one will know a friendly from a hostile, and the fight will become simply a battle between all the Indians and the whites.

The ten chiefs did not come in last night and they are expected this morning, but there are fears that it will be a day or two before the chiefs can be induced to come to the agency. Scout Frank Giraud spent last night in the hostiles' camp, and he says the scene was indescribable. Young Man, afraid of his horses was talking peace, but the chiefs told him that he could talk as much as he pleased but they would have nothing to say. "They have danced themselves crazy," said Giraud, "and they are crazy still. The young men are mad and the old ones act as though they are half afraid. The squaws are silent and the warriors sullen. I cannot tell what they will do, but there are several hundred young men who want to fight. They have their war paint on and are anxious to have a battle."

The views from fortifications this morning was picturesque. Behind is a natural amphitheater with rugged broken slope of two hundred feet. On the plain are tepees by the hundred pitched irregularly, huddled together in groups here and there and moving about among them are bucks and squaws, children and dogs. Yesterday everybody in Pine Ridge waited anxiously. Suddenly Indians were seen in the crest of the hill, and the number was steadily increased to 400. Gen. Miles accompanied by Buffalo Bill and staff, rode to fortifications and made a circuit of the camp. Extra ammunition was issued and when everything was in readiness the troops waited a movement. After two hours Gen. Miles received word that the Indians did not mean to make any advance, but they would like to talk with him. The general sent them word to go into camp and he would receive ten head men. The ten chiefs did not come in yesterday and are expected this afternoon. Capt. Frank Taylor's chief Indian scout says the young men are mad and the old ones excited, though they are all half afraid.

CONFIDENCE NEEDED.

Miles Thinks That is all Wanted to Make Lasting Quiet.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Gen. Miles telegraphs as follows: Gen. Brooke's command is now camped five miles distant on White Clay creek and the entire body of Indians are between the two commands.

The greatest difficulty is now to restore confidence. The Indians have great fear that the army will be taken away and then all treated like those who were on Wounded Knee. They have a large number of women and children and creates a most depressing feeling among the families and a desperate disposition among them. The military measures and movements have been successful. The control and government now becomes the problem. Yet no serious embarrassment is apprehended at present.

OPIMUM SMUGGLERS ARRESTED.

Big Chinese Firm in the Toils in New York.

New York, Jan. 13.—There was great excitement among the celestials of Chinatown yesterday. The Chinese firm of Wing Wau Chung was raided by custom house inspectors and every one connected with the establishment was placed under arrest for opium smuggling. This firm is the largest of its kind in the United States, but the New York store does not do so much business as the branch in San Francisco. It deals in costly Chinaware, fine teas, and almost every thing in the way of Chinese products. Lee Yon Pine, the manager, was held in $5,000 bail, and the others were paroled in the custody of their counsel.

Oregon Legislature Organized.

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 13.—The legislature has organized by electing Joseph Simon, of Portland, president of the senate, and T. T. Geer, of Salem, speaker of the house.

Massachusetts Cotton Works Blaze.

LOWELL, Mass., Jan. 13.—The Hamilton print works on Jackson street are on fire. The fire will be confined to one wing.

CHURCH VS. STATE.

Imprisoned in Peru for Conducting Methodist Services.

New York, Jan. 13.—Secretary Blaine is making every effort practicable for the liberation of the Rev. Francis Pen-sotti, a clergyman of the Methodist Episcopal church and agent of the American Bible society, who has been in a prison in Peru for the last six months. Mr. Pen-sotti's case has awakened great interest owing to the strong belief that the people should have free worship. As Mr. Pen-sotti is imprisoned for conducting a Methodist Episcopal church his case has been taken up by the protestants of that city. The law in Peru is different from almost any other South American country. The Catholic is the authorized church of the country and the law states that no other public worship will be tolerated.

KNIGHTS IN CONVENTION.

Labor Party Projects and Various Legislative Schemes on Tap.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 13.—The second annual convention of Knights of Labor of this state was called to order this morning in the Pythian hall. The gathering is the first movement towards independence in politics that has been taken by the order as an association in New York. Other questions to be acted upon are: Abolition of the contract labor system in the prisons and reformatories of the state, an organized crusade against the employment of Pinkerton or any other system of armed parties in case of strikes, the amendment of the weekly pay law and the passage by the legislature of a ten-hour service railroad bill.

HIS CRIME FOLLOWED HIM.

Bartholomew, Who Wrecked the Charter Oak Fifteen Years Ago, is Back.

HARTFORD, Conn., Jan. 13.—George L. Bartholomew, formerly president of Charter Oak Insurance company, who fled to Canada, returned voluntarily this morning and appeared before Judge Penn in superior court and pleaded guilty to embezzlement of $10,000. Bartholomew is past 70 years old and in feeble health. He was given one year.

DILLON THE LEADER.

John Dillon Will Head the Irish Party Henceforth.

PARIS, Jan. 13.—The Siecle today makes the announcement that John Dillon will, upon his arrival in France, be designated as leader of the Irish national parliamentary party.

After hours of turbulent discussion the Belfast branch of the national league today rescinded the vote of censure heretofore passed by it in the leadership of Mr. Justin McCarthy. A vote of confidence in Mr. Parnell was then adopted by 57 to 34. The McCarthyites now expect that Mr. Dillon will join Mr. Parnell.

Oatmeal Trust Methods.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—A secret meeting of oatmeal manufacturers is being held here today for the purpose of taking steps towards restricting the output. The methods adopted by the defendant American Harvester company have given the oatmeal men some valuable pointers, and it is now proposed that each mill shall join the corporation with a capital of several million dollars. When this has been affected several of the smaller mills will be shut down. It is not known that any reduction to the consumer enters into the project.

Chicago-Milwaukee Operators Strike.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 13.—The telegraph operators employed by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul, have agreed to strike, the company having declined to rescind the order of a reduction of salaries. Chief Thurston has issued a circular asking contributions from all operators in aid of the strikers.

Fatally Shot.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Jan. 13.—Yesterday afternoon, Dennis, a jewelry agent, shot and killed J. H. Wright on Main street. Wright fell at the first shot and Dennis fired three more shots into his body. Wright and Dennis had been brawling over the head. When this was the outcome of this encounter.

Negro Wealth in Virginia.

RICHMOND, Jan. 13.—The figures from the census office at Washington received here yesterday show that the assessed values of real and personal property of the colored people in the Southern cities are $3,231,512. The sixteen cities reported sent fully half the wealth of the colored people of the state.

A Sensible Resolution.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Jan. 13.—Representative Parker of Cleveland, a republican, created a sensation in the house yesterday by offering a resolution severely condemning the government's administration of the Indian affairs and calling upon Ohio's representatives in congress to secure the transfer of the Indian affairs from the department of the interior to the war department.

Married and Murdered.

JASPER, Ala., Jan. 13.—George Estes and Fannie Hogan were married at a country church in Marion county, fifty miles east of this place on Friday night last, in the presence of a few relatives and friends. Just as the ceremony was concluded, a shot was fired through a window and the bride fell dead. A discarded lover, who once told Miss Hogan she should never marry any one else, is suspected of the murder. No trace of the assassin could be found.

Cooked in Lye.

GOSHEN, Ind., Jan. 13.—John Whitman fell into a vat of boiling lye Sunday night at the Indiana Paper company vats at Mishawaka. He managed to keep his head above the boiling lye and screamed for help. When rescued, the flesh fell from his bones and death was instantaneous.

Bombayans Homeless.

BOMBAY, Jan. 13.—Fire had destroyed 200 houses in this city and rendered hundreds of families homeless.

SHERMAN ON SILVER.

The Senator Makes a Long Address on Free Coinage.

BUT IT HAS A BULGE IN THE SENATE.

The Bering Sea Question; In Senate and House; Live Washing-ton Topics.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The report of the census committee of the senate on the apportionment bill was submitted today by Mr. Hale. The committee says that it approves the bill passed by the house providing for 336 members. The census committee of the house submitted a minority report in which it is contended that New York, Minnesota and Arkansas are entitled each to an additional member, making the apportionment 339. The senate passed bills authorizing a bridge across the Red river at Drayton, N. D.; for a public building at Fresno, Cal., at a cost of $75,000; for a public building at Joliet, Ill., at a cost of $100,000. The financial bill was taken up and Mr. Sherman addressed the senate in opposition to free coinage.

The amendment, Mr. Sherman said, was a radical proposition which changed the whole character of the bill. The price of silver was fixed at $1.25 an ounce, and this with silver today about $1.05 was an offer to pay 24 cents an ounce more than the market price and the working over would cost two cents an ounce additional. He would say that if he believed the free coinage of silver would enable us to maintain the value of silver bullion up to that of gold, he would vote for free coinage today; but silver cannot reach gold except by the government paying a bounty to the domestic producer of silver, there is no danger of the measure becoming law. If it were admitted that a parity between gold and silver could not stand except by the United States standing as a purchaser in the world's markets, he did not think that this was a thing that ought to be aimed at. All that that law did now, was to fix the ratio between gold and silver for coinage at sixteen to one. That was all the law could do. The law was not strong enough to fix the value of a bushel of wheat, and it could not fix the value of an ounce of silver bullion. If silver reached a parity with gold it would remain there only so long as the government paid the price. Mr. Sherman declared that wherever there was free coinage of silver, gold was demonetized, or at premium. There was no country in Europe where there was free coinage of silver. What sane man would pay any debt in gold, when he could take to the market silver bullion, costing less in the markets of the world, and receive for it legal tender.

The president sent to the senate today the nominations of Henry H. Swann, of Michigan, to be district judge for the eastern district of Michigan, vice Henry B. Brown, resigned.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The house today disagreed to senate amendments to bills for public buildings at Akron, O., and Pueblo, Col., and a conference was asked. A senate amendment fixing the limit of cost for a public building at Denver, Colo., at $100,000 was agreed to. The army appropriation bill was then taken up.

Blocked Teller's Cam.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Secretary Windom has decided that a bar, or ingot of silver bullion, cannot be coined for the benefit of depositors.

The Bering Sea Court Case.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The new phase which the Bering sea controversy has assumed excites much interest in official circles, and there is considerable speculation as to what will likely be the next move. Secretary Blaine doubtless knew that yesterday's move in the supreme court was contemplated, and it is ascertained that he anticipated it. If he still desires to retain possession of the question he can have the district attorney for Alaska file a petition for the case. There would then be nothing to appeal to the supreme court, and the controversy would have its present position.

Another South American Revolt.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—Messrs. Charles R. Flint & Co. received a cable today stating that the revolution broke out at Valparaiso on the 7th of this month, the revolutionary forces being assisted by several of the vessels of the navy. Their cable also stated that the Chilean government was taking active and energetic measures to suppress the revolt. As no advices have been received since the 7th of further action, it is presumed that the government has been successful.

New York Against Free Coinage.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—A special meeting of the chamber of commerce yesterday to consider financial legislation pending in congress brought together a large attendance of prominent merchants, bankers and men of business. President Charles S. Smith presided over the discussion, which was interesting and at times spirited, and which ended in the chamber placing itself on record as decidedly against the free coinage of silver.

Many Tenants Lose Heavily.

MONTREAL, Jan. 13.—The premises owned by R. W. Angus on Craig street were burned last night, and the tenants, among whom were the Chadwick Spool company, Hughes & Stevenson, plumbers; Southern & Correy, ticket printers, and Water & Bros., lost everything. The total loss is $125,000; fully insured.

HEAVY DAMAGE SUIT.

Probably the Largest of the Kind on Record.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—A big damage suit has been opened here by William Sturges, of New York, against John V. Farwell, Charles B. Farwell and Albert Taylor, the amount sought being $1,250,000. The suit is based on a claim for services in negotiating bonds for defendants to construct the Texas state capital. The Farwells and Congressman Taylor entered into a contract in 1881 to build the Texas state house, and in consideration they were to receive 3,000,000 acres of land in Texas. In order to get money to enable the construction of the capital the defendants made an arrangement by which Sturges was to go to England to raise funds. This was in 1884, and at that time American securities were down.

In England Sturges formed a syndicate known as the Capital Land and Investment company, and in the course of five years sold capital stock amounting to $5,000,000. For the work performed by Sturges he was to receive half of the $1,000,000 of capital stock of the English syndicate. After Sturges carried out his part of the agreement he came to America. He had much difficulty in making any terms whatever with the defendants.

While negotiations for settlement were pending Sturges borrowed from John V. Farwell $140,000, and to secure this loan Sturges put up securities amounting to about $400,000. It was in the shape of capital stock of the Sonora Mining company. Sturges gave a note for the loan and securities belonging to his wife, Bessie McLeon Sturges. The latter had purchased the securities from John V. Farwell, and she avers that he was to pay the interest. Failing to do so, she sued John V. a few days ago in the United States court to recover $30,000 as interest. The note became due and John V. advertised the securities for sale. It was then Sturges filed his bill.

In response to this suit the defendants filed an answer denying all the allegations and claiming he was entitled to nothing.

BIG ONEY UP.

Half a Million New Orleans on the Dempsey-Fitzsimmons Fight.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 13.—It is estimated that up to noon today, nearly $500,000 has been staked in this city on the outcome of the Dempsey-Fitzsimmons fight. Locally, the betting this noon is $100 to $80 in favor of Dempsey. Last night it was $100 to $80. Tim Colville telephoned at noon to Boston to place $30,000 even on Dempsey and at the same time make a bet of $2000 to $500 the same way.

Governor Nicholls, who is at present occupying his residence in this city, was in consultation this morning with Attorney General Rogers, and the latter is now looking up the state statutes with the view of rendering an opinion on the question, whether or not the mill comes within this class of events that are prohibited. Nicholls is a pronounced opponent of prize fighting and has expressed a determination of stamping out the periodical influx of the sporting fraternity to New Orleans. Mayor Shakespeare also is anxious to prohibit the contest, but the city ordinance strips him of all power.

Every train from all sections of the country is adding its quota to the throng of sports. The second Chicago contingent reached here shortly after midnight. Dempsey took a seven-mile walk at daybreak and will spar four rounds before the Audubon club with McAllister tonight. Fitzsimmons will arrive tomorrow.

NEBRASKA'S RULERS.

The Supreme Court Administers a Little Advice to Thayer.

LINCOLN, Jan. 13.—The supreme court allowed ex-Governor Thayer to file a quo warranto this morning citing Governor Boyd to show cause why he should not vacate his office. Said the court: However, we recognize Jas. E. Boyd, as the legal governor of Nebraska, and all the state departments do likewise. We would advise the ex-governor to quietly and peaceably submit to the governor, as it will do him no good to further resist.

In spite of this, Thayer refuses to vacate his office. The board of public lands and buildings have again designated the quarters occupied by Thayer as the governor's office, and will remove Thayer from the room this afternoon, peaceably if possible, forcibly if necessary.

Followed Benwell Perhaps.

MONTREAL, Jan. 13.—Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian commissioner at London, has been communicated with by friends in England of Wadsworth, who mysteriously disappeared from Wallaceburg, Ont. Sir Charles cabled Lord Stanley yesterday for further information. Wadsworth left England four months ago with £3000, with which he proposed purchasing a farm in Canada.

A Venial Juror Promptly Punished.

CHICAGO, Jan. 13.—Judge McConnell this morning sent Thomas McElligott, a jurymen, to jail for a week. McElligott was a juror in the case of the city vs. Simon. Yesterday the jury went out to view the property. McElligott offered to sell his verdict to Simon.

Dry Goods Firm Goes Under.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 13.—Louis Volmer, one of the oldest dry goods merchants of this city, was closed by a run of attachments today, aggregating $14,000. Liabilities and assets are about $25,000.

State Geologist Winchell's Interesting Report.

WHY HE ADVOCATES A STATE PARK.

Minnesota Valuable to the Scientist as no Other State; Low Grade Gold Ore.

The eighteenth annual report of State Geologist Winchell is just from the press. It contains a vast amount of interesting and valuable scientific data, with much matter of special geological interest on the iron region of Minnesota, north of Duluth, and will be, as a consequence, read with much interest here.

In fact the report deals more largely with the Vermilion and Mesabi ranges than with any other feature, and not only refers in extenso to the iron deposits of Duluth's favored section, but to the gold as well, and urges strongly the establishment of a great state park in this same section. Prof. Winchell and his son, Horace V. Winchell, assistant geologist, made exhaustive and extended trips to all the iron region, and large space in the report is taken up with data on the investigations into the geological formation of the country which they have examined closely. Many of their trips were made with the express purpose of getting out a map of the ore country, showing its geological formation and its mines and properties, all which is of the highest value.

Another interesting section of the report is taken up with a discussion of the gold deposits in Northern Minnesota. Professor Winchell first speaks of the gold excitement of twenty years ago, which was the result of some reputed gold findings on Vermilion lake. In 1857 Professor Winchell visited the Ropes gold mine in Michigan, northwest from Ishpeming, and he was struck with the resemblance between the gold-bearing rocks and rocks in Northern Minnesota. He then describes the details of a number of explorations made for gold in the region and shows that there is some positive basis of fact to show that gold exists in sufficient quantities in some cases to make a valuable low grade ore that could be profitably mined by the same methods as those employed in the Black Hills and at the Ropes mine in Michigan. Many of the connoisseurs of the state geologist are almost identical with those given in an interview in The Herald four years ago with Prof. Charles F. Elshwiler, the noted mining expert, of Milwaukee, whose interview in this paper attracted great attention to the gold-bearing deposits of the northeastern part of the state.

In another part of the report Professor Winchell urges early action by the state on the park matter as follows:

"I wish to call attention to the propriety of asking a reservation of land for a state park in some section in the northern part of the state. The geographical position of Minnesota is on that border land which exhibits the transition of the forested area into the prairie. It hence preserves the faunal and floral characteristic of both, and within its area must be studied by naturalists the mutual modifications and interchanges which the near neighborhood and contact of different physical features always imprint on the native vegetation and animal life found therein. By settlement and long habitation the natural conditions are destroyed and the natural laws that could perhaps be discovered by an examination of them in their original state, are never known. Hence as long as the natural conditions exist Minnesota will be visited by students and collectors interested in natural science for the purpose of investigation, and this will bring Minnesota into prominent recognition in scientific literature and scientific and economic research. It hence behooves the state to preserve these natural and aboriginal conditions, and for this purpose there is no better method than to reserve some considerable tract where they may not be destroyed.

"Again the state should have a large public park because of the healthful resort that it would afford for those living in cities, and for those who, coming from further south, seek in summer the invigorating effect of northern latitudes. The attractions of a multitude of lakes, rivers and rivulets of limpid and pure water are confined in the United States to the northern tier, where the tumult of the glacial epoch formed the depressions and natural reservoirs of gravel and sand, such as mark the moraines from Maine to Minnesota. In Dakota these lines of tumuli pass across the prairies northward to the line of British America and do not return again sensibly within the United States. Hence it is within Minnesota that exists the last opportunity to preserve the pristine conditions which distinguishes them from all other natural surface conditions, and has attracted to them always the explorer, the artist, the geologist, and the hardy settler. This park should be located either in the region northwest of Lake Superior, enclosing some of the rock-bordered and rock-bottomed lakes that are a natural curiosity to every traveler, or in the area about the head waters of the Mississippi."

A WONDERFUL COUNTRY.

Col. Walker will Move From Minneapolis and Boom the Up Country.

Says Col. Platt B. Walker: "I am going to open an office in Duluth. I am going to quit Minneapolis for good. I think that the Grand Rapids country is one of the richest in the world in minerals and timber. I shall spend my time principally in that country while my headquarters will be at Duluth. I recognize the fact that that country is naturally tributary to Duluth and will one day give Duluth its best tributary support. Mind you, sir, this is not an interview for publication. They would soon me down in Minneapolis if they knew that I had a good word to say for Duluth."

Col. Walker is interesting capital in the Rainy lake and Upper Mississippi country, and believes he has found the finest of localities. He has spent all day exploring it. The district explored is about 300 miles long, with an average width of seventy-five miles, and abounds in timber and iron. There is also an excellent quality of lignite coal. The Rainy river waters it, and drains about half of Minnesota and fully as large an area of Manitoba. There is no better water power in the world, the colonel says, than on Rainy river, and the possibilities for manufactures of all kinds are of the best. Col. Walker is very enthusiastic as to the future of this region, and says that twenty-five years from now Itasca county will be richer than the entire state now is. A telegraphed interview with the colonel, published in The Herald some weeks ago, gave his ideas more fully.

They are now obliged to give the military salute on meeting a superior officer. They are also obliged to appear in full dress uniform in the forenoon.

EMMA ABBOTT'S WILL.

Some Eccentric Wishes and Many Liberal Benefits.

The will of Emma Abbott, the opera singer, has been filed for probate. The will was executed in May, 1890, and names James L. Mitchell, V. Houghton and William F. Dunning as executors. She first directs that her body be tested by electricity to ascertain if life is extinct and then to be cremated. She requires her executors to deposit money enough with the Farmers Loan and Trust company to enable them to pay interest amounting to $400 per month to Seth Abbott, her father.

In the United States Trust company $100,000 is to be deposited, and from it her mother, Almira M. Abbott, is to be paid also $400 a month. Martha G. Wetherell, mother of her deceased husband, is to get $10,000. Her brother, L. Abbott, gets $25,000; her brothers, George H. and Frederick, $25,000 each, and her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Abbott Clarke, $25,000.

Each of the children of the following persons gets $500: Leon Abbott, Geo. H. Abbott, Mrs. Edna Clarke (deceased) and Mrs. M. L. Wetherell. Van Houghton gets $10,000, and her secretary, D. A. Conside, $5000.

The following churches, where she says she enjoyed worship, $500 each: Congregational church at Gloucester, Mass.; Plymouth church of Brooklyn, Brooklyn tabernacle, Madison avenue baptist church, Fourth avenue presbyterian church, church of the divine paternity, all of this city; Citadel square baptist church of Charleston, S. C.; Rose Hill Methodist Episcopal church of New York, and St. Luke's M. E. church of New York.

The residue of her estate is to be divided share and share alike among the following: Foundling Asylum of the Sisters of Charity, Children's Aid society for the support of news boys lodging house, Home for the Friendless of New York, N. J. Chapin Home for the Aged and Infirm, House of Mercy on East Thirty-fourth street, St. John's guild for excursions for mothers and children in summer; Hebrew Benevolent society, Sanitarium for Hebrew children, Mrs. S. V. White of Brooklyn and Mrs. Sarah H. Bard, a friend of Mrs. White. She hopes these ladies will use their shares in charity.

A "Specimen Brick."

The above expression was common enough a few years ago, but has now been relegated to a back seat by some of the newer slang. But few people know how much of a "chestnut" the phrase really is—supposing it to have been born in the days of their fathers. Its real age is not less than three thousand years, for an old Greek writer of fables and parables uses it in a short story. A man wished to sell a brick house. The purchaser not being able to go and look at the property, the owner dug a single brick out of the wall, and carried it to his customer, that he might judge what sort of a house he was trading for. "Specimen Bricks" from "The Burlington" are speed safety, sure connections, courteous attention, solid comfort, living up to promises—in short, all those things that make a perfect railroad. Tickets, time tables, and any information needed can be obtained from the local agents of this or connecting lines, or by addressing W. J. C. Kenyon, general passenger agent, Chicago, Burlington and Northern railroad, St. Paul, Minn.

Our great cash, prior to removal, sale begins today and the public can rest assured not one dollar's worth of goods in our present store will be moved into our new building if low prices will do it. The bargains we offer now are on all fall and winter suits and overcoats—fur coats, underwear and furnishings. Our boys' and children's department contains bargains not to be found every day. THE D. & W. ANNUAL MEETING.

But Ready to Build on in the Spring; Its Earnings and Expenses.

At the annual meeting of the North Star Construction company at Jersey City Tuesday, B.N. Baker being re-elected president, the company discussed extensive plans for this year's improvements, but absolutely decided upon none. Another meeting will be held again, at which arrangements for the work of 1891 will be made. There is said to be nothing in the rumor that the Duluth & Winnipeg will make its terminus in West Superior and the rumor probably arose over the fact that the road had been offered the use of the Northern Pacific tracks into Duluth and West Superior. The Duluth & Winnipeg can get to the line of the Northern Pacific by building six miles from Cloquet. An entrance to Duluth and the terminals at West Duluth could then be had over the St. Louis and New Duluth bridge. A short line from Cloquet to Duluth has also been surveyed.

General Manager Fisher returned this morning from the annual meeting. "We decided upon no improvements," said the official to a reporter; "therefore I cannot tell what we will do this season." Manager Fisher and other Duluth & Winnipeg officials were in St. Paul yesterday, and there met W. H. Braden, J. H. Baker and other owners of the Buckeye mine in 35-55-25; the discovery of excellent ore of which was announced in The Herald yesterday. The mine will be improved at once. A number of the iron men have gone to the Gogebic range to get points on machinery, and from there they will go East to purchase a full equipment. It is expected that the machinery will be in readiness for use within ninety days. After a conference the Duluth & Winnipeg people decided to build a spur track as soon as needed from the main line to the mine, a distance of eight miles.

Already about fifty tons of ore lies on the dump, it assaying about 62 per cent. Developments will take place at the several mines along the Duluth & Winnipeg this season to place it on an equal footing with the Duluth & Iron Range road as a carrier of freight, and the rapid settlement of the country will do the rest.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the North Star company, referred to above, the report of the directors showed many encouraging items. The excellent financial condition of the company was referred to, as was the action of government in stopping grading operations through the reserve. As this report says: "While at the time we regarded this as a hardship the unexpected failure of the negotiations for placing the bonds of the company in London has caused us to view the matter differently. Had the work continued as rapidly as intended the company would now be heavily in debt." The report also says that there are now on hand at the end of the track, paid for, steel rails for twenty-three miles, track bolts for thirty-five miles and ties for fifty-two miles, and the line as constructed reaches the southeast part of White Oak Point reservation.

"It is possible for us," says the report, "by building a line six miles long to the Northern Pacific road, to make satisfactory arrangements for entry to Duluth and West Superior over that road. We have also had surveyed an independent line from Cloquet to Duluth, an excellent line, eight miles shorter than any present road, but for a part of the distance the work will be heavy and the grade steep."

In the year of its operation the Duluth & Winnipeg has shown gross earnings of $56,173, net $23,005, an excellent showing, all things considered. The report shows total expenditures for constructing the Duluth & Winnipeg of $1,339,000, while $11,500 and $200,050 have been respectively spent on the Winnipeg & Duluth railroad and North Star Iron company.

SALES OF ORE.

Iron Men Expect Little If Any Profit This Year.

A number of Vermilion iron men are in the city today, most of them here as witnesses in a law suit. Among them are J. H. Chandler, D. H. Bacon, Major Pickands and A. J. Trimble. It is their opinion that no sales of ore will be made before spring. The present situation is unique. Ore men are waiting for some action on the part of furnace men watching to see what the ore men are going to do.

It is said, although the principals are reticent about the matter, that a deal relating to Atikokan lands is on the tapis between the Major Pickands contingent and other local Atikokan land owners. Iron matters are very quiet at present, although improvements are being extensively discussed.

A Morning Blaze.

About 2 o'clock this morning the small frame building on the corner of First avenue west and First street north, used as a carpenter and paint shop, was discovered on fire. The company responded with the chemical and succeeded in getting the flames under control when the engine was exhausted, but being unable to get water to recharge it with, the flames again broke out and burned the building to the ground. The fire company deserve credit for getting to the ground in such short order.

The "Faust, Up to Date" company came over from West Superior last night. It opens at Temple Opera this evening. Kate Castleton in the leading role. The company is sure to draw a big house, if only on "Miss Castleton's account alone, as the soubrette has many friends here. "Faust" is said to be an exceedingly clever burlesque—the dialogue sharp and spicy, the music brilliant and the singing above the average. Catherine McLean is one of the support.

THEY CONVENE.

State Legislatures Begin Work of the Year; Political Complexions and Other Features.

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 13.—The state legislature assembled at noon today. For the first time in years it is democratic in both branches. The senate is composed of eighteen democrats and fourteen republicans with one contested seat which will probably be given to the democrat, John Peter of Door county. Of this number fifteen democrats hold over the next election, thus assuring democratic control of the senate for four years.

In the assembly there are thirty-three republicans, sixty-six democrats and one union labor representative. On joint ballot therefore, 133 votes will be cast and the democrats will have a majority of thirty-eight with which to elect ex-Poetmaster General Vilas as the successor of John C. Spooner in the United States senate.

James J. Hogan of La Crosse, will probably be elected speaker this afternoon. One of the most important matters which will be acted upon during the session, is the reapportionment of the state in congressional and legislative districts. On the plan outlined by the democratic majority Wisconsin will hereafter have an equal representation in congress, five democrats and five republicans.

New Jersey Solons.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 13.—The 115th session of the state legislature opened today. The senate is composed of seven republicans and fourteen democrats. As organized the house consists of forty democrats and twenty republicans. In professions members of the body include a theatrical manager, several saloon keepers, two school teachers, a newspaper man, a mechanic, a miller, a butcher, a building inspector and a journeyman cigarmaker. James J. Burgen, of Somerset, will be elected speaker this afternoon, and Robert Adams, of Brunswick, president of the senate.

Outlook in Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 13.—The legislature assembled at noon today. It is the first time in the history of the state that the republicans are without a majority. The body stands politically, ninety-one farmers alliance, sixty-four republicans, nine democrats, thus giving the alliance a majority of eighteen.

The chief event of the session is the election of a United States senator to succeed Hon. John J. Ingalls. The retiring senator has opened headquarters in this city and is making a desperate fight.

The leading candidates of the alliance are Professor J. H. Canfield, of the state university, and Judge W. A. Peffer, editor of the Kansas Farmer. John F. Willets, the defeated farmers candidate for governor, is also in the race. A vigorous anti-Ingalls campaign is being conducted under the auspices of the state alliance.

Tomorrow in West Virginia.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 13.—Members of the legislature, which will meet at noon tomorrow, are arriving hourly. The democrats will have sixteen majority in the senate and thirteen in the house.

MOVING AHEAD.

The health crusade is actually on foot, and the council has joined the salvation army. In exact line with The Herald's suggestion of yesterday, upon motion of Alderman Long, the council authorized the board of health to employ chemists to make analyses of the city water supply, and directed the city engineer to employ experts to examine and report upon the condition of the intake pipe. These measures are unquestionably demanded by the voice of the public and the plain requirements of the case. If they are promptly and expertly pressed, as they should be, and as, we believe, they will be, the city will have the information that is absolutely essential to direct its action. If it is rejoined that analyses of the water have before been made without detecting any harmful impurity, the response is obvious that former analyses give no present assurance of the condition of the water, and there is no sufficient evidence that these analyses have been made to cover the varying conditions of the flow or that they have been as complete as they should be.

The council may be assured of the heartiest support of the public in every proper effort to enforce cleanliness and protect the health of the city, and Alderman Long deserves special commendation for the energy which he is showing and the time which he is devoting to the public interest in this and other measures of reform. It was through his insistence that Superior street was properly swept during the night hours, and if he will urge the sweeping as well as the sweeping of the pavement blocks, he will score another point for the fair face of the city. It is because of lack of attention to these details that the city has drifted into its slovenly condition and we are glad to see that members of the council are disposed to press attention to them. The increase of the appropriation available for the use of the board of health, which Alderman Long and others are now working for, is demanded by the needs of the city and should be voted unhesitatingly. Duluth is willing to pay for a clean face and wants to see the responsibility fixed for keeping it clean, when an adequate appropriation is voted.

The day of the bob-tail mule car and of slovenly streets has gone by. Duluth has now as fine an electric car service, so far as it goes, as any city in the country, and its streets should match its service. The street beds are generally in a first-class condition and only need thorough and continued cleaning and occasional repair to be a credit to any city. Press this and don't forget to include every alley and back way in the city in the cleaning, for nobody wants to see Duluth a whitened sepulchre of garbage and offal. Enforce the separation of refuse and provide for its prompt removal, and the conversion of perishable matter into serviceable compost for park and farm use. Shame property holders into cleaning up their back yards and vacant lots, and to this end The Herald intends to post a list of the most noticeable offenders if a clean-up is not made. The rear of Superior street lots on both sides in the heart of the city is in a disgracefully slovenly condition, and if the holders propose to wait for snow to cover it up, The Herald doesn't. It is a shame that a city so fine as this should be so defaced.

THE GIVING OF GIFTS.

The Round Table discussed a burning question last evening in debating how best to govern a city. Exchanging views on theories of ideal government is no doubt of profit to the exchangers, but for immediate public benefit Mr. Greene's discussion of what reforms are now practicable is of chief interest to this city. The reforms which he advocates have been already undertaken and largely carried through by the most progressive cities of the country, and in the main are entirely within the power of this city to effect. Franchises already given, it is true, cannot be revoked, but the rights of the city under them can be enforced, and the best made of slipshod or bad bargains. The important concerns of water supply and lighting can be controlled by the city, we believe, within a few years, they should not be out of its control any more. It is not necessary, though Mr. Greene feels that the city we hope that it will so well work for the city and executive functionaries sharply distinguished from the head shall be strictly accountable for every executive act. When city government becomes a business machine and not a political and personal hydra, a city may hope to be well cared for and not till then.

If John Dillon leads the Irish party as reports of today appear to indicate, he will probably be forced to serve out his time in an English prison. This, if anything, will give him saintship and implicit obedience in Ireland.

The dispatch of the Tribune's war correspondent to the Bad Lands has evidently resulted in bringing the wild Indians to their senses. When the Sioux beheld his towering form they came down as quickly as the coon did when he saw Col. Crockett. What Miles has failed to do Butler has effected. This triumph should justify be of some consolation to the Tribune for the loss of the lurid war stories which it was confidently awaiting. It has earned the thanks of the nation, and its envoy deserves a laurel crown or a pension. As a newspaper man he will probably prefer the last as the warmest covering for the winter.

State Geologist Winchell's report, extracts from which are given in today's Herald, is of notable interest and importance. His move for the creation of a state park is forcible and fully urged and will be seconded by all who appreciate the enduring value of such a creation as he proposes to the naturalists, botanists, geologists and the public at large. His remarks on the gold deposits of Northern Minnesota will attract general attention also, and may presage a rich addition to the known resources of the state. His map and monograph covering the northern iron ranges are a contribution which will be particularly prized. As a whole the report is a credit to its author and a real service to the state.

West Duluth is going to depend on Superior for its water supply. Without noting any objection to this provision, it is one of the indications of the future that urge the more comprehensive and closer joining of the main city and its plantations. The division between Duluth and the growing towns on either side is entirely arbitrary and artificial. As infant establishments, there were reasons for the separation, whether adequate or not. But when the "shot gun settlements" have been built up and rise up to seek city organization and administration, they should welcome inclusion in one great city in place of an absurd bead like stringing out of petty cities on one bank. Such an arrangement would be cumbersome, costly, futile, wrangling, discreditable to all and destructive to any broad plan of development and progress. Duluth is the head of the lakes, and this grand head should not be broken into bits or switched off in parts.

IN THE BREAKERS.

[Pittsburgh Dispatch.]
Everywhere there's a consternation in the halls of legislation.
And the leaders are perplexed,
For they fear the agitation will lead to dissolution.
Hence they're vexed.
They regard the honest granger as the canine in the manger.
And they fear him.
Will they treat him as a stranger, and increase the present danger,
Or reverse him?
He is very democratic, but in language auto-critical.
Might demand the richest plums.
He may prove to be phlegmatic, grow exceedingly emphatic.
Over crumbs.
This honest, earnest son of toil, this splendid product of our soil
Is in the swim,
And you will see a red-hot broil unless a fair share of the spoil
Goes to him!

DONNELLIAN WISDOM.

Winona Republican: "Repudiate Donnelly or die!" is the mandatory and somewhat startling injunction of the St. Paul News to alliance members of the legislature. In the senate, at least, Donnelly has not been repudiated. We infer, however, that either he or the alliance must die. Probably both.

Mankato Free Press: Donnelly has started in his "reform" by electing those useless and not even ornamental doorkeepers against the almost unanimous opposition of the republicans of the senate. Thus with a single stroke Reform Donnelly, to make room for three henchmen, has piled a useless expense of $1000 on the taxpayers, and a fair beginning is not yet.

Winona Republican: "All that is necessary is to let Donnelly have plenty of rope," remarks the Minneapolis Journal. To what end? With all the rope that the combined factories can turn out, Donnelly would never hang himself, though he often contrives to draw the line closely on others. As for Donnelly, he is an adept at saving his own Bacon.

Moorhead News: The passing of the resolution on motion of Donnelly, depriving the lieutenant governor and president of the senate of the power to appoint the committees, is undoubtedly revolutionary. It indicates the tactics which Donnelly proposes to carry out. The News will not be surprised to hear that he has introduced a bill to confiscate private property.

JOHN AND THE REPORTER.

John L. Sullivan, the world's champion coward and pugilist actor, is again brought before the public. It seems John has attempted to make a speech. It was in Milwaukee Saturday evening during his theatrical performance. Just previous John had been having a bout with Milwaukee whisky, and, resultant therefrom, with a Milwaukee reporter. In the last act John rolled to the footlights and said:

"Ladies and Gentlemen: 'I've been with you for four performances and I've tried to be a gentleman—a gentleman, d'ye see, and I want to thank you one and all for your kind and hearty appreciation of my efforts which you appreciate. I know by your applause. I want to say a word about my scrap with that reporter. I didn't hit him. As-as-the fellow says in this play that the girl is as pure as the driven snow, the reporter turned piteously toward the company then continued so—so—'help me God I didn't strike that man. He has ripped me up—he has roasted me. Maybe you don't understand the meaning of the word the term, roast. Maybe it isn't grammatical, but I understand it. I have education. I have went to college and I know what is grammar. That reporter is a serpent, a reptile, a scum of the earth. He is a kind of fellow who will sneak up and bite a bloke in the back. He is a serpent, a reptile and I ought to have taken him by the neck and thrown him down stairs. I kin roast, too, and I'll roast him.'"

An Equivalent for Suicide.

If we allow our bodily infirmities to make away with us through neglect, have we such an immense moral advantage over the deliberate suicide? Scarcely. For example, the deadly progress of Bright's disease, diabetes, acute nephritis and gravel is sure—often terribly swift in the catastrophe. Most people of average information know that this is the simple, unvarnished truth in regard to those widely prevalent maladies. To delay judicious medication is specially suicidal in such cases. The means of restraint is to be found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Give an impetus to the action of the kidneys with this safe and reliable diuretic, and the infant complaint is shorn at its birth of the power for evil. Allow it to grow and anticipate the worst. The Bitters which annihilates these growing troubles also eradicates dyspepsia, rheumatism, malarial and liver complaints. Appetite, sleep and vigor are also promoted by it.

Change of life, backache, monthly irregularities, hot flashes, are cured by Dr. Miles Nerve. Samples free at Max Wirth's.

TO EVERYBODY.

(With apologies to "Life.")
On New Year's day before the coals,
We sit and fidget why,
We made so many blunders in
The year that's just gone by.

We look back on our many calls,
On fickle fates hard blows,
And fondly hope that this year's joys
Will outweigh last year's woes.

And yet, if it should happen that
By Time's behest decrees,
The same old troubles should come back
To test both you and me.

Remember that in this queer world,
For every 1 who grieves,
His level best, and is content,
There's sure to be a prize.

OF CITY GOVERNMENT.

The Chamber Discusses Grading and Annexation.

COUNCIL HOLDS ITS SESSION.

Round Table Talks on Government in Utopia; Locals News of Importance.

The report on the opening of Superior street, that had been made the special order of business for today, was read at the morning's chamber of commerce meeting. It recommended the opening of the street from Seventh avenue west through to Rice Point. The committee thought that traffic between the West End and the main part of the city was becoming so heavy that Michigan street could by no means accommodate it all, and that sooner or later the city would be obliged to face this important matter. R. S. Munger gave as his opinion, that the city should at least establish a grade at once, even if the street was not cut through yet. The question of annexation came up for a long and by no means one-sided discussion. Indeed, such is the diversity of opinion, that in all probability, the committee to whom the question was left will make both a majority and minority report. Annexation of the suburbs has some strong opponents in the chamber. C. A. Long was added to the committee, which was given until next week to make its report.

R. S. Munger made chairman of the committee on fee systems in place of Judge Stearns. Messrs. Thompson, Johnson and Cash were also put on this committee.

West Superior parties are busy hauling sand for building purposes from Park Point across the bay on the ice to Superior. The chamber of commerce was indignant over the matter this morning and made Maj. Baldwin a committee to call upon the city authorities to put a stop to it. Great difficulty is found, however, in getting at the matter. The parties hauling the sand claim that G. C. Hartley gave them permission to take the sand from his lots on Park Point. Mr. Hartley denies that he ever gave them permission to take sand from his lots. The greatest difficulty, however, lies in the fact that there does not seem to be an engineer in the United States smart enough to figure out where anybody's lots are on Park Point. The consequence is that no one can make complaint against the despoilers until he can swear that they are taking sand from his property. The matter is now in the hands of the city attorney and the chief of police who are hunting for a man rash enough to swear to the location of his lots on Park Point.

CITY COUNCIL.

Alderman Sinclair Resigns; Business Done at Last Night's Session.

At the council meeting last evening Alderman Long moved that the board of health be authorized to employ chemists to make analyses of the city water, and the city engineer be directed to employ experts to examine the intake pipe of the Gas and Water company and report on its distance from the shore, depth in the water and general condition. The motion quickly passed. The city engineer urged the purchase of a large stone crusher and a new street roller. The board of works recommended the grading and paving of Pennsylvania avenue from South to Fourth street, $23,723.40. The board also favored the grading of New street, between Seventeenth and Eighteenth avenues west, to cost $3227. Estimates in favor of Forrester Bros. were submitted to the amount of $14,000. The Flag River Brownstone company notified the council that J. A. Robert, contractor for the city jail, owed him $562 for stone. Fifteen trades unions petitioned that provision be made in the revised charter that the contract system be abolished. They also asked that the city establish an eight-hour day. The ordinance on "disorderly houses and conduct" was passed. A motion was passed that all the political parties be given the use of the council chamber for city conventions. Alderman Sinclair presented his resignation as alderman. It was accepted. President Hugo expressing regret that circumstances caused this step to be necessary. The council adjourned to meet Thursday evening.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

Interesting and Suggestive Papers at the Round Table.

About fifty members of the Round Table gathered last evening at the residence of W. C. Sargent at Lakeside to discuss "Municipal Government." Judge Morris presided. There were three leading speakers, Messrs. Stearns, White and Greene.

Judge Stearns said he believed in universal suffrage in its widest sense—man and woman, black and white, rich and poor. After tracing the history of the government of cities, which he showed was originally purely political, he said: "Today the functions of the city government were almost exclusively of a business character and not political. We spend from $500,000 to $750,000 a year for the improvement of this city, and we should seek to divest these matters of any but business basis. He thought the methods of corporations could be wisely followed by electing a board of directors who would give all their time and attention to the city."

W. C. White regretted that the limitations of his subject prevented him from speaking about the extension of the suffrage, but he said a few words on a kindred question, "Shall the Power to Hold Office be Limited?" It did not seem right to Mr. White that everybody should be eligible to office. If we want a man to hold office we insist on two requisites only, namely, that he be 21 years old and not a lunatic. "I would have the restriction begin here," said he, "I would have it impossible for any man to be mayor of a city who had no knowledge of statecraft, no skill in governing assemblies, and perhaps not even the ability to control his own affairs or business." He believed firmly in restricting the franchise.

H. P. Green thought the government of Duluth was much better than that of many cities because our aldermen were not criminals. He wanted six reforms: City election held alone; mayor's power increased; aldermen, or part of them, elected on a general ticket; candidates furnish statements of disbursements for campaign purposes; gas, water, electric lighting and street car service furnished and contract work done by the city; thorough civil service reform.

A large number of members participated in the discussion which followed the papers. H. P. Wamsley gave an interesting account of the methods adopted in Memphis and Nashville. Mr. Towne told a story of a colored man's idea of an honest man, "was one who would stay bought when bought."

The next meeting will be held at the Duluth Music Store's hall and will deal with the financial disturbances. W. W. Billson and others will lead the discussion.

IRON ORE NOTES.

More Regarding the Finds Near Grand Rapids; At the Anderson.

Capt. John Smith is down today from Grand Rapids. He states that there is being developed a very rich mineral country within the immediate vicinity of Grand Rapids. On five different properties shafts have been sunk and rich ore of Cretaceous quality has been discovered. Within a radius of twenty miles from Grand Rapids, one has been discovered on ten properties.

Capt. Ball, in charge of the Anderson property, is down from Ely today. He states that night and day crews are being worked on the Anderson property, working on a drift toward the ore body from the main working shaft, which has been sunk in the foot wall. The drift has been worked in to a distance of about thirty feet.

WHAT'S THIS FOR?

What in Thunder is Superior Kicking at Now?

Congressman Haugen, of Wisconsin and Comstock, of Minnesota, are having another tilt over bridge bills for the St. Louis river. Saturday Haugen telegraphed President Thayer, of one of the numerous Superior land companies, to come to Washington immediately to appear before the house commerce committee to aid in the passage of his bill. Yesterday Comstock telegraphed A. C. Otis, of Duluth, to go at once to aid in the fight, and Mr. Otis has already left for the seat of the civil war. It is possible that owing to the present difficulties that the house will not consent to the passage of either of these measures.

Sales in Woodland.

The Motor Line Improvement company has sold $150,000 worth of property in lots and acres since it began business. Almost every lot in the First division of Woodland Park has been sold and the forty-acre tract adjoining it on the north is being platted as the Second division. Yesterday one block was sold in the new division to a syndicate of railroad men for $8000, averaging $450 per lot.

The Ways of the Wicked.

Lawyer James A. Collins, since the highest Myrtle Compo, a keeper of a saloon at Minnesota Point, to escape an indictment by the grand jury, is taking steps to foreclose a mortgage for $150 on the furniture and fixtures of the house. The officers will take possession tomorrow.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Of The Wisconsin and Minnesota Bridge Company, a Corporation Organized Under the Laws of Wisconsin.

To all whom it may concern, notice is hereby given that a bill has been introduced in congress "to authorize the construction and maintenance of a bridge across the St. Louis river, at some feasible and convenient point from the town site of St. Louis in Douglas county, Wisconsin, to the townsite of New Duluth in St. Louis county, Minnesota," and that, by the terms of said bill, The Wisconsin and Minnesota Bridge Company, which proposes to build under said act, is required, upon the introduction of the bill, to give public notice as follows:

"That subscriptions to the capital stock of said company will be received at its office in Duluth, Minnesota, up to and until 4 o'clock p. m. on the 28th day of February, 1891, at which time the books for subscription shall be closed, and, during that period, the company is bound to accept the subscriptions to said stock offered by any person or corporation; and it is further bound to allot to any subscriber subscribing before said books are closed, if required, such proportion of said capital as he shall be entitled to if the whole amount were divided equally among all the applicants applying before the books are closed."

And notice is hereby given that said books of subscription are now open at the headquarters of the company in the office of the St. Louis Land Improvement company, in the Phoenix block, at Duluth, Minnesota, and any person or corporation is entitled to become, and is cordially invited to become, a subscriber to said capital stock. The capital stock of said company is $75,000, and is divided into shares of $100 each. The articles of incorporation may be seen at said office, and any further information may be obtained at the office.

A BIG CONCERN

Located in Duluth, a Pipe and Foundry Concern With Half a Million Capital.

The New Duluth company has just closed, so it is said, with the largest industry to be established at the head of the lakes. It is a pipe and foundry plant. The company's capital is $500,000, and the personnel of its directorship contains, among others, the names of two Eastern millionaires, so that the concern is established on the best of financial foundations.

The plant to be erected will cost $100,000, and it will give employment to 800 men at the beginning of business. J. W. Norton, general manager of the New Duluth company, goes next week to make final arrangements for the location of the company here.

The present location and title of the concern cannot yet be given the public.

POLITICAL NEWS.

New Party Candidates in Three Wards; Gossip of the Runners.

Caucuses of the alliance party will be held in the First Second and Third wards tonight. The probable nominees for aldermen in the wards by the alliance party are: First ward, John Mears, who lives on Park Point; Second ward, T. W. Lemieux, and the Third ward, C. J. Evans, who ran against Ash and Kugler a year ago. This makes the fight between Evans and Norton in this ward, as Frank Burk will not run. The Park point people are anxious to have a representative in the council and it is said will support Mears to a man.

T. T. Hudson, of the democratic city committee, has called a convention for the Fourth ward to select a candidate for alderman. It will be held tomorrow evening and will nominate W. J. Weis.

"There are numerous incongruous aldermanic possibilities," said a citizen last night, "but what a joke it would be if Henry Haskins should slip in."

Weis is making a strong canvass in the Fourth ward, and there are strong men of all parties giving him support.

IT DOESN'T MATTER.

City Loses in Its Attempt to Keep the Water Company at Home.

The suit brought some time ago by the city to keep the Gas and Water company from cavorting around the whole head of the lake was some time ago decided for the city by Judge Stearns. In the state supreme court yesterday his ruling was reversed. The court holds as follows: An act of the legislature authorizing the village of Duluth to grant the right to any private corporation to supply water and to lay mains through the streets, etc., is construed to authorize a contract with a corporation which may, in addition to supplying said village, supply the inhabitants of another city with water. As the Superior Water company cut the difficulty by getting a main of its own to the lake it is hard to see what import to attach to this ruling.

WATER FROM SUPERIOR.

The West Duluth Company Contracts With Itself of West Superior.

The Herald is enabled to state today on the authority of Superintendent Craig of the Duluth Gas and Water company that the village authorities of West Duluth have signed a contract with the Superior Water, Light and Power company to furnish the village with gas and water. The West Duluth Gas and Water company is composed of nearly the same personnel as the Superior company and this means practically a consolidation of the two companies.

NEWS FROM OVERSEA.

More Serious Than Ever is the Scottish Strike.

DILLON TO LEAD THE IRISH PARTY.

No Revolution in Chili; Blaine's Demand Excites Spain; Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Jan. 13.—Very many of the men who had resumed work on the North British railway have again joined the strikers, who assert that they have 200 recruits since Thursday last. The situation is becoming critical. Mr. Tait, secretary of the strikers declares that the men on the Glasgow & South-western railway have also decided to go out on strike again.

The Times Glasgow correspondent says the North British Railway company will have an immense task to clear away the accumulation of freight traffic. Lines of trucks, miles in length, are awaiting removal. The situation is now alike to the men and the shareholders.

The Great Western railway has put two cars of the American pattern on its line. The cars are divided in the middle, one end being third class, and the other first class. The innovation has attracted much attention.

It is said that Gladstone will speak in behalf of the liberal candidate for the Harlepool vacancy. A deep interest is felt in this election, the constituency being liberal, apart from the Irish home rule issue. The Tories and dissenting liberals are preparing for an active struggle.

The society for the prevention of cruelty to children has been investigating the baby farmers and has brought to light many startling circumstances. The illegitimate child of a governess and a general in the British army was found in the care of a baby farmer, being slowly starved to death, although $50 had been paid for its care. The woman in charge had insured the infant's life for $20 more and was waiting to realize when visited by the society's officers. Several prosecutions have been instituted.

Considerable excitement has been aroused in Madrid by the news of Secretary Blaine's demand for satisfaction for the destruction of American missionary property, Caroline islands. The government is deeply concerned, and the liberals, now out of power, are rejoicing at the embarrassment of the ministry. It is feared that the United States may get up a pretext for seizing Cuba and Spain is at present in no position for war, either by land or sea.

The prince of Montenegro, who is on a visit to Paris, is purchasing munitions of war for his little army of mountaineers. He has secured a quantity of smokeless powder, and a number of Lebel rifles.

Lutz Stai, who was arrested in connection with the attempt to wreck the czar's train at Borki, will be transported to Siberia without a trial. The extradition of Satcharisky, who is alleged to have been concerned in the Borki incident, has been demanded by the Russian government.

The Russian budget for the year 1901 exhibits an estimated surplus of $1,167,840. The estimates include as extraordinary expenditures $26,775,000 for public works, and $12,912,500 for armaments.

The seaport of Newport in Belgium, is reported as being still ice bound and inaccessible. The docks of Ostend are so crowded with shipping that the unloading of vessels is accomplished with the utmost difficulty.

The Chilean minister to Great Britain today denied that there had been fighting in any part of Chili. The present disturbances, the minister added, amount only to a protest against illegal collection of taxes. The army of Chili was loyal to the government and but three vessels of thirty-one, which composed the national naval force, had supported the opposition.

Today, notwithstanding the contrary orders of the authorities, and the efforts of the police to enforce them, a number of men and boys attempted to cross the Seine at Paris on the ice. In the attempt nine persons lost their lives.

BERING SEA QUESTION.

Test Suit as to International Jurisdiction in Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—The sealer controversy has been taken to the supreme court on a motion which has in view a settling of the dispute. Joseph R. Choate, in behalf of the owner of the British schooner Sayward, which was seized in Bering sea by the Rush, petitioned the court for a writ of prohibition restraining the condemnation and sale of the vessel. The object is to have the court pass upon the question of jurisdiction over these waters.

Won by a Post.

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 13.—It took forty rounds to decide the fight between Jimmy Lindsey and Harry Gilmore at the South Omaha Athletic club rooms last night. Lindsey resorted to the most desperate and open methods of fouling. Lindsey won the first knock down. In the fortieth round the men clinched, and while on the floor Gilmore was kicked in the neck. Gilmore was awarded the fight. The contest was for $600 and gate receipts.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF THE

Atlas Iron and Brass Works.

The undersigned hereby associate themselves and agree to become an incorporation under and by virtue of the provisions of Chapter Eleven of the General Laws of Minnesota of 1917, and acts amendatory thereof, and for the purpose have adopted and agreed to, and signed the following articles of incorporation:

ARTICLE I.
The name of this corporation shall be the "Atlas Iron and Brass Works."

ARTICLE II.
The general nature of its business and its purpose shall be to manufacture and sell all kinds of iron and brass and all kinds of machinery; also for buying, selling, mortgaging, exchanging and dealing in all kinds of property, both real and personal, which is incidental to and connected with the said manufacturing business, and to do and perform any act or thing, and exercise any and all powers necessary to the business and purposes above specified.

ARTICLE III.
The said corporation shall commence business on the 1st day of January, 1919, and continue for a period of thirty years.

ARTICLE IV.
The principal place of the transaction of the business of this corporation shall be at Duluth, Minnesota.

ARTICLE V.
The amount of the capital stock of this corporation shall be one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars, to be divided into one thousand shares of one hundred ($100) dollars, to be paid up before the commencement of the business of said corporation.

ARTICLE VI.
The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation shall at any time be subject is fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars.

ARTICLE VII.
The names and places of residence of the persons associating together to form this corporation are:

Name Residence
G. Lind, Duluth, Minnesota.
James W. Norton, Duluth, Minnesota.
J. B. Sage, Duluth, Minnesota.

ARTICLE VIII.
The government of this corporation and the management of its affairs shall be vested in a board of three (3) directors, to be elected by the stockholders at their annual meeting, to be held on the 1st day of January in each year. The board of directors at their first meeting after the annual meeting of the stockholders or thereafter, at such time as they may agree upon, shall elect a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, whose term of office shall be until the next annual meeting. It is further provided that the directors are to be elected annually, and each director shall hold office until the expiration of his term.

ARTICLE IX.
In testimony whereof we have hereunto signed our names and affixed our seals on the 24th day of December, A. D. 1918.

ORDER TO EXAMINE ACCOUNTS, ETC.

STATE OF MINNESOTA,
County of St. Louis.

In Probate Court, special term, January 1st, 1919.

In the matter of the estate of Samuel Webster, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of James Bardon, administrator of the estate of Samuel Webster, deceased, representing among other things that he has fully administered said estate, and praying that a time and place be fixed for examining, settling and allowing the final account of his administration, and for the assignment of the said estate to the parties entitled thereto by law.

It is ordered, that said account be examined, and the petition heard, on Friday, the 22nd day of January, A. D. 1919, at ten o'clock a. m., at the probate office, in Duluth, in said county.

And it is further ordered, that notice thereof be given to the persons interested, by publishing a copy of this order on Thursday in each day of the last week of December, in the Duluth Evening Herald, a daily newspaper printed and published at Duluth in said county.

Dated at Duluth the 1st day of January, A. D. 1919.

By the Court,
PHILIP A. AYER, Judge of Probate.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS.—Notice is hereby given that the regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the Marine National Bank of Duluth, for the election of directors, and for the banking business, will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 13, 1919, between the hours of 10 and 4 o'clock a. m.

ORDER FOR HEARING AND NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR APPOINTMENT OF ADMINISTRATOR.

STATE OF MINNESOTA,
County of St. Louis.

In Probate Court, special term, January 2d, 1919.

In the matter of the estate of Winthrop Watrous, deceased.

On receiving and filing the petition of Kate R. Markell, of Duluth in said county, representing among other things that Winthrop Watrous late of the county of Ashland, in the state of Ohio, on the second day of July, A. D. 1878, in said county of Ashland, died intestate, and being a resident thereof at the time of his death, leaving goods, chattels and estate within this county, and that the said petitioner is a daughter of said deceased, and praying that administration of said estate be given to her, and that she be appointed administrator of said estate.

It is ordered, that said petition be heard by this court on Monday, the twenty-sixth day of January, A. D. 1919, at ten o'clock a. m., at the probate office in Duluth in said county of St. Louis.

Ordered Further, That notice thereof be given to the heirs of said deceased, and to all persons interested, by publishing this order on Saturday in each week, for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing, in the Duluth Evening Herald, a daily newspaper printed and published at Duluth, in said county.

Dated at Duluth, the second day of January, A. D. 1919.

By the Court,
PHILIP A. AYER, Judge of Probate.

WEST DULUTH.

Alex Burns, the explorer, left yesterday on a prospecting trip on the range.

The Ladies Aid society of the congregational church will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Hammond.

West Duluth lodge, I. O. O. F., will install officers this evening.

About thirty-five persons were present last evening at the congregational church to perfect the organization and elect officers of the choral union. M. C. Burnside was chosen president and C. J. Dewey secretary and treasurer. Committees were appointed on constitution and by-laws and to secure a place of meeting. Prof. S. S. Meyer, of Duluth, is the musical conductor and will be here every Monday evening. Frank Cowan was elected organist. All those interested in the movement are requested to be at the congregational church Monday evening at 7:30.

The Ladies Aid society of the baptist church will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Wallace.

Gospel services are being held every evening this week in the methodist church.

Mrs. Sawyer will entertain the Ladies Aid society of the methodist church tomorrow.

J. J. Frey moved his family from Broadway to his new residence on the corner of Fourth avenue and Sixth street.

N. Hougensen, O. Engen and H. C. Saetre, of Elizabeth, Minn., are looking over the city with the intention of investing.

Charles Carisch and John P. Fetter, of Alma, Wis., are visitors in the city today.

Wm. Hurley had the misfortune while skating to fall and sprain his wrist and received injuries from which he will be laid up for several weeks.

WEST END.

Charles Marsh became the father of a brand new daughter yesterday.

There is much complaint of the condition of Piedmont avenue at the intersection of Twentieth avenue. It is badly obstructed with stone and debris which, added to its being covered with ice makes it almost impossible to travel with safety. Its icy condition will probably cause a lawsuit for the cost of a horse which slipped, fell and had to be killed.

At the request of many friends, I hereby announce myself to be an independent candidate for alderman of the Sixth ward at the next city election.

M. C. LITTLEWORTH.

The NATIONAL HYMN AS REARRANGED FOR THE WORLD'S FAIR. SANTA CLAUS SOAP

My Country: 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing:
Land where our fathers died;
Land where our Mothers
cried,
Over the wash-tub tied
Let freedom ring.
My native country thee—
Land of the noble, free—
Thy name I love;
I love thy tucks and frills
But oh! what laundry bills;
My soul with horror thrills;
When I think of thee.
Let music swell the breeze,
And blow through all the trees.
Hail SANTA CLAUS:
Let tired mortals wake
And gladly try a cake,
Let all for cleanness sake,
Join the applause.

A RELIABLE FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

That is the Character Almost Universally Given to

THE WEEKLY INTER OCEAN.

So great is its popularity that for years it has had the LARGEST CIRCULATION of any Chicago weekly newspaper. It is only and carefully edited in every department with a special view to its usefulness in THE HOME, THE WORKSHOP, and THE BUSINESS OFFICE.

It is a Consistent Republican Newspaper,

But discusses all public questions candidly and ably. While it gives fair treatment to political opponents, it is bitterly OPPOSED TO TRUSTS AND MONOPOLIES as inimical to both public and private interests.

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT of the paper is excellent, and has among its contributors some of the MOST POPULAR AUTHORS of the day.

THE FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC CORRESPONDENCE, SERIAL AND REPORT STORIES are the equal of those of any similar publication in the country.

The Youth's Department, * Curiosity Shop, * Woman's Kingdom, * and * The Home ARE IN THEMSELVES EQUAL TO A MAGAZINE.

In addition to all this the NEWS OF THE WORLD is given in its columns every week. In all departments it is carefully edited by competent men and

THE PRICE OF THE WEEKLY INTER OCEAN IS $1.00 PER YEAR.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY INTER OCEAN is published each Monday and Thursday morning, and is an excellent publication for those who can not secure a daily paper regularly and are not satisfied with a weekly.

PERSONAL.

Wm. B. Edson, a well-known lawyer of Allegan, Mich., brother of E. P. Edson, will arrive in Duluth Thursday to lecture. He will bring his family, and will go into business with Edson & Hanks.

Miss Anna Gregory and Mrs. C. C. Van Iderstine, who have been visiting friends here for two weeks past, left last night for their home in Marquette.

Col. W. H. H. Stowell and family returned from St. Paul yesterday.

Capt. McDougall will start tomorrow for the Pacific coast, in company with Capt. Wilson, of Cleveland, and H. C. Davis, traffic manager of the Northern Pacific. They go to settle a location and other matters connected with the proposed Puget Sound shipyard.

G. T. Porter, of Oconto, Wis., is visiting his people here.

Hon. W. W. Billson is in St. Paul, arguing cases before the supreme court. S. J. Upham is in Philadelphia.

Hon. Sam Field, who has been visiting Capt. T. H. Pressnell for a week, returned home yesterday on business. Mrs. Field will remain the guest of Mrs. Pressnell for several days yet.

CITY BRIEFS.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Woman's Missionary society of Pilgrim congregational church will be held at three o'clock at the church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

William P. Anger's tailor shop, 111 West Superior street, caught fire last evening. The fire probably originated from the stove. The department got the fire under control by the use of the chemical. Not a drop of water was used. No damage was done except in Anger's room, except by smoke, which injured some parts of the stocks of L. Weber and Levine Bros. About $500 is the loss.

Abigail E. Little, one of the defendants in the partition suit of Meadell vs. Wraff in answer claims that the property in question is worth $10,000.

After the business meeting of the Father Mathew society last night, a musical and literary program was rendered, consisting of a piano solo by Miss Macdonald, two songs, by the ladies and recitations by Masters Fitzgerald, Dixon, Gady and Poirier. Bishop McGolrick delivered an address, showing the boys what splendid advantages result from a liberal education.

Four stocks today are: 604 bbls, against none a year ago. Of this the Imperial mill has 1447, Duluth Roller, 207, Eastern railway, 250. Production for the week was 11,101 bbls, and shipments 10,321.

BANKERS MEET.

Annual Session Today of a Half Dozen Banks and Other Duluth Institutions.

Many of the banks held their annual meeting today, with the result that the personnel of the directorate and official roster has been changed only in minor instances.

The National Bank of Commerce held its meeting this morning, the following being elected directors: O. H. Simonds, in place of George Piper; J. A. Willard, W. G. Peck, H. W. Coffin, William M. Prindle, C. E. Shannon, C. P. Craig, Fred A. Gooding, F. E. Kennedy, J. A. Willard was chosen president, C. E. Shannon vice-president, and E. W. Maier cashier. The sum of $3000 was added to the surplus, making it $10,000, while a dividend of 3 per cent was declared.

The annual meeting of the Highland Improvement company was held this afternoon.

The various showings of books as presented at the annual meetings today were good.

The annual stockholders' meetings of the State, First National, Marine, National, American Exchange and West Duluth banks were held this afternoon. All the old boards of directors were re-elected, and official personnel was changed but slightly.

The board of directors of the board of trade meets this afternoon at 2:30 to close up the year's business, make assessments and fix compensation of officers for the ensuing year. Next week on the same day the annual election occurs.

THE DISTRICT COURT.

The Jury Decides in the Quick Case; General Court Notes.

At the district court today Wesley Gould pleaded not guilty to assault. Case 104 was continued, 104 was dismissed. Motion was denied in case 77, made by defendant to dismiss on ground that alleged answer had not been filed. Case 107, Village of West Duluth vs. A. P. Stenson, is on trial. The jury came in on case 130, Quick vs. Minnesota Iron company, with a verdict of $2000 for the plaintiff. He sued for $1,000.

Judgment of the district court for plaintiff was entered today for $2247.75, but few of these notes will interest in the case of the State Bank vs. A. H. Thompson and O. P. Stenson.

Action has been begun by the county against the bondsmen of Richard Westaway who skipped the county about a year ago to escape last year's proceedings. The bond was for $500.

Satisfaction of judgment for $257.75 was filed today in the case of A. J. Whitman vs. George N. Holland.

Judgment by Judge Nell of West Duluth was filed today in favor of plaintiff in the case of L. S. Thomas vs. Emma No. 100 for $68 and costs.

WORLD OF COMMERCE.

Market Resume at Duluth and Other Points.

THE LOCAL MILLING DEMAND GOOD.

News of the Financial Circles of New York and Chicago; Stock Market.

The market opened today a trifle higher and ruled steadily, but very dull throughout the session. The news was for the most part bullish. The Southern Illinois winter wheat fields were reported to be covered with ice. The French demand for wheat was reported from California to be active. The financial situation was reported to be very encouraging. The trade in Chicago was at the mercy of sellers with no outside interest whatever. Twenty-four cars were marked here for shipment to Maryland for milling purposes today.

The close was firm but irregular with an advance for the day of from $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ on the No. 1 hard grade and cash No. 2 northern while cash regular No. 1 northern closed $\frac{1}{2}$ for the day and the same grade of January and May closed unchanged with sellers. May wheat ruled full, selling in the forenoon at 98 $\frac{1}{2}$ and 99 $\frac{1}{2}$ for the two grades, closing at 98 $\frac{1}{2}$ and 99 $\frac{1}{2}$ sellers. Cash car lot wheat sold at 89 $\frac{1}{2}$ and 89 $\frac{1}{2}$ on sample for car lots in the forenoon in the No. 1 northern and No. 2 northern grades respectively. Cash wheat regular in elevator ruled very dull but closed with bids on all grades at 91, 89 $\frac{1}{2}$ and 82 $\frac{1}{2}$ for the closing grades.

The closing prices today were as follows:

	Jan. 17	Jan. 18	May
No. 1 hard	98 $\frac{1}{2}$	99 $\frac{1}{2}$	98 $\frac{1}{2}$
No. 1 northern	98 $\frac{1}{2}$	99 $\frac{1}{2}$	98 $\frac{1}{2}$
No. 2 northern	89 $\frac{1}{2}$	90 $\frac{1}{2}$	89 $\frac{1}{2}$

Cars on track: Wheat, 28; last year, 15. Receipts: Wheat, 21,441 bu; flax, 502 bu. Shipments: Wheat, 184 bu. Inspection: Cars, No. 1 hard, 6; No. 1 northern, 30; No. 2 northern, 3; no grade, 4; No. 3, 2; rejected, 2; No. 1 white winter, 15; total, 61.

Chicago Markets.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Wheat values were a trifle higher at the opening of change because of the advance of $\frac{1}{4}$ per cent in the Liverpool prices. May wheat started at 98 $\frac{1}{2}$ and sold to 96 $\frac{1}{2}$. May corn started at 52 $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{1}{2}$ was local receipts were 32 cars below the estimates. May oats started at 40 $\frac{1}{2}$; May pork started at \$10.77 $\frac{1}{2}$ because of heavy receipts of hogs at the yards. Minneapolis receipts of wheat were 185 cars, Duluth 28 cars. Receipts were 34 cars winter wheat, 103 cars spring wheat, 244 cars corn and 228 cars oats.

Following is the close: Wheat: May, 98 $\frac{1}{2}$; July, 91 $\frac{1}{2}$; Sept, 87 $\frac{1}{2}$; Corn: May, 52 $\frac{1}{2}$; July, 51 $\frac{1}{2}$; Oats: May, 40 $\frac{1}{2}$; Pork: January, \$10.40; May, \$10.95; Lard: May, \$8.27 $\frac{1}{2}$; Ribs: January, \$5.05; May, \$5.50.

Banner Stock Yards Day.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—Yesterday was banner day at the stock yards. Receipts of cattle reached 24,000; largest ever received in a day. Receipts of hogs reached 60,000; highest for a day since 1884, while total number of cars exceed all previous records.

Argentine Gold.

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 13.—Yesterday gold closed at 238 per cent premium.

Chicago Money.

Chicago, Jan. 13.—The clearings were \$13,207,877. Foreign exchange ruled steady at 48 $\frac{1}{2}$ for sixty day bills, and 48 $\frac{1}{2}$ for sight drafts. Exchange on New York opened at 50c premium.

New York Money and Stocks.

New York, Jan. 13.—Money on call is at 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. Exchange steady at 48 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 49 $\frac{1}{2}$; actual rates, 48 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 49 $\frac{1}{2}$ for sixty days, and 48 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 49 $\frac{1}{2}$ for demand. Government's steady; currency, 6 $\frac{1}{2}$, \$1.00 bid; 4 $\frac{1}{2}$, coupon, \$1.20 bid; 4 $\frac{1}{2}$, do, \$1.03 $\frac{1}{2}$ bid.

The stock market was not so active. By noon 125,884 shares had been sold. Prices opened heavy and weak at 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 per cent below the closing of yesterday. In the early dealings there was a further shrinkage. Northern Pacific preferred declined $\frac{1}{2}$ and Chicago gas fell 1 per cent. Sugar trust, in regular contrast with yesterday, was weak and quiet. Its price declined $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent to 70 $\frac{1}{2}$. Northern Pacific common was a strong feature and advanced 1 per cent to 25 $\frac{1}{2}$ in the early dealings. Missouri Pacific advanced $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. In the second hour Chicago gas was the feature. It was very strong and advanced to 10 $\frac{1}{2}$, a gain of 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. Lackawanna and Union Pacific also displayed great strength.

Minneapolis Close.

Minneapolis, Jan. 13.—No. 1 hard, January, 91; on track, 92. No. 1 northern, January, 89; February, 89; May, 93 $\frac{1}{2}$; on track, 90 $\frac{1}{2}$. No. 2 northern, January, 85; on track, 87 $\frac{1}{2}$.

NOW PLAY BALL.

The Prospect Excellent for a Speedy Settlement of the Trouble.

New York, Jan. 13.—The baseball men of three big organizations were in force this morning. The prospect for a speedy settlement had its effect on the various delegates. Messrs. Krantzoff and Byrne completed the work of compiling the new national agreement. It will not be given to the public until it is approved by the three bodies.

The committee to patch up the difficulties between the players and the magnates went into session. It is composed of Messrs. Thurban, Barnie and Von Der Ahe, of the American association, and Spaulding, Byrne and Day, of the league. All except Day were present. So far nothing has been done.

A Meeting Postponed.

There union Y. P. S. C. E. meeting at the congregational church Wednesday evening, the 14th, at which all Christian Endeavor societies of the different denominations were expected to attend, has been postponed for a week or two, owing to the absence from the city of some of the prominent officers and speakers.

Really Business Better.

The real estate market is an excellent barometer of financial matters. Today there has been better inquiry for property at Duluth, West Duluth and West Superior than at any time in a month and while sales are few the approach of sales is evidenced by the inquiries received.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

Minnesota's Executive Speaks to the Legislature.

URGES ECONOMY AND SOME CHANGES.

Favors a Board of Grain Appeal; Touches Upon Many Subjects of Importance.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 14.—[Special to The Herald.]—Governor Merriam's message to the state legislature was given shortly after 11 o'clock this morning, both houses being assembled. It was as follows:

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives:

Constitutional enactment permits me the opportunity of submitting to this body facts and suggestions affecting the present condition of state affairs. I shall first call attention to matters pertaining to general legislation, and later refer more specifically to such items as I regard of special importance.

Avoid Class Legislation.

Allow me to say that I regard as a growing evil, in connection with all legal enactment, the tendency toward class legislation. It is common to demand of the lawmaking power action that will tend to exclusive benefit. Laws should be passed that will bear upon and benefit equally all citizens; and the greatest care should be exercised that no advantage to the detriment of the general public be given to any class or locality. It is quite the custom among many well-meaning citizens to ask of the legislature relief from every trouble, imaginary or real, many of the difficulties being from causes beyond its curative resources. All should be protected in their personal and property rights. In this connection, too, I regard paternalism, so called, in government, as an evil that seems to be spreading, and carried to its logical and legitimate conclusion will end in the building up of favored classes and localities to the detriment of the people. Your responsibilities in this direction are important, and I commend to your consideration the necessity of avoiding all legislation of the character I have noted.

Railroad and Warehouse Commission.

Since the passage of the law creating the present board, the records will clearly demonstrate the fact that much good has been accomplished. Among other things has been the material reduction in transportation rates and such action as has resulted in requiring equal consideration for all shippers. We must not forget, however, that competition, improved methods in handling trains, newer and better machinery, lower grades and the reduced cost of transacting business, aided by a continually growing traffic, have all assisted in making lighter the burden of transportation. One of the greatest evils incident to railroad management is the pernicious habit indulged in by too many railroad officials of discriminating in favor of certain patrons and against others. This offense should be met by the strongest penalties.

The giving of free passes is a discrimination against the passenger who pays. The present law regulating common carriers especially permits the issue of passes for the free transportation of passengers, although all other discrimination is prohibited under severe penalties. Comment is unnecessary.

It is gratifying to state that those sections of the law requiring that bills be furnished to individual shippers have been carried into effect more fully during the last two years. On the whole the spirit of the law has been met and its provisions generally complied with.

The decision rendered in March last by the supreme court of the United States, holding that certain provisions of the act of 1887 regulating common carriers are not in harmony with the federal constitution, will make necessary some changes in our laws in this regard. The statutory provision of 1887 should be so amended as to provide a plain method of review of the orders of the commission, either through appeals or by direct proceedings on application to the supreme court of the state. Much can be done in the direction of reducing the cost of marketing our principal cereal at the terminal points when the amendment suggested is carried into effect.

Grain Inspection.

One of the important interests is the inspection and weighing of grain. I approach this subject with diffidence, as I am not positive whether our present system is all that can be desired. The grading of wheat is not an exact science, but largely a matter of judgment. Grain experts will not always agree, and as a result there is frequently such divergence of opinion between inspectors in the country and at terminal points as to produce confusion and dissatisfaction. Leading farmers of the state, as well as prominent receivers of wheat, with practical unanimity concur in the opinion that the present law, with possibly some slight amendments, is as effective as any enactment that can be devised. Some suggest that a board of appeal be provided at each terminal point to adjust any question of grades. This I deem to be a wise suggestion. The problem of grading at local stations is more difficult to solve. It would be impracticable to maintain state inspection at the thousand and one points throughout the state where grain is bought, and therefore it would seem as if the small shipper must avail himself of the right to ship his wheat direct, and demand state inspection and weights, in case he is dissatisfied with the inspection of the local elevator agent.

State Institutions of Confinement.

The contract entered into by the board of managers of the Stillwater prison, with the Minnesota Thresher company, expires in October next, in accordance with the law under which the prison is managed at this time. If the present system of contracting the labor of a portion of the convicts is to be continued it will be necessary to permit the board to make a contract for at least ten years, it being impossible to induce capitalists to expend the necessary sum to utilize so large a number of men unless they are given a contract extending over a sufficient period of time to warrant outlay in establishing a permanent plant.

In accordance with a widespread sentiment, an attempt will be made to employ a portion of prison labor in making binding twine. Machinery for this purpose, of the best character obtainable, was purchased. It is sincerely hoped that the experiment may prove a success. If results seem to make it desirable, additional machinery may be purchased, and the producing capacity of the plant increased. Should the attempt to manufacture binding twine result satisfactorily, it will be of inestimable advantage. Some additional appropriation will be required to properly carry on the business manufacture of binding twine, in accordance with the present plan.

The state reformatory is in full working order and is apparently accomplishing its result. The building is inadequate.

A most careful and painstaking inquiry into matters pertaining to hospitals for the insane has convinced me that we may make radical improvements. A beginning may be made upon some well considered plan that would eventually place our state abreast with the times. I offer the following suggestions all important in any plan that has for its object the elevation of the standard of excellence of our hospitals for the insane, which should receive careful attention: First—The corps of physicians should be so increased as to provide one for each 100 patients. Second—No physician should receive an appointment until he has successfully passed a thorough examination. Third—A training school for attendants should be established. Fourth—Improved mental condition results from giving employment to the insane. There should be a separate industrial building, and the occupation of the patient should be adapted, so far as practicable, to his previous life and habits. Fifth—Although it is not practicable now to make separate provision for the criminal insane, it is desirable that it should be done soon. I recommend that greater supervisory powers be vested in the lunacy commission, and that it be charged with further responsibility in the commitment and discharge of patients.

Australian System of Voting.

The last legislature enacted a law relating to the manner of voting and holding primaries in cities containing 10,000 people or more, and a test of the plan was made at the last election. The law worked satisfactorily, some minor changes being apparently necessary. It should be so amended as to make it applicable to the entire state. Public sentiment is fully alive to the necessity of throwing such safeguards about the ballot box as will insure purity in elections.

The World's Fair.

The World's fair will be an event of national importance, and proper steps should be taken to insure a full exhibit of the resources of our state. No means should be omitted to have the various advantages of Minnesota made known. It will be necessary in order that we may receive the attention commensurate with our wealth and population to make an appropriation adequate to the proper representation of our vast agricultural and mineral products, and to formulate such plans as will call the attention of visitors to our matchless climate, our educational system, and our manifold advantages in all that pertains to industrial and social life and development. It may be deemed wise to create a commission into whose charge this whole matter may be entrusted. I consider this of special importance, and trust no means will be omitted to provide for a full and complete exhibit, as the results that will accrue cannot fail to be of lasting benefit.

State Finances.

It is estimated that the excess of receipts over disbursements for the years 1892-1893 will approximate $700,000. This sum will be available for purposes of enlarging and improving state institutions and for other and necessary objects. The various boards and commissions have suggested expenditures that, if made, will involve an outlay of about $1,500,000. It will be impossible, in my judgment, to provide so large a sum. We are forbidden to create any further bonded debt, and it would be unwise to increase the tax levy. I suggest the desirability of confining all appropriations to the sum above noted—$700,000. After a careful consideration of all the demands made by the authorized boards, I have indicated the direction in which the money should be expended.

Minor Affairs.

The governor refers to the funding of the state railway adjustment bonds, the outstanding amount being $3,965,000. Of this all are held by the various trust funds of the state, save $1,085,000. Of this latter a certain portion may be absorbed by the cash available in the internal improvement fund, leaving about $1,500,000 of bonds, which may be allowed to run at the present rate of 4½ per cent or funded into a bond bearing a lower interest. I think a bond bearing a rate of 3½ per cent could be sold at par.

The question of salaries of oil inspectors, fees having been abolished by the last legislature, is important. It might be well to consider returning to the system, reducing the amount per barrel. The war history of Minnesota troops and the history lately published, is referred to, as are Kandiyohi county lands and a change in the methods of the bank examiner, and a stricter law of government of loan and building societies. An increase in the high school appropriation to take in about twenty-five more schools. He also praises the national guard and recommends an appropriation for purchase of overcoats and blankets for the men.

A "Specimen Brick."

The above expression was common enough a few years ago, but has been relegated to a back seat by some of the newer slang. But few people know how much of a "chestnut" the phrase really is—supposing it to have been born in the days of their fathers. Its real age is not less than three thousand years, for an old Greek writer of fables and parables uses it in a short story. A man wished to sell a brick house. The purchaser not being able to go and look at the property, the owner dug a single brick out of the wall, and carried it to his customer, that he might judge what sort of a house he was trading for. "Specimen Bricks" from "The Burlington" are speed safely, sure, connections, courteous attention, solid comfort, living up to promises,—in short, all these things that make a perfect railroad. Tickets, time tables, and any information needed can be obtained from the local agents of this or connecting lines, or by addressing W. J. C. Kenyon, general passenger agent, Chicago, Burlington & Northern railroad, St. Paul, Minn.

OF DIVIDENDS DECLARED

The Business of Duluth Banks for the Past Year.

THE NEW ONE TO OPEN NEXT MONTH.

Splendid Amounts Put to Surplus and Profit Account by Duluth Institutions.

Duluth banks have made such semi-annual dividends and put sufficient amounts to the surplus and undivided profit account in the past week, as to show the profit of the banking business in this city. The banks have just paid semi-annual dividends as follows:

First National, 6 (annual); American Exchange, 5 per cent; National Bank of Commerce, 3 per cent; Manufacturers, 4 per cent; State 5 per cent. They have put to surplus as follows: First National, $40,000; Bank of Commerce, $300; Marine National, $10,000; Manufacturers, $300; State, $400; American Exchange, $4,000; Security, $15,000.

As a contrast may be given the dividends paid in the past 10 days by St. Paul banks: Second National, 7; First National, 3; Merchants National, 5; Capital, 5; National German-American, 4; West Side, 4; Scandinavian-American, 4; Germania, 4; St. Paul National, 3; Peoples, 3; Seven Corners, 3 per cent. Quarterly dividends were paid by the Bank of Minnesota of 3 and the Commercial of 1.22 per cent.

In addition to the annual meetings of banking houses, noted in The Herald yesterday, the following elected officers late in the afternoon:

Marine National bank: Directors: J. P. Johnson, J. R. Myers, W. M. Osborne, W. Saeger, A. B. Wadley, B. F. Myers, A. W. Bradley, F. D. Scott, S. F. White, R. G. Miller, R. H. Harris. Officers: J. R. Myers, president; W. M. Osborne, vice-president; Wilnot Saeger, cashier; J. P. Johnson, assistant cashier.

First National bank: Directors: J. J. P. Odell, Chicago; A. W. Wright, Saginaw; C. B. Cummings, Chicago; A. M. Miller, H. A. Ware, T. J. Davis, A. D. Thomson, D. A. Duncan, A. L. Ordeau, O. P. Stearns, L. Mendenhall, of Duluth. Officers: L. Mendenhall, president; A. M. Miller, vice president and Henry Ware, cashier.

Security bank directors: Joseph Sellwood, Giles Gilbert, Neil Hall, F. W. Paine, D. H. Merritt, Henry Lardner, W. E. Lardner. Officers: President, Joseph Sellwood; vice president, F. W. Paine; cashier, W. E. Lardner.

State bank directors: W. K. Rogers, C. B. Graves, R. S. Munger, C. L. White and M. O. Hall were elected directors. No change in officers.

The American Exchange bank holds its annual meeting this evening. There will probably be no change in officers or directors.

The annual meeting of the Bank of West Duluth will be held next Saturday. At a regular meeting of the directors of the Peoples Investment company, held last evening, the following officers were elected: President, Dr. H. S. Davis, in place of T. O. Hall, resigned; Vice President, A. Sworling, in place of Dr. H. S. Davis, resigned; Director Robert A. Clark in place of T. O. Hall, resigned. The company has sold $60,000 worth of stock already, and voted to open 400 shares in series 1, 5, 3 and 10.

Manufacturers bank: Directors: W. H. H. Stowell, R. S. Munger, L. Mendenhall, H. W. Wheeler, J. D. Boyd, M. O. Hall and H. P. Smith. Officers: President, W. H. H. Stowell; vice president, M. O. Hall; cashier, H. P. Smith.

J. W. Norton said today speaking of the new bank: "From the letters and inquiries which I receive daily regarding the new Commercial National bank, offering to take stock in the same, there is certainly no trouble about getting capital. The trouble is about fixing them all in comfortable offices in the organization to suit them. The bank will begin business on or about Feb. 15, when we will give out the names of the officers and board of directors for publication."

The loan agents of the city state that money is easy on ordinary real estate security at 7 per cent while on very good real estate security on long loans it is 6 per cent for any amount of money wanted.

Patents for St. Paul & Duluth Lands. Governor Merriam yesterday received from the department of the interior four patents to lands in the northern part of the state. They represent 355,702.24 acres and go to the St. Paul & Duluth Railroad company. The grant was made some time ago, but it was thought best to get these patents to insure the titles never being questioned.

Sudeith's Costly Suit. George Sudeith, as administrator of the estate of Anna Sudeith, began an action against the St. Paul & Duluth railway yesterday at St. Paul for $10,000. The deceased was a car check clerk, and in December, while riding on the side of a car, was struck by another on a flying switch and instantly killed.

New York, Jan. 14.—Interest in baseball matters centers today around the Fifth Avenue hotel, where the annual business meetings of the league and the association are being held. Both President Thurman of the Association, and Spalding of the League have been working diligently to effect a settlement.

Thurman has succeeded in getting Syracuse out of the way, but he failed to induce Toledo to withdraw from the Association. Should Mr. Thurman succeed in getting Toledo and Rochester out of the way he will make a fight for the admission of Boston and Chicago.

Spalding is opposed to another Chicago club as he owes the Players' League club and grounds in that city. Buffalo will be given one in place of Boston.

Although the magnates have not yet come to the question of players, it is generally believed that they have made up their minds as to what men they want. At any rate it is certain that peace will reign during the coming season.

How to Break Up a Severe Cold. From the Virginia City, Mont., Madisonian: When we find a medicine we know to possess genuine merit, we consider it a duty, and we take pleasure in telling the public what it is. Such a medicine we found Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. By the use of this syrup we have relieved, in a few hours, severe colds, and in the course of two or three days, entirely broken them up, as have several of our friends to whom we have recommended it. It is all it is represented to be by the manufacturers. If you have a cough and want to stop it, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will do the work. For sale by druggists.

THE PROJECTED TUNNEL.

Board of Trade in a Most Excellent Condition.

SOOY SMITH'S IDEAS AS TO WORK.

General Local News of an Interesting Nature on a Dull Day.

City Engineer Fuller returned this morning from Chicago, where he held a consultation with Tunnel Engineer William Suoy Smith. Mr. Fuller gave The Herald the following information about the construction of the proposed tunnel:

Mr. Smith thought the best method of constructing the canal will be the open caisson method as the materials through which it will have to be constructed will offer better resistance. The tunnel will be planned considerably shorter than was first intended. The plans only allow a length of from 750 to 800 feet with the very steepest grade of less than 10 per cent. The old system of railroad or rock rail engines will be used which has been operated successfully on a grade of 25 per cent. The tunnel is being planned for a double railroad track, a roadway and a sidewalk on the right hand side.

The sidewalk will only run under the canal and it will be reached by a stairway leading down on each side. The center line of the entrance on the Minnesota Point side will be 145 feet from the east line of Lake avenue. Small property will have to be condemned on each side of the canal.

How soon the tunnel can be completed depends entirely on the available funds at the disposal of the city. The portion under the canal will have to be constructed in the winter time during the close of navigation on account of the open caisson method being employed which will obstruct the passage of the canal. No work, however, can be done this winter.

BOARD OF TRADE.

The Excellent Financial Condition; Old Employees All Retained.

The old board of directors of the board of trade held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon, one week prior to their annual election. An annual assessment of $35 on each member was declared, with rebate of $10 if paid at once. The salaries of the officers and employees were fixed at the same figure for the ensuing year as they were last year. The finances of the board were shown to be in a very satisfactory condition. It was shown that about $15,000 of the bonded indebtedness of the board can be retired by June 1, 1891, if desired. The annual election occurs next Tuesday, when the same officials will be elected for the ensuing year with a few changes in the directorate.

THEY EXPLAIN IT.

It is a Cold Day When the Signal Service Can't Explain It.

It will be remembered by the house owner that the government signal service went into particulars yesterday and announced a drop in temperature to 10° below zero. This was an ultimatum, and as such the weather was supposed to abide by it. It didn't, and this morning the thermometer was only even zero. The signal service men explain it thus:

"It was way below zero in Winnipeg, 15 or 20 degrees, and we knew it would come here. But way back in the Northwest Territory, at Edmonton, where they don't know any better than to smash predictions and where they don't care anything about the reputation of the United States weather service, a wind began blowing forty-eight miles an hour this way. At the time it was 40° above there, and this warm wind sailed along, caught up with the cold wave and knocked it out, and the result has been here neither very cold nor very warm."

This explanation doesn't satisfy the ice men and lumbermen, but they can't get a better one today.

Inspected Dairies.
The health department has just completed an inspection of the dairies within the city limits as called for by The Herald some time ago, and the results are gratifying. Fifty-two dairies were found, having from two to twenty-one cows each. In all but a few cases the inspectors found the cows, stable and feed up to the standard. Answers have been obtained to a series of questions touching the size of the stables, number of cows kept, condition of the stables, cows and milk pans, ventilation and number of hours cows are in the open air.

Waiting for Power Leases.
The Water Power company is waiting on the St. Louis River Land company to make some movement regarding power before any definite action is taken in dam building. It has been decided to put up a dam at Thomson, but whether one or two will be built near Fond du Lac depends altogether upon the power needed.

Aid for Dakota.
Another committee from the Dakotas visited the chamber of commerce, board of trade and mayor's office this morning soliciting aid in behalf of Dakota sufferers.

Betting is Even.
New Orleans, Jan. 14.—Betting is even. Mose Gunst, the San Francisco bookmaker, can get no odds, although he has $10,000 left for the Dempsey and Bud Renda has put up $5000 of Chicago, New York, and Boston money on Fitzsimmons even in the last hour. The Chicago crowd placed $10,000 on Dempsey last night.

Fourteen Lives Lost.
New Orleans, Jan. 14.—The City of Dallas, here from Cortez, brings news of the wrecking of a schooner near Bay islands. Fourteen lives were lost.

CITY BRIEFS.

The Assembly gave advance at the Spaulding last evening. There was a large gathering and a most enjoyable time was passed.

The First baptist church is preparing a barrel of supplies to be sent this week to a destitute family in South Dakota. Theater goers last night were entertained by a disgraceful free fight in one of the dives between First and Second avenues east on Superior street, nearly opposite police headquarters. Some lumbermen got into a dispute, and then proceeded to make Rome howl. After drawing a big audience, who cheered them on, they were arrested.

The Epworth league of the First Methodist church met last evening and elected officers as follows: President, Miss Peetham; vice presidents, J. J. Wiggins, Mrs. John Harris, Miss Hollister; secretary, J. S. Moore; treasurer, T. A. Johnson.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Of The Wisconsin and Minnesota Bridge Company, a Corporation Organized Under the Laws of Wisconsin.

To all whom it may concern, notice is hereby given that a bill has been introduced in congress "to authorize the construction and maintenance of a bridge across the St. Louis river, at some feasible and convenient point from the town site of St. Louis in Douglas county, Wisconsin, to the townsite of New Duluth in St. Louis county, Minnesota," and that, by the terms of said bill, The Wisconsin and Minnesota Bridge Company, which proposes to build under said act, is required, upon the introduction of the bill, to give public notice as follows:

"That subscriptions to the capital stock of said company will be received at its office in Duluth, Minnesota, up to and until 4 o'clock p. m. on the 28th day of February, 1891, at which time the books for subscription shall be closed, and during that period the company is bound to accept the subscriptions to said stock offered by any person or corporation; and it is further bound to allot to any subscriber subscribing before said books are closed, if required, such proportion of said capital as he shall be entitled to if the whole amount were divided equally among all the applicants applying before the books are closed."

And notice is hereby given that said books of subscription are now open at the headquarters of the company in the office of the St. Louis Land Improvement company, in the Phoenix block, at Duluth, Minnesota, and any person or corporation is entitled to become, and is cordially invited to become, a subscriber to said capital stock.

The capital stock of said company is $75,000, and is divided into shares of $100 each. The articles of incorporation may be seen at said office, and any further information may be obtained at the office.

COUNSEL CARLISLE TALKS.

He Makes a Statement Regarding the Bering Sea Difficulty.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Calderon Carlisle, counsel for the British government in the Bering sea controversy before the supreme court, issued a statement, in which he says that the question raised by the suggestion for a writ of prohibition is not a question belonging to the appropriate functions of diplomacy in the political department of the government, but is solely a question of law. "The scope and purpose of the proceeding in the supreme court," says Mr. Carlisle, "is to obtain a judicial construction given by the district court of Alaska, have deprived British subjects of nearly $300,000 worth of property. The question is not what may the United States do in the Bering sea, but what it has done. If the United States claims the right of property in either the high sea or its annals, it can so declare by state tomorrow, and the courts would be bound to follow the law, whatever diplomatic negotiations might arise in consequence with other nations."

The Sewers of Paris

Are one of the modern wonders of the world. That marvelous network of underground streams, over which the tourist can travel by rail and in boats, constitutes the bowels of the gay capital. This labyrinth of streams is kept with scrupulous care, for any obstruction in the flow of the sewage would be attended with serious results to the health of the inhabitants of the city above. The sewers of the human system are the liver and bowels, and in order to keep disease out of the wonderful city of which they are a part, they must be kept always free and unobstructed. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets are the best laxative and cathartic known for the purpose. They, sugar-coated granules, in vials, always fresh.

THE WEEKLY INTER OCEAN.

So great is its popularity that for years it has had the LARGEST CIRCULATION of any Chicago weekly newspaper. It is ably and carefully edited in every department with a special view to its usefulness in the HOME, THE WORKSHOP, and THE BUSINESS OFFICE.

It is a Consistent Republican Newspaper,

But discusses all public questions candidly and ably. While it gives fair treatment to political opponents, it is bitterly opposed to TRUSTS and MONOPOLIES as antagonistic to both public and private interests.

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT of the paper is excellent, and has among its contributors some of the MOST POPULAR AUTHORS of the day.

THE FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC CORRESPONDENCE, SERIAL AND REPORTS are the equal of those of any similar publication in the country.

The Youth's Department, * Charity Shop, * Woman's Kingdom, * and * The Home ARE IN THEMSELVES EQUAL TO A MAGAZINE.

In addition to all this the NEWS OF THE WORLD is given in its columns every week. In all departments it is carefully edited by competent men employed for that purpose.

THE PRICE OF THE WEEKLY INTER OCEAN IS $1.00 PER YEAR.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY INTER OCEAN is published each Monday and Thursday morning, and is an excellent publication for those who can not secure a daily paper regularly and are not satisfied with a weekly.

THE YEAR'S LOCAL FLOUR OUTPUT.

Duluth Has a Bull Feeling but Scarcity of Offerings; Trade
Notes.

The market ruled very dull here today although there was an excellent demand for cash wheat, No. 1 northern in store being bid up 2½c over yesterday's close before sellers would close. There seems to be but very little cash wheat offering at any figure. News was bullish Chicago reported nine loads marked for export. Bradstreet makes the Pacific coast stocks, of which, 12,530,000 bu against 12,944,000 a week ago. From New York 11,000 packages of flour cleared and 27,000 bu of wheat.

Cash wheat in store No. 2 northern sold at 82c, and closed steadily at the same figure. Cash No. 1 northern in store was bid up to 82c in the forenoon before sellers would close. Later it eased off, closing at 81c. Cash No. 1 hard in store ruled steady, closing at 91c. No. 3 wheat sold at 73c. For No. 1 northern cash wheat, in sample on track, 90½c was freely bid without sellers. The closing prices were as follows:

	Cash	Jan.	May
No. 1 hard	91	91½	92½
No. 1 northern	82	82	82½
No. 2 northern	81	81	81½

Cash on track: Wheat, 17; flax, 2; last year none. Receipts: Wheat, 12, 123 bu; shipments, none. Inspection: Cash No. 1 hard, 5; No. 1 northern, 3; No. 1 white winter wheat, 3; total, 11.

New York Money and Stocks.

New York, Jan. 14.—Money on loan at 3½ per cent. Exchange, strong; posted rates 48½@48¾; actual rates, 48½@48¾ for sixty days, and 48½@48¾ for demand. Government's steady; currency, 6s, $1.09 bid; 4s, coupon, $1.20 4½c, coupon, $1.03 bid.

The stock market was active, 193,200 shares changing hands. Prices opened strong and fractionally higher. Sugar rose 1½c, and Missouri Pacific ¼c. Chicago gas and cotton oil were strong, sugar later fell to 80½. Lackawanna was also weak, dropping 1½c. The general list was, however, fractionally higher. American Refining company's stock was traded in for the first time at 12½c. Chicago gas was very strong and further advanced 2½c per cent.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Jan. 14.—Grain opened firm, but dull. There was a report in circulation that the English country markets had advanced two shillings in the last four days. That this report was not generally credited was shown by the opening market which was 96½c for May, against 96½c@96¾c at yesterday's close. It sold off to 96½c@96¾c on receipts of 273 cars at Duluth and Minneapolis and advanced 96½c because of the decrease last week, according to Bradstreet of 350,000 bu in the available stocks of wheat east of the Rockies. Logan and Brown led the selling.

Foreign Markets.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—The grain markets opened this morning generally firm at unchanged prices. Wheat and corn at Liverpool were steady. At Mark Lane wheat and corn were firmer. Wheat off coast firm and on passage improving. Corn off coast and on passage firm. French markets firm. Weather in the United Kingdom colder.

A Philadelphia Failure.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 14.—John C. Ritchie & Bro. have failed.

THE ALLIANCE.

It Puts City Officers in Nomination Today; Some Good Ideas in Its Platform.

About forty delegates of the alliance party assembled at the city hall at 2:45 this afternoon to place city officers in nomination for the next municipal election. The convention was called to order by J. A. Mannheim. A. C. Parsons was elected temporary chairman and A. T. Scarlett secretary. On motion of J. A. Mannheim the following gentlemen were appointed a committee on credentials by the chairman: T. C. Himebaugh, A. McLean, Alderman Perry, Antoine Ringsred and Carl Thiel.

The convention will nominate F. J. Voss for city treasurer and either W. G. Ten Brook for city comptroller or A. C. Parsons with chances in favor of the former.

M. Wessenberg, who has lately returned from consulting the attorney general regarding the refusal of Judge Davies to present his resignation was called upon. He stated that he had taken a copy of the appointment of Davies as assistant county attorney approved by Judge Stearns to St. Paul with him, and that the attorney general told him that the different political parties ought to place candidates in the field for the office and elect a man, and then if Davies refused to step out, begin legal proceedings at once to force him to do so.

Resolutions embodying the following points were presented to the committee and will be adopted: First, the party pledged support to the principals of the state and national alliance parties; second, they demand that on all public works the day labor system be adopted; third, that eight hours shall constitute a day's labor; fourth, that the city resolve not to give away any more franchises without receiving a fair compensation for them; fifth, that the city take steps in remedying the defects in our water works system so as to prevent the disastrous effects to public health after first purchasing the city water plant; sixth, they oppose the proposed change in the city charter giving greater powers to the mayor; seventh, they favor the encouragement by the city authorities of any plans to develop the St. Louis River water power with a view of transmitting power by electricity; eighth, they demand that the city council ask the legislature to change the charter where it conflicts with these demands. It is probable that they will also demand a new city officer, to be known as the city weighmaster.

The committee on credentials reported. The following committee on resolutions was appointed: at large, Canning; First ward, Lawrence; Second, Rudolph; Third, Scarlett; Fourth, McLean; Fifth, Schweiger; Sixth, Haskins.

Other resolutions were to the effect that the county officers should be paid a reasonable salary and the balance turned over to the school fund. Again they declared in favor of dividing the county on parallel 47-20. The resolutions were presented by T. C. Himebaugh who supported it on the ground that the northern part of the county did not pay tax sufficient to defray its own expenses within $3 during the last year. The tax paid up in Tower and Ely did not reach over 25 per cent of the amount of money required to carry on the schools, and besides the tail wagged the dog. The range bulldozed all county conventions. Both of these resolutions were adopted.

In Court.

Case 175 was called this afternoon, but the jury was still out. In 171 the jury brought in a verdict for plaintiff of $300 with 7 per cent interest.
